

Junaluska P.T.A. Plan A Supper

(Received too late for last week.)
The Lake Junaluska P.T.A. held its regular meeting in the school auditorium Thursday night, March 12, with Mrs. Ed Glavich, president, presiding. Devotionals were conducted by Rev. Jesus.

The principal speaker was Mrs. Jean Dillon, of the district health department, giving purpose, organization and plans for pre-school clinic to be held at Junaluska school on April 24.

Miss Mary Rathbone gave purpose of summer round. Plans were made by the association for a supper for all members of the association to be given for last meeting for this year.

Mrs. Glavich insisted on all members being present and asked for half holiday to be given to the grade having the most parents present for this meeting—Contributed.

LETTERS to the Editor

Editor The Mountaineer:
I read The Mountaineer with pleasure. You and Mrs. Gwyn and Uncle Abe are giving Waynesville and Haywood county the best paper we've ever had. Just keep it up.

Your truly,
E. W. GUDGER,

"GETS MORE INTERESTING"
Editor The Mountaineer,
Dear Editor:

I should also like to take this opportunity to tell you how much I enjoy the "Mountaineer." I believe it gets more interesting each week. I always eagerly await Friday morning and my issue of the paper.

Yours sincerely,

Test Flights of New Zeppelin Prove Success

The Hindenburg, LZ-129

This unusual photo of the new German Zeppelin, LZ-129, christened the Hindenburg, was taken in its hangar at Friedrichshafen, Germany, after the ship had successfully passed its test flight preparation to be commissioned for transatlantic flights to United States this summer.

Yest-sir-ee—heep big show! Who sed we don't have the "Ol' Fashun" winters any more? We've had about 2 uv-em this winter.

But alter all the snow wuzn't hardly as deep as reported—Uncle Rube Conman sez that who ever reported it to be 30 inches at Canton must a-measured it in the drifts.

THE CAUZE UV-IT ALL

Don't guess we'da had the last bad spell if Uncle Abe hadn't sent out his fast "Sines o' Spring" Predict-shun... a lot o' people have bin axin me lately why I up an' dun it. Well, all I can say is that I've never node them times to fail before.

But that aint it, Mr. Editur... the rale cause of all this last disturbance in the elements wuz the fact that me an' Ikey, Wayne Rogers, Chan Barrress an' Sam Bradley went fishin' the day before an' kotch so many suckers—speshly Ikey—that we left too much vackum in the waters of the Lake—all of a sudden, ye see, an' got the disturbance startid.

UNCLE ABE GIT'S LOADED UP

It happened like this—
I wuz up on Kamp Branch an' Allen's Cr. a lookin' after the intrusts of the Deep Ol' Mount'neer—an' I'm a Son of a Gun if neerly ever man I went to didn't want to pay his subsripshun in corn meal or taters! Well, ye no, a man can only yoze just so much corn meal an' taters, speshly when he's alredy got bell-a-gry... sa arter a while I got mad an' swore I woudn't take eny more spuds nor corn meal neither.

So, at the nex place I told the man that I thawt the Editur's shoes wuz a-gittin' a little bad, an' that my britches wuz alredy wore into a hole at the seat... an' we 'lowed as how he mout help us out 'bout 1 buck—
"Not got any money," sed he, "but I can let ye have sum taters—"

"Taters—hell no!" sez I, an' pleeze don't menshun corn meal—I've alredy got my ol' Ford full o' both.

Why, man, I've got se much corn meal I'm liabul now to be 'rested on suspishun."

Then he changed his t'backer to the other side—

"Lem me see," sed he, "may-be the ol' woman's got a dollar."

Well, I node rite then that a dollar wood purty soon change hands... an' it did. I tell ye, Mr. Editur, "the ol' woman" is offen our best bet.

"Uncle Abe's a little hard fer me to reed," sed Dock Bigham, but I allus stick to it till I git it all red!"

"Orin't to be hard for Dock," replide sumone—that's the way he talketh."

"Goin' to re-sindykate it?" axt E. K. Herman. Yes, E. K., an' how about gitten you for my Bookkeeper an' Private Sickatary?

"My kompliments on yore stuff, Uncle Abe—" this from W. W. Davis, who runs wild on the Grassy Ridge with Bill Cole, et al. These boys git the Mount'neer out to the 'mind' sumhow, I no, cauze Zeb Price sed he red ever wurd uvit."

"I'm a-keepin' up with ye Uncle Abe," sed Dr. France Davis, of Canton.

Well, I found out long ago, Doc,

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective... Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Marion, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a mild medicine for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

Mrs. Stentz Is Appointed Supervisor

Mrs. J. Dale Stentz has been appointed supervisor of thirteen counties in Western North Carolina for a survey of Federal Archives.

The plans are to include a survey of all public records of state, county and towns, and also assist in the formation of recommendations designed to insure their safe preservation and facilitate their use by officials and students.

There is no processing tax on beef and mutton. Yet beef and mutton prices are just as high in proportion as pork. What's the answer?

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in a certain deed of trust executed by Ralph W. Ensley and wife, Beulah Ensley, to the undersigned, dated February 15, 1927, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, in Book of Deeds of Trust No. 21, page 27, and also by virtue of a certain judgment of the Superior Court of Haywood County, rendered on the 7th day of January, 1936, the undersigned Trustee will, on Monday, the 13th day of April, 1936, at eleven o'clock A.
