

Uncle Abe AS HE SEES THE HUMAN SIDE O' LIFE

UNCLE ABE YEELES, TOO.

Well, fokes, I've de-sided to run fer offis, too. I don't no jist yit what I'm a-goin' to run fer, but I'm a-goin' to run fer sompin'.

Keeze—I didn't speshly want to run, I hadn't thawt anything about it, but my friends got after me to run an' jist kep on perswadin' me so that I almost had to make the race."

Why, Mr. Editor, they've bin aiter me nite an' day, callin' me out o' bed, an' sayin' I'm a lyer if I woodn't run. I'm a-mornin' an' an' find 1/2 a doz. of my fens a-settin' on my door-step. So, I can certinly sympathize with kineezed other Candidates who've bin perswaded like I've bin—yes sir-ee! Well, feller Candidates, we don't want but 1 life to live anyway, so we must as well spend it on the altar of our kinty."

AN AFTER-MATH OF THE STORM.

Did any of you fokes who live on No. 19 see a run-a-way mule pass down last Tuesday. If ye did I jist want to tell ye that he wuz a Jorgy mule—an' an' order be returned if found.

Me an' Ben Sutton an' our party met the same mule on Savanner Creek last Tuesday. The wether bu-roe had heard that the mule wuz headed toward Silvy, so had tride to warn people. We got our warnin' up on Savanner... an' hadn't gone but a little ways when here kums that jared hitched to a wagon.

Clap-a-trap! Clap-a-trap! "Runs like he's mitey tard," sez Linwood Grale.

"Has a rite to be tard," sez I. "Why so?"

"Why, that mule probly lived about Gainesville," sez I. "An'—well, he jist hain't stopped runnin' vit."

On our way back from Gainesville Ben Sutton sez, sez he—

"Well, I coodn't bleeve Frank Batties, the tale that he told about this here storm, but now I want to say that Frank told the truth—I time."

"He had to tell the truth, Ben," sez I. "That storm didn't leave any room fer eg-zadgerashun."

R. C. McBride sez that a little, short man run into their 5 & 10' at Canton on the day of that awful down-pour an' ax't fer a Bible—"quick!" On bein' supplide with the Book, the little man turned an' red, turned an' red—"What-chu tryin' to find?" ax't Mac, "whar it reads about the Flud?" But the little man, who ax'ted like he wuz skeered, made no answer—jist kep on turnin' an' readin'.

After a while it elack't up an' lookt bri-ter—

"Thank-ye," sez he, handin' the Bible back, "looks like it mout be a-goin' to quit."

After visitin' Gainesville Uncle Abe wuz a-tellin' a crowd about the way many people down that kumment to pray when the storm struck—

"They waited too late," sez "Windy Candler."

"Guess that's the trouble with most uv-us, tho... we don't pray soon anuff nor often anuff."

POLLYTICKS GITTEN HOT? YES—SIR-EE!

An' is pollyticks a-gittin' hot... well I shoold say so! How many of ye Hewman Side feeders wuz in town last Sat.? All who wuz coodn't help but notis how the Candidates had took advantage of the wet wether to work sum on their political fences.

Never seed as mutch armin' off to one side an' courtin' in my life. One Candidate aks'ted had his arm around one o' feller's neck... an' I tell ye fokes, I'd a druther neckt one of Cheef's houn'dawgs—an' him wet!

But, it's the blessed privilage that sum men enjoy ever 2 years, that of bein' ax't their opinyuns—an' havin' their necks hugged.

After all, it's a grate game—that will furnish us plenty of excitement an' fun from new till the Primary in June—Gloary be!

Here's acknowledgements to—J. J. Bridges, Jas. Hardin Howell, Jr., Dave Jaynes, Mrs. Guy Fulbright, Zeb Brackett, R. L. Lee, L. M. Richeson, V. H. Byers, John Free, T. H. Gaddy, Mrs. Annie Francis, Mr. and Mrs. White Mease, Harley Francis, J. W. Green, Sam Queen, W. W. Haynes, Mrs. Henry Francis, Miss Robina Miller, M. E. Snyder, Luther Gordon, Gaylor Baldwin, Jas. Ratcliff, S. W. McEldridge, Emanuel Wyatt, R. C. McBride, Mrs. Coman Adams—for recent complimentary things said about this kolyum.

Jist looks like I kain't keep up with ye fokes in namin' ye like this any longer—leave out sum, ye see, and may-be respect others. So to all the meny loyal friends of the Mountaineer, an' boosters of this Uncle Abe stuff, let me say—

"Thanks a Millyun!"

Poast Strip. I forgot to tell ye, fokes, that Linwood Grale jump't out to hed the run-a-way mule an' skeered it bad it run over a 10 ft bank... but it kood a bin wusser, if Uncle Abe had a-jumpt out too, that mule wood a run into the Tuckysseege.

Waynesville District Wins Declamation Event

Represented by Joe McClure of the Saunook School and Edna Katherine McGee, of East Waynesville, the annual declamation and recitation contest of the district for elementary schools was won by the Waynesville district.

Joe McClure, coached by Frank Ferguson, Jr., declaimed "Casey at the Bat," followed by "Casey's Revenge," while Edna Katherine McGee, coached by Miss Elizabeth McGee, recited "The Bald Headed Man."

Winning both events in this contest gave Waynesville a decided advantage in the race for literary honors within the county, the winner being decided after the high school declamation and recitation event is held at Fines Creek next Tuesday.

Judges were Miss Ann Albright, Miss Winnie Mae Murphy, and Dr. Killian, all of Western Carolina Teachers College, of Cullowhee.

Following is a list of other speakers, selections, and districts represented:

Lucile Burnett, "A Kitty Goes Adopting," Bethel.
Ada Ann Ferguson, "The One-Legged Goose," Clyde.
Wilma Smith, "Door Step Religion," Fines Creek.
Maxine Smith, "Little Orphan Annie," Canton.
Rufus Rector, "Gettysburg Address," Fines Creek.
Samuel McCrary, "I Am An American," Clyde.
George Mangess, "The Raggedy Man," Canton.
Claude Conard, "A Man and His Symptoms," Bethel.

Operetta Will Be Given Tonight At Central Elementary

"Molly Be Jolly," a juvenile operetta, in two acts will be shown at the Central Elementary School on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. It will be presented by the pupils of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, and the teachers have spared no trouble in their work toward the success of the performance.

The plot of the play will appeal to both children and adults, and an added attraction will be the many tuneful songs that will be sung by the chorus made up of a large number of pupils from the three grades taking part.

The scenes are laid on the farm of the Green family, where the frolics of the Green children and the neighbors take place and will be reproduced in a realistic manner with an authentic hay loft and many animals.

Molly, a much spoiled city cousin, who mentally had planned to spend the summer vacation at the seashore has been sent to the farm instead. Life amid this simplicity grows monotonous to Molly. She is bored and disgusted until one day the youngsters plan a circus, and the preparation, merriment, and excitement soon make her forget that the farm is a dull place. During the rehearsal of the circus, pleasurable excitement is caused by the arrival of unexpected spectators—and the plot thickens—which calls for the natural juvenile acting which both those taking part and the audience will enjoy.

NIGHTS AND SUNDAYS

Are BARGAIN TIMES on "LONG DISTANCE" CALLS

Now the low rates in operation for long distance telephoning after 7 P. M. apply all day Sunday. This extension of night rates to all day Sunday includes both Station-to-Station and Person-to-Person calls to most points.

And now, too, new low rates apply on Person-to-Person calls every night of the week after seven o'clock to those points where the day Person-to-Person rate is more than 50 cents.

When you telephone out of town and will talk to anyone at the number called—that is a Station-to-Station call. But if you must talk to only one particular person, whose name you give to the operator—that is a Person-to-Person call. Full information on these classes of service, and rates to many cities, will be found in the front pages of your directory.

Remember, Nights and Sundays are bargain times for your long distance calls.

I NEED GOLDEN PLY BLOW-OUT PROTECTION ON MY CAR. HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

NOT A PENNY EXTRA BECAUSE GOODRICH SILVERTOWNS COST NO MORE THAN OTHER STANDARD TIRES

There is no reason why you should needlessly risk your life in a blow-out accident. High-speed blow-outs are caused by the terrific heat inside your tires. This heat separates rubber and fabric. A blister forms which grows until, sooner or later, your tire blows out. Every Goodrich Silvertown is built with a special golden ply which resists heat and prevents these high-speed blow-outs—yet you pay not one penny extra for this protection. Play safe! See us today about a set of long-wearing Silvertowns.

HEAT CAUSES BLOW-OUTS. PREVENT THESE BLOW-OUTS WITH THIS HEAT-RESISTING GOLDEN PLY.
