Estimate Is That Will Rogers Left 5 Million To Wife

Wrote His Will 12 Days Before He Started On Ill Fated Air Voyage

HOLYWOOD.—Twelve days before Will Rogers, cowboy actor and philosopher took off for Ala-ka on his ill-fated plane ride with Wiley Post, he rewrote his will.

This was disclosed last night when the will leaving the entire estate of the actor—unofficially estimated at $5,000,000—to his widow, Betty Blake Rogers, was filed for probate.

The will, written on a single sheet of paper, was filed immediately in the county clerk's safe, and a typewritten copy was filed for the files.

The petition accompanying the will said the estate was "community property" and consisted of all personal effects, including automobiles, furniture, and insurance on the actor, horses, mules and ranch equipment.

The will read:

"I, Will Rogers, hereby publish and declare my will:

"My wife's name is Betty Rogers. I have only three children now living, namely: Will, Jr., James and Mary Rogers.

"I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, both community and otherwise, to my wife, Betty Rogers.

"In the event my wife should not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate to my children who shall survive me, share and share alike; provided, however, that should any of my children predecease me leaving issue, the share to which such deceased child would have been entitled if living, I give, devise and bequeath to his or her issue.

"I hereby appoint my wife, Betty Rogers, C. N. Beasley of Beverly Hill, Calif., Oscar Lawler and James K. Blake as executors, hereof. Should my wife not survive me I appoint my son, Will, Jr., in her place as such executor and direct that no bond be required of my wife or son as executor.

"Signed, WILL ROGERS."

Witnesses were Ewing Halsell of Vanita, Okla., E. N. Va., of Julona Ranch, Santa Barbara county. Blake is Mrs. Rogers' brother.

Gets Hurt Walking In Sleep

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—John Mitchell, 18, is in a hospital with cold packs on his feet and remembered how it felt to wake up in the early morning and find oneself dropping through space.

Young Mitchell, a native of Portageville, Mo., who has been working here since January, was suffering with two fractured ankles and each of his heel bones were cracked. Sleep walking early one morning last week, he stepped from an upper story room and dropped 16 feet to a concrete driveway.

U. S. Forest Area

One-third of the area of the continental United States is forest or potential forest land, according to the chief of the forest service.

Along The Skyline with the Rambler

Have you noticed the number of dogs carried by tourists this year? . . from German Police to Pekes. . . One man had a pet mail carrier for a Police dog on the running board of his car . . the dog jumped off every stop but would hop aboard again when his owner tooted the horn. . . Badminton (how's my spelling, proof reader?) has come to town and it's quite a game. . . A nice looking little girl in one of the primary schools has very black hair with a broad white streak across the left side. . . The Creamery does a rush business on Sunday afternoon. . . Are you a member of the self-appointed staff of advisors for the Baptist S. S. building? . . . . Everybody else is. . . There goes a visitor who is a ringer for Miss Marguerite Massie. . . They have a new name for Tom Ralney down at Abel's garage—Major Hoople!

Eamon De Valera is the only American born European dictator. Now President of the Irish Free State he was born on the East Side of New York.

And so American mothers can now tell their sons 'Some day you may be President—of Ireland!"

The war clouds hovering over Europe today should remind us that every war is a calamity and that nobody ever won one.

I like this distinction: "A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman, of the next generation."

Strange as it may seem most of the young folks I see hurrying along with books under their arms act as tho they're glad to be going to school again.

According to William L. Brownell the ladder of life is full of splinters, but they always prick the hardest when we're sliding down. You're telling us!

That six ton bean or grocer that had to be placed in Massie's new theater gave the contractor and workmen plenty of trouble. In fact I thought they were going to have to send out a call for Pop-Eye, the Sailor.

I don't pretend to be an expert horticulturist but I thought the flower show was pretty good.

Thomas Jefferson once said that they who labor in the earth are the chosen people of God.

During recent years some of our farmers have been inclined to wonder about that.

The other day I saw two people who undoubtedly live to eat. If I should tell you how much food they put away during one meal you would doubt everything else I ever said.

Diamond Jim Brady is the only man I ever heard of whom I thought could eat as much—and Diamond Jim's stomach was seven times as large as the average.

Maybe when television comes in central will have too much modesty to ring the phone when you're in the tub!

Mine Blast Costs $100,000

BENTON, Ill.—A dynamite blast, attributed by authorities to the State's inter-mine union warfare, destroyed the engine room of the Valier Coal Company mine. Damages were estimated at $100,000.

Boilers, hoisting machinery and other apparatus were wrecked by the explosion, which leveled a one story brick building. One was injured.

Deputy sheriffs discovered a long coil of wire near the building which they said had apparently been used in the dynamiters in setting off the blast from a distance.

Women Who Have Pains Try CARDUI Next Time!

On account of poor nourishment, many women suffer functional pains at certain times, and it is for these that Cardui is offered on the record of the safe relief it has brought and the good it has done in helping to overcome the cause of womanly discomfort. Mrs. Cole Young, of Leesville, La., writes: "I was suffering with irregular . . . I had quite a lot of pain which made me nervous. I took Cardui and found it helped me in every way, making me regular and stopping the pain. This quieted my nerves, making my health much better." . . .
