CHRISTMAS PARTY TAKES PLACE AT COUNTRY CLUB

With several trees aglow with lights at the entrance to the club house of the Waynesville Country Club and the towering tree in the lounge, sparkling with ornaments and lights, the Christmas season was ushered in by the first social affair of the week, among the married set on Saturday evening, when a Christmas party was given.

The group of friends gave the party as a co-operative affair with a drawing of names for gifts and partners for the evening. Following the distribution of the gifts by an honest-to-goodness Santa Claus from his seats to his hand, several progressions of contract were enjoyed.

Those making up the party were: Mr. and Mrs. James M. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. R. Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dicus, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Collett, Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Robinson, Mrs. Nana Shankle, and Mr. Wallace Blackwell.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENJOYS CHRISTMAS MEETING

The regular December meeting of the Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon in the dining room of the new Sunday School annex of the Baptist church. In the absence of Mrs. S. P. Gay, president, Mrs. H. W. Blacum, vice president, presided. The room was attractively arranged in Christmas greens, with a lighted tree, under which the members placed their gifts for the annual community tree for the underprivileged children of the community.

During the period given over to business, Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., chairman of the Christmas activities, gave an outline of the items and urged that a large attendance mark the exercise held on Christmas afternoon at four o'clock at the court house for the annual tree.

Mrs. R. N. Barber read a letter from the state garden chairman urging that all club women conserve the evergreens at this season. Mrs. James W. Killian, chairman of civics, announced the plans for her committee. Mrs. Grover C. Davis, chairman of American citizenship stated that a copy of Whittier's famous painting of his mother would be presented to the high school in January. A motion was made to ask the mayor to prohibit the use of fireworks on the streets.

Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., took charge of the program. She gave a brief sketch of the lives of Franz Schubert and Franz Listz, following which she gave a violin solo, Ave Maria, a song sung by Mrs. Evander Patton.
