Cunningham, of Gastonia, as instructor; "Guiding the Young People's Worship," Text, "Training Young People in Worship," Text, Shaner and Stock, with Rev. Carl H. King, executive secretary, of Salisbury, and "The Teaching of Jesus," Text, "The Message of Jesus," by Branscomb, with Rev. J. G. Huggin, Jr., of Mount Holly, as the instructor.

The board of directors of the school are as follows: Dr. D. E. Camak, chairman, Rev. J. H. Carper, Rev. R. S. Trucedale, Rev. T. G. Highfill, Rev. M. E. Leftwich, and Rev. W. A. Rollins. Books to be studied may be purchased from Dr. D. E. Camak, at Canton.

Obituary

DOYLE D. ALLEY

Whereas, Comrade Doyle D. Alley, member of Haywood Post No. 47, The American Legion, Department of North Carolina, answered the summons of the Supreme Commander Sunday morning, January 12, 1936; and

Whereas, he was one of the most faithful members of the Legion, stood high in its councils, always serving with credit to himself and to the organization, his passing has left a gap in our ranks that cannot be filled, and we miss him greatly; and

Whereas, he was a good soldier, serving his country during the World War with honor and distinction, as Second Lieutenant in the 25th Company of the 7th Cavalry Regiment; and

Whereas, in civil life he served his county, state and nation with that same zeal and loyal devotion to duty he so nobly displayed in the service, as a leader in the civic and political realms of his county and state. He was a good citizen, a good neighbor, and a good husband and father;

Therefore, be it resolved by Haywood Post No. 47, The American Legion, Department of North Carolina, in regular session assembled:

1. That we shall greatly miss his presence, his counsel and his leadership.
2. That we express our high regard and esteem, comradeship and brotherly love for Comrade Alley.
3. That we extend to the family, relatives and friends our deepest heartfelt sympathy.
4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy be spread upon the permanent records of this post, and a copy furnished the Waynesville Mountaineer.

Approved this February 11, 1936.

T. G. MASSIE,
J. C. PATRICK,
C. W. BAILEY,
Committee.

Correct Attest:
J. H. Howell,
Commander.
L. S. Davis,
Adjutant.

COL. W. J. HANNAH

Resolutions of respect to the memory of Col. William J. Hannah.

Be it resolved by Waynesville Council No. 373, Junior Order United American Mechanics in regular convention assembled:

FIRST

That this council and each individual member thereof deeply and sincerely mourns the loss it and they have sustained in the very recent death of our loyal and beloved brother, Col. William J. Hannah, at his home in this city on the 1st day of March, 1936.

Though his last illness was long protracted and very tedious and confining, brother Hannah bore it with a patience and Christian fortitude in keeping with his philosophic character.

SECOND

That in the passing of Col. Hannah each member of this order has lost a stalwart friend and the Junior Order has lost a loyal member who was loyally devoted to and in full harmony with every great American principle upon which this order is founded.

Thus his family, his church, his community and his state have suffered the loss of a kind and indulgent father, a faithful supporter of and believer in the church, an upright and honorable member of society, whose stand on all moral and civic questions was ever on the right side, and a loyal, God-fearing and patriotic citizen. Col. Hannah began life under very severe handicaps in many ways and overcome difficulties in the face of which many would have faltered and failed. But with a well fixed and conscientious purpose and determination, an energy that knew no fatigue, a steadfastness of purpose that would not take "no" for an answer, he deservedly won for himself a large and honorable place in the life of his state and community and in the hearts of his people.

THIRD

That while we cannot suppress a feeling of our sorrow and loss, we nevertheless bow in humble submission to the inevitable fate of all mankind and take refuge in the sense of security and faith that He who knows best "doeth all things well."

FOURTH

That these resolutions be spread on the permanent records of our council as an abiding testimonial of our love and appreciation of our departed brother.

FIFTH

That a copy hereof be furnished the family of the deceased and a copy likewise be furnished the public press for publication.

H. W. BAUCOM,
R. P. WALKER,
T. L. GREEN,
Committee.

The above resolutions, after being duly read in open council were unanimously adopted.

C. W. BARNES,
Recording Secretary

As Iowa Dug Out of Worst Blizzard in 40 Years

Iowa's worst blizzard in 40 years hit with full force at Sioux City, above, threatened a serious fuel shortage in many sections of the midwest, took a death toll of nearly 300 in the nation, and left many isolated communities in Iowa and the Dakotas facing near-starvation.

CULLOWHEE STUDENTS

TO GIVE RADIO PROGRAM

The radio program entitled: "A

College in the Open Country," recently given by members of the faculty and students of Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee over Station WSM in Nashville, will be repeated over Station WWNC, Asheville, on Sunday afternoon, March 22, at three o'clock.

The program is thirty minutes long. Two from this county take part, Miss Belle Bright and Miss Ruth Burke.

Clyde 4-H Club Hold Health Meet

The Clyde 4-H Club met at the school on Monday. Dr. Sisk, county health officer, gave the club members a thorough health examination. He was assisted in his work by Mrs. Jean Dillon. After the health examinations, health talks were given by the following members: "Fresh Air," by Bobby Ferguson; "Sunshine," by Bertha Towles; "Good Posture," by Lynwood McElroy; "Rest," by Elizabeth Rogers.

The Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Mary Margaret Smith, made a very interesting talk on "The Four-H Health for Better Living."

In the project instruction, Mr. H. H. Crouse, assistant agent, stressed the importance of selecting good seeds and fixing the land right for the seed.

Miss Smith explained the state-wide canning contest and demonstrated sewing equipment and how to use it.

JAMES WALKER,
Clyde 4-H Club Reporter.
