Hazelwood School Is Enjoying Successful Year Under James

Enrollment Of Over 500 Main-tain Good Attendance Record During Recent Bad Weather

According to J. C. James, principal, the Hazelwood Elementary School is enjoying a very successful year. This is probably the largest elementary school in the county outside of the special chartered district of Canton...

Mr. James stated that probably more than forty would be sent next year to the high school, with about the same number to the junior high.

Other teachers are Mrs. Sam Knight, Mrs. Aaron Prevost, Miss Daisy Boyd, Mrs. Eva Cole, Miss Eva Leatherwood, Miss Mayme Leatherwood, Miss Mildred Medford, Miss Margaret Burgin, Miss Mary Stringfield, and Miss Hester Ann Withers.

Mr. James stated that the school was composed of students with an honor roll of about five per room, or forty-five or fifty for the school each month.

Mr. James is an outstanding supporter of Parent-Teachers' Association, and gave the Hazelwood organization credit for much of the success of the local school.

In concluding the interview Mr. James stated that he was well pleased with the progress being made by the Hazelwood school, that his work was very pleasant although of a nature to keep him always busy, and that he expected the elementary pupils of

Unagusta Furniture Will Be Shipped To Paris, France, Soon

According to Ralph Prevost, sales manager of the Unagusta Manufacturing Company, a shipment of furniture will be made to Paris, France, in about ten days.

The order which was sold by the firm's Boston jobber, will consist of bed room furniture, and it will be the first time goods from the Unagusta company have been shipped to Paris.

Mr. Prevost also stated that his factory is now shipping considerable quantities of furniture to Canada, since the lowering of tariffs between the United States and Canada.

BOOSTER CLUB TO MEET

The Hazelwood Booster Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at the town hall.

REVIVAL AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

A revival began at the Hazelwood Baptist church on last Sunday evening and will probably continue through next week.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On Thursday afternoon little Miss Sibyl Wiggins celebrated her eleventh birthday anniversary by entertaining a number of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wiggins, in Grimbail Park.

After many games were enjoyed hot chocolate, cookies, and candies were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mildred Rogers, Edith Underwood, Betty and Frances Swanger, Eugene English, Ada Blanton, Carl Griffin, Jimmy Albright, Welch Earley, Anne English, Carrol English, Reba and Don Rhea, and Ruth Wagenfeld.

These Stars Shone Brightest

Bette Davis

Victor McLaglen

Awards of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the finest performances of 1935 went to Bette Davis for her characterization in "Dangerous" and to Victor McLaglen for his work in "The Informer", which also rated as the best picture of the year.

It Happened Here

By Tom Reeves

Steel beams running down near the playing court in the new gymnasium at the Junior High... can't believe that, Coach Weatherly... you just can't read plans... we don't build like that now... don't you believe we're intelligent enough to protect the players from dangerous objects along the court?...

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Latham Are Now Living in Hickory

Friends here will be interested in knowing that Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Latham, formerly of this city, and more recently of Gastonia, have moved to Hickory.

Another Precedent

The quiet and diminutive Senator from Arkansas, Mrs. Hattie Wyatt Caraway, has been a consistent setter of political precedents. When her husband died in 1931, she was chosen to fill his unexpired term in the Senate.

An Old Saying

To attempt to save a drowning man is unlucky because it is believed that the person saved would sooner or later do an injury to the man who saved him.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in a certain deed of trust executed by Ralph W. Ensley and wife, Beulah Ensley, to the undersigned, dated February 15, 1927, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, in Book of Deeds of Trust No. 21, page 27, and also by virtue of a certain judgment of the Superior Court of Haywood County, rendered on the 7th day of January, 1936, the undersigned Trustee will, on Monday, the 13th day of April, 1936, at eleven o'clock A. M., in front of the court house door in the town of Waynesville, N. C., offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described lands and premises, to-wit:

HAZELWOOD P. T. A.

The Hazelwood P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday night, March 10. The meeting opened with the singing of "America" by the audience.

Mrs. Binford, from Guilford College, gave a lecture emphasizing parent education, an understanding of educational systems by the parents, an effort to secure better homes and schools, and proper recreation for groups of children.

Miss Margaret Burgin's room received the picture for the largest parent representation.

J. E. SHIELDS ELECTED S. S. SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. J. E. Shields became superintendent of the Sunday school of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church on last Sunday. The attendance for the morning was 136, the largest in several years.

Newly appointed teachers serving with Mr. Shields are as follows: Adult, teacher, I. C. Davis; young people's, Mrs. B. M. Rhea and T. G. Stamp; intermediate, Mrs. J. E. Shields and W. B. Winchester; junior, Miss Catharine Walls and R. A. Gaddis; primary and beginners, Mrs. O. C. Landrum, Mrs. John Ferguson and Miss Hazel Rathbone.

Progress

Emile, Cecil, Marie, Wynona and Annette, can say "Bottom" and "Auntie" to visitors which is French pronunciation for baby talk for goodness and good bye. When they are naughty they are not spanked, but simply put aside. They sleep outdoors, even when the mercury dips to 30 degrees below. Their weights range from twenty-one to twenty-four pounds.
