BENEFIT PARTY ATTENDED BY LARGE CROWD

The benefit party given on Thursday evening at the Hotel Gordon, was both socially and financially a decided success. The affair was sponsored by the Woman's Club and the receipts will be divided between the Waynesville Public Library and the Civic Park on East street.

The lobby of the hotel, the use of which had been generously donated by Mr. Angus Craft, was attractively arranged in quantities of summer flowers. Those receiving were: Mrs. S. P. Gay, president of the club, Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Mary A. Barber, Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Mrs. Colin McInnes, and Mrs. Woodson Jones.

The two grand prizes, which were drawn for after the close of the games, were won by Mrs. R. L. Lee and Miss Lowe, a guest at the Palmer House. Other winners of the prizes, all of which had been donated by the merchants of the town, were as follows: Miss Ethel Craig, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Preston, Miss Council, Mrs. Minna Butler, Mrs. Harry Frehn, Miss Louise Stringfield, Mrs. Francis Massie, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mr. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Dr. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. Steelly, Mrs. Frances, Morley, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, and Dr. S. P. Gay.

BRIDE OF MR. SIDNEY MARTIN

In a ceremony characterized by simple beauty, Miss Margaret McCorkie, only daughter of Mrs. Margaret Deacon McCorkie, of 6 Charlotte street, became the bride of Mr. Sidney Allison Martin Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony took place at the First Presbyterian church, Asheville, with the Rev. Dr. O. J. Chandler officiating in the place of the Rev. Dr. R. E. Campbell, pastor of the bride, who is out of the city.

Palms banked the altar and were interspersed with white floor baskets filled with white gladioli and white lilies. Three tall white standards, graduating in height and each bearing seven cathedral candles, were placed effectively at the back and on the sides. Large bows of white satin ribbon marked the families' pews.

Miss Linda Schartle, church organist, presided at the organ and played a preliminary program as follows: "Serenade," by Widor; "O Sole Mio," by di Capua; "I Love You Truly," by Bond. The processional was the wedding march from Lohengrin and the recessional was Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride had her mother for her matron of honor and she wore a powder blue lace gown in long lines with matching blue picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium. The only other attendant to the bride was Miss Margaret Ligon, maid of honor, who was attired in pink mousseline de sole made on Princess lines and she also carried pink roses and blue delphinium. Her picture hat was of pink.

Mr. Douglas McCorkie accompanied his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a heavy ivory satin gown in Princess model with high cowl neck and long tight sleeves. Her tulle veil was fashioned into a coronet and held in place with sprays of orange blossoms and fell in short train. Her arm bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The best man was Mr. Fred E. Martin, of Waynesville, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were: Mr. Frank Martin, another brother, and Mr. T. N. Massie, both of Waynesville, Mr. Caphart Nichols and Mr. Douglas Badgett, of Canton.

After the ceremony, the bride changed to a traveling suit of blue triple sheer crepe with a pink net blouse, blue hat, and blue accessories. She wore away a small shoulder bouquet, which she had detached from the center of her wedding bouquet, this being of gardenias.

The couple left by motor for New York, where they will sail on Monday afternoon on the S. S. "Britannic" for a three weeks' honeymoon in Bermuda. Upon their return they will take up residence at 6 Charlotte street.

Out-of-town guests here for the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bryant, the latter's sister and mother, Miss Homesell McCorkie and Mrs. A. A. McCorkie, of Kings Mountain, cousins and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gruen, of Durham, cousins of the bride; Miss Margaret Deacon and sister, Mrs. Anna Withers, of Lexington, Va., cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Martin, brother and wife, Mrs. Paul Martin, sister-in-law, all of Waynesville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fricks, of Sylva, sister of the bridegroom; the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch, of Glen Alpine, the latter also a sister of the bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from the Asheville High school in the class of 1932, attended Biltmore Junior college one year, and then attended the University of Tennessee. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. She has lived in Asheville all her life, but her father and mother come from old and prominent Virginia families. She has been in the Emergency Relief department of the City of Asheville for three years.

Mr. Martin was graduated from the Waynesville High school and received his degree from Duke university in 1928. He is a member of the American Business club, of Asheville. He is now sales manager of the Asheville Gas company. His family is pioneer and prominent in Haywood county—Asheville Citizen.

MISS HESTER ANN WITHERS
GIVES PICNIC SUPPER

On Thursday evening Miss Hester Ann Withers, entertained with a picnic supper party at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Joe Rose, at Balsam, in compliment to Miss Marion Calhoun, of Asheville, whose marriage to Mr. John G. Murray took place on Saturday. Miss Withers and Miss Calhoun were classmates at Agnes Scott College.

The guest list included Miss Amy Underwood, of Atlanta, Miss Betty Fountain, of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Carolyn Rose, Miss Marion Calhoun, Mr. John G. Murray, of Charleston, S. C., Mr. H. Grady Hardin, Mr. James Harden Howell, Jr., Mr. William Medford, and Mr. E. L. Withers, Jr.

CAMPBELL REUNION

The program committee has completed plans for the Campbell reunion, which will be held on Sunday, July 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alexander Campbell, at their home at Dellwood. Extensive plans are being made to have the meeting of unusual interest and all members of the family and their friends are invited to be present.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN FLORIDA

Of keen interest throughout North Carolina and Georgia, owing to the prominence of the two families, is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Evelyn Milburn and Mr. Charles Alton Lee, which took place in Jacksonville, Fla., on June 20th. Rev. R. N. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Jacksonville, in the presence of a small group of intimate friends of the couple, pronounced the marriage vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Milburn, of Macon, Ga., and is a popular member of the younger social group of that city. She is a graduate of the University of Alabama.

Mr. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, of Waynesville, who resided for many years in Raleigh, where Mr. Lee was the Chairman of Corporation Commission of North Carolina. He received his education in the Raleigh schools and the University of North Carolina. He holds position with the directory department of the Southern Bell Telephone Company. He was formerly located in Macon, Ga., but after the first of August he will be transferred to Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee are now the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, at their country place, on the Fairview Road and will spend the coming fortnight here before going to Atlanta to reside.

Miss Margaret Bell and Mrs. Austin Garrett, of Wilmington, N. C., are the guests this week of Mrs. Lucile Foy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan and daughter, Miss Mary Alice Dungan, and son, Pat Dungan, of Elizabeth, Tenn., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. McCracken.
