Massie's Dept. Store
"A Good Place to Trade"

The bride and groom entered the room together. A simple ring ceremony was used during which Mrs. S. O. Tranthem, of Mars Hill, softly played, "My Wild Irish Rose."

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Yates motored to Raleigh, where the former has accepted a position with the weights and measures of the Department of Agriculture.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Justice, of the Crabtree section, of this county. On both maternal and paternal sides, she is connected with some of the oldest and most prominent families of the county.

Mr. Yates is the son of the late D. P. Yates and Mrs. Emma Brown of Lake Junaluska. He received his education at the Clyde High School and the Western Carolina Teachers College.

MR. AND MRS. STEVENSON ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF SISTER
Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stevenson announce the marriage of their sister, Miss Jeanette Inman, of Waynesville, and Greenville, S. C., to Mr. Milan Eison, of Greenville, S. C.

The marriage took place in Greenville, S. C., at the home of the groom, on March the 28th, and was attended by a small group of friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. F. Morris, of the Welcome Street Methodist church, of Greenville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Inman, of Greenville. She is a graduate of the Waynesville High School and at the time of her marriage was a student nurse at the General Hospital of Greenville. She has made her home with her sister and brother here for the past few years.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Eison, of Greenville, S. C., and is at present connected with the Greenville Production Credit Association. Mr. and Mrs. Eison are now at home to their friends on West Washington street, Greenville.
