Uncle Abe AS HE SEES THE HUMAN SIDE O' LIFE

WHEN UNKLE ABE WUZ YUNG.

Come, childern, close 'round Unkle's chir,
N while I'm in the mood
I'll tell ye of my boyhood days,
Altho my verce is crood.

'Twas twenty—no, thurty yeers ago,
Or longer back than that,
Say thurty-five since I grode up—
Now, childern, git that pat.

Thurty-five? No, let me count,
Its bin forty yeers, I no,
Since when I wore my brogan shoos
With brass around the toe.

Jist a ho'made shirt an' pair o' pants
Wuz all we wore back then;
So when we wore out shirt an' pants—
Thar wuz nuthin left but skin.

All little boys an' missess too
Wore dresses jist alike,
Until they wuz most 5 yeers old—
An' then to skool they'de hike.

They look our heds fur "boogers" then;
Big "bell-wethers" fed galore,
Plaid hide an' seek upon our skelps,
A hand full, yes, or more.

We went to Skool a little bit;
The house wuz made of lawgs,
We warmed our toes by a big far place—
Thar also warmed our dawgs.

You bet we node to "mind" back then—
I remember how my pa "tanned out
My hide" with a peach tree switch
Fur givin' back sum "jaw."

We mound the cows an' flede the pup;
We suckered, wormed an' primed,
Slopt the hawgs, rubbed down the hoss,
We gethered an' we climed.

We eet dune apples by the yard,
An' sweet bred by the peck—
Then soon we'd have the tummy ake—
An' nearly die, by heck!

The boys went a-courtin' on Sunday eve.
Their brogans greezed up slick,
An' took stick candy to treet the gurl
Whom "rubbed" with a black gum stick.

[illegible] Uncle Abe's jist [illegible] 2 Re[illegible] Medford git[illegible] Cove an' [illegible] at Seezers—[illegible] now in the [illegible] em both in [illegible].

[illegible] Abe was [illegible] to git sum [illegible] the Ferguson [illegible] Milas No[illegible] already had the [illegible] over to Unkle [illegible] to lissen. [illegible] tell about the [illegible] enyway.

THE FINES CREEK FLUD

[illegible] the Fines [illegible] yonder when [illegible] on the hed [illegible] down so quick [illegible] to say thur [illegible] an' ast the Lord [illegible] they jist barely had [illegible] onto a [illegible] by the tale.

[illegible] cats, [illegible] pups, [illegible] saddles, [illegible] hawses, [illegible] mules, [illegible] women—ever thing wuz be[illegible] anus'—Well, it mout not [illegible] but [illegible] wuz a hell-[illegible]

[illegible] that capsot the stack, tho, [illegible] somboddy told of seein' [illegible] together a few nites ago. [illegible] wuz no queschun 'bout [illegible] moose a-travelin' peece[illegible] side akross the sky.

[illegible] all depends, Mr. Editur, [illegible] a grand woman haz had, [illegible] man who sees dubble has bin [illegible] the meenest brand of all.

[illegible] don't ye say sump'm 'bout [illegible] are gitten kongested on [illegible] axt a Waynesville man [illegible]. Call the poleecy, man, [illegible] not a street-kleener.

[illegible] don't ye call the law an' stop [illegible] drinkin' an' raisin' Cain [illegible] the niggers over yore way?" [illegible] an old cullerd woman [illegible] what good wood it do . . . . [illegible] cullerd fokes noze the rattle [illegible] of kyar; so, soon as [illegible] comin' they jist hushes up an' Cheef kaint find out nuthin', no sir-ee!"

Did ye heey about the holyday preecher a-goin' to preech fur Charley McCracken. But Charley wouldn't have none of it.

"Who sint ye down here to preech to me?" axt Charley.

"I think it wuz yore brother, Stewart, an' sum uther folkes," he replide.

"Well, ye can jist go back an' preech fur the ones what sint ye, they need it worse than I do," sed Charley.

Your Horoscope

September 1,2.—You are very accurate, faithful, thorough in all you do. People like you because you are honest, generous, and truthful. You have a well balanced mind, although a little odd at times, are strongly attached to your home and family. This, however, does not keep you from outside interests.

September 3, 4.—You can readily fall into new routine, change your home and business without much effort, are a true, reliable friend and equally reliable enemy. You are open and frank, know what you want and go about it without much fuss.

September 5.—Your disposition is a strange mixture of brightness and sadness. You are apt to change your opinions frequently,—especially on religion, but always with a basis of deep conviction. Your great gift of psychic powers should be developed.

September 6, 7.—There is a large vein of inflexible justice in your make-up, and people have confidence in your honesty and integrity. You are positive, firm, determined,—think your own way the best, a stickler for old forms and customs. You may be right in a great degree, but your acquaintances will be likely to write you down as an "old fogy." The world needs you and will for a long time to come.

Varieties of Fish in Tampa Bay

Varieties of fish found in gulf waters and Tampa bay by officials of the St. Petersburg Tarpon club show 628, ranging from the lowly minnow to the giant sea bass, tarpon and manatee.

This Week —IN— History

September 2—Great fire in London, which consumed 400 streets, 13,200 houses and 89 churches, and at the same time stamped out the plague, which had been raging, 1666; Hiram [illegible], senator, born 1850; U. S. Treasury [illegible], 1789; Labor Day.

September [illegible] as a legislative body, [illegible] through at the [illegible] Rail[illegible]way strike [illegible] command [illegible] fort, who [illegible] Nez Perce [illegible] United States [illegible] Treaty of Peace with [illegible] Japan, ending Russo-Japanese war, 1905; Paul Pelissier, [illegible] chosen at Saint Ilario, N. Y., 1666; British troops [illegible] Rebellion stores [illegible] Burgoyne's army [illegible] prisoners, 1891.

September 7—[illegible] formation of American [illegible] Shakespeare's drama, "The Merchant of Venice," by professional actors, at Williamsburg, Va., 1752; Final treaty of peace between Russia and Japan signed at Portsmouth, N. H., 1905; First Continental Congress assembled at Philadelphia, Pa., 1774.

September 6—W. M. Johnson, of California, won national tennis championship, 1915; Assassination of President McKinley at Buffalo by the Polish anarchist, Leon Czolgosz, 1901; Fort Griswold, at Groton, Conn., taken by the British under Benedict Arnold, 1781.

September 7—Eli Perkins, humorist, born 1850; First race for American cup, Mayflower defeated Gladiator, 1851; Eight members of the Stefansson Polar expedition [illegible] karluk were found by a relief party from Nome, 1914.

September [illegible] section of Galveston, Texas, by tidal wave, 8,000 drown and 5,000 [illegible] made homeless, 1900; Harvard college founded at Cambridge, Mass., by John Harvard, English divine, 1636.

Navajos' Idea of Eating

Navajos have many queer ideas about eating. One is that if one eats certain parts of deer, he will lose his friends; another, that cooling dumplings in the summer time will bring on a hailstorm. Goat and mutton meat are the principal diet among the Navajo Indians.

Canada's Southernmost Point

Pelee island in Lake Erie is the southernmost point in Canada.

Stamp —but— True

The Word Map [illegible] Bloom Ameri[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Ariz[illegible].

One of the [illegible] [illegible] Jaxon [illegible] Ethiopia [illegible] country [illegible] no natura[illegible] [illegible] and is [illegible] off from [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] any one.

A tree trunk [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the tree becomes [illegible] [illegible] does not grow [illegible] A [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] growth.

Only two of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] from Saint [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] their full [illegible].

Arkansas [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Questions —and— Answers

1. To whom was [illegible] H Duce [illegible]?
2. Name what [illegible] [illegible] Alaska and [illegible] Post [illegible] airplane accident [illegible].
3. How many [illegible] [illegible] Will [illegible] have?
4. What are the names of the [illegible] [illegible]?
5. What was the name of the Amer[illegible] [illegible] who fought the Indian [illegible] Wild Bill Hickok?
6. Who [illegible] Wiley Post from [illegible] [illegible] Alaska to Point Barrow, Alaska?
7. [illegible] what [illegible] are deposits [illegible] [illegible] under government [illegible] insured?
8. What [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]