DORCAS BELL LOVE CHAPTER D. A. R. HAS MARCH MEETING

On Friday afternoon the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the March meeting with Mrs. J. Howell Way, Mrs. J. Harden Howell, regent, presided. For the occasion the house was arranged in bowls of spring flowers. During the period devoted to business reports, were made of unusual interest. The regent, in the absence of Mrs. W. F. Swift, gave the report of the annual declamation contest, stating that there were eleven contestants, with Frederik Nichols winning the medal and David Stentz making the second place.

It was announced that Miss Sarah Welch, who was selected by the faculty and students of the Waynesville High School to represent the chapter in the state-wide contest for the Ruth Bryan Owen citizenship award, was given honorable mention by the judges and will be the recipient of a citizenship medal from the state organization.

Mrs. Thad Howell offered to buy one of the citizenship medals annually offered by the chapter to the high school students. Miss Lois Harrold was welcomed as a new member in the chapter. Mrs. Glenn Tweed, of Asheville, was introduced as the page from the chapter at the state conference.

Mrs. S. H. Bushnell had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being, "The Constitution of Today," in which a history of how the Constitution had served the American people was traced, with many pertinent thoughts as to whether or not the document would continue to meet in full the needs of the present day problems.

Mrs. R. L. Prevost reviewed the national magazine, reading in full the message of the president general. She also read extracts from the report of the national chairman of approved schools, regarding the work at Crossnore.

Mrs. E. B. Camp, alternate to the state conference, gave a most delightful report of the meeting in Asheville, stating that it was considered one of the best ever held, and that it was graced by the presence of the President General, Mrs. William H. Becker, and other national officers.

Mrs. Howell, regent, who was one of the official hostesses, presented the financial report from the conference, stating that all expenses had been met with a balance left over. She also told of the beautiful pageant given during the conference.

Special guests of the afternoon were: Miss Anne Jones, Mrs. Fred Marley, Mrs. R. S. Truesdals, Mrs. J. E. Barr, Mrs. C. N. Sisk, Mrs. J. C. Murphy, Mrs. Maria Mitchell, Mrs. Robert H.
