WEDDING OF POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE TOOK PLACE FRIDAY

Impressive in its simplicity, yet characterized by dignity, was the marriage of Miss Willa W. Crawford and Mr. Walter H. Prevost, which was solemnized on Friday morning at ten o'clock at the First Baptist church. Rev. H. W. Baumon, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The altar was effectively arranged with standards of graduating in white, holding arrangements of white, pink, daisies, white and yellow gladioli, with the entire background filled with ferns.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. R. B. and N. Barber, Jr., accompanied by Miss Grace Crocker on the pipe organ, gave two violin solos, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," by Saint Saens, and "Souvenir Polka," by Filchik. Mr. Walter Herbert accompanied by Miss Crocker and Mrs. Barber sang "Because," by J. Harlot. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the processional and the wedding march from Mendelssohn was the processional theme. During the taking of the vows "H. Beethoven" by List was softly rendered.

Serving as ushers were Mr. Colin McInnes, Mr. Clyde H. Ray, Jr., Mr. Ben Sloan, and Mr. Aaron Prevost. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Ralph Prevost, a student.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Fred Crawford, who gave her in marriage. She wore a smart white double suit, with accessories of French blue, with a finely woven French lace with touches of the contrasting blue velvet. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of deep yellow rose buds.

Mrs. Prevost, who is one of the popular members of the younger set of the town, is the daughter of Mrs. W. T. Crawford and the late Congressman W. T. Crawford, and is a member of one of the most prominent families in Western North Carolina. Her ancestors having been for generations makers of the history of this section. Her brother who gave her in marriage is the All American Tackle from Duke University. She was educated in the local schools and attended the State College for Teachers College in San Francisco and the State Teachers College in Fredericksburg, Va.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost. He is a graduate of the Waynesville High School, and of the School of Commerce, of the State University, where he was a member of Lambda Chi fraternity. He is one of the younger prominent business men of this section, holding the position of superintendent of the Unagusta Manufacturing Company of the town of Hazelwood, of which he is the recently elected mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. Prevost left by motor for a fortnight's trip to various northern points. For her going away the bride donned a yellow knit sport suit, with becoming brown accessories. Upon their return to Waynesville, the couple will reside on Brown avenue.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
