

Farmers Can Get Cheap Electricity, Says W. D. Smith

W. D. SMITH

It is not to have electricity under TVA rates? That is, which is uppermost in the minds of our readers?

Mr. Rankin, of Mississippi, has been persistent in his efforts to get the TVA to lower the rates for electricity in a recent year. The TVA gets a share of electricity from the power plants which light his home, and he has a refrigerator, a washing machine, and a sewing machine, with which to cook. He says that farmer should have a month's electricity for the same amount of money that they run in other parts of the country. Mr. Rankin says that the TVA rates are for farms fully equipped with household appliances, where only electric lights are used. The rates run as low as 10 cents a month for the same amount of electricity in other parts of the country. Saw a kid an' woman row over in the cove west of Waynesville a few days ago—run rite into it, yes sir— Of coars Uncle Abe stood off at a safe distance an' look on. The mothers, it seems, had took a hand in the row between the young uns—you no how mothers offen do. So one of the mothers sed, sez she: "Well, I'll give you to understand I'm not a-join' to whoop mine onless you whoop yores."

"An' I'll be durned if I tetch my yung un until you whoop yores furst," sed the other.

(These mout not a bin the words pine blank, but sump'm simler). Well, they joward a while longer, then all at once one woman lit in on her boy.

She whoopt him down, She whoopt him up, She whoopt him like He wuz a pup— An' then she whoopt: sum more.

The other woman took her boy on into the hous. . . I don't no what wuz dun in sekrit seshun, but I didn't hear eny commoshun from the inside.

Well, fokes, Unkle Abe went to church last nite, furst time in a long while; an' I notice that wimmen's hats are sum bigger. Now, if they git much bigger, so that I'll haif to peep furst to one side then tuther to see the preacher, rite then I'll quit goin' to church—that is, if I ever git started in.

Ye see fokes, I'm a-tryin' to git forgiveness of all them cuss words I used last winter when my water pipes froz up. Last nite I set about 1/2 way to the reer from the Pulpit, which shows that I've about 1/2 way repented. At the rate I'm a gitten' warmed up, why purry soon I'll be in the Amen Korner, whir Bro. Barnes an' a few other good ol' brethern an' sistern set. Then I can shout—Glorry be!

The whiter the bred The sooner you're ded is the sine on Killian's mill at Clyde—an' thar's a hole lot of trooth in that little verce. "Whitch reminds me" that Unkle Abe onct bawt hizself a 48 pound sack of this here confounded "Self-Risin' flour." Well, I thawt we never wood git it eat up. . . I think it kep risin' all the time; howsomever, I no the biskits kep a-gitten heavier all the time an' my stummick wecker.

ABOUT THE DILLINGER CAR

Now fer the quezhuns . . . only one this week, from Canton, whitch is as follows:

Canton, N. C., Aug. 4.

Dear Uncle Abe:

State Takes Life Of Two Negroes

RALEIGH—The state of North Carolina on last Friday took the lives of two negroes—Dortch Waller, 43, and Taft Williams, 25—both for the crime of murder.

Both of the men died with a denial of guilt upon their lips. They were the 153rd and 154th victims of the electric chair since 1910.

Williams was charged with the killing of his wife, Blanche, with an axe in Columbus county last September. The last statement by Williams being: "I ain't guilty." Waller paid for the crime of killing John Harris, white store keeper, near Oxford.

It was the first time in 12 years that a woman witnessed an execution.
