

SOCIETY -- CLUBS -- PERSONALS

PHONE 137

MRS. T. L. GWYN, Editor

PHONE 137

MR. AND MRS. E. C. WAGENFELD OBSERVE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld celebrated the nineteenth anniversary of their marriage, which took place in Lynn, Mass. The guest list included only members of the family, Miss Rachel Brown, of Sylva, and Mr. James Rose.

Yellow and white were used throughout the house as a decorative note. The table in the dining room was covered with a handsome lace cloth, and centered by a crystal bowl with yellow flowers, flanked by yellow tapers, and the places were marked with old fashioned bouquets and boutonnières.

Mrs. Wagenfeld wore a gown of King's blue crepe, while Miss Corinne Wagenfeld wore light blue chiffon with matching satin trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagenfeld and family came to Waynesville three years ago from Lynn, Mass., and have made many friends during their residence here. Mr. Wagenfeld is connected with the England-Walton Company.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Wood, of Edenton, announce the birth of a son on April 20, in Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Wood is the former Mrs. Grace Lee Harney.

Mrs. Dayton Hunter, of Elizabethton, Tenn., was the guest over the week-end of her sister, Mrs. John N. Shoobred.

MRS. JERRY COLKITT ENTERTAINS CONTRACT CLUB MONDAY

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt entertained the members of the Monday Afternoon Contract Club on the occasion of the regular meeting. The house was arranged in bowls of spring flowers.

Members playing were: Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, Mrs. E. L. Prevost, Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., and Mrs. C. C. White. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. M. H. Bowles and Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jr.

MRS. RUFUS SILER ATTENDS MEETING IN STATESVILLE

Mrs. Rufus Siler left Monday for Statesville, where she is attending the Western North Carolina Missionary Conference of the Methodist churches of this section. Mrs. Siler is the president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Methodist church.

MR. AND MRS. LONG ATTEND RECEPTION IN ASHEVILLE

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. James M. Long attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarrett. The occasion marked their silver wedding anniversary. Mrs. Jarrett is the sister of Mr. Long.

Mrs. R. E. Wood, of Elizabethton, Tenn., the former Miss Annie Shoobred, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoobred, over the week-end.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS APRIL MEETING

The April meeting of the Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon, in the Welch Memorial building of the First Baptist church with Mrs. John LeRoy Davis, Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell and Mrs. Jack Messer, as associate hostesses. Mrs. S. P. Gay, president, presided. For the occasion the auditorium was decorated in quantities of spring flowers.

Various matters were disposed of during the business session. A letter was read from Representative Wesley D. Disney, of Oklahoma, regarding the establishment of the Academy of Public Affairs in Washington, stating that the bill had recently been reintroduced and urged the club women to advise their representative of their wishes.

Mrs. James W. Killian, chairman of civics, stated that four extra men had been placed on the town force and a general clean up campaign was underway in the town.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom distributed programs of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which will be shown at the Park Theatre on April the 23rd, both afternoon and evening and sponsored by the club.

Mrs. W. T. Lee, Jr., chairman of the Fashion Show, gave a report, stating that $40.00 had been cleared for the club.

Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., who represented the club as a delegate to the State Federation meeting, held in High Point last week, gave a most interesting report of the various meetings and social affairs.

Mrs. Frank Ferguson, chairman of welfare, introduced Mr. Jack Messer, county superintendent of education, and district director of the League for Crippled Children, who explained the work of the group. He announced that with money realized from the sale of seals, that this section would be provided with a welfare worker. Mrs. Frank Ferguson was appointed chairman of the seal sale for the Woman's Club.

At this time Mr. Charles E. Ray, president of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke on the urgent need of Waynesville at this stage of its growth to have a definite city planning program—that in the long run would be more satisfactory and cheaper for the town.

Following Mr. Ray's talk, Mrs. Lawrence Green, accompanied by Mrs. Evander Preston, sang, "A Prayer Perfect," by Oley Speaks.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom had the paper of the afternoon, and she gave a most illuminating review of "Peter Ibbetson," by DuMaurier.

The joint meeting of the Woman's Club and the Community Club, which will be held on Wednesday was announced by the president, who urged all members to attend.

BANQUET TO BE HELD FOR BAPTIST GROUP ON TUESDAY

The regular quarterly meeting of the Young Woman's Auxiliaries of the Haywood County Baptist Association, will be held on next Tuesday evening in the banquet hall of the Welch Memorial Sunday school building of the Baptist church.

Guest speakers of the occasion will be Miss Mary Currin, leader of the young people of the state, and Miss Pearl Bourne, southside leader of the group. Dinner will be served promptly at seven o'clock, and every young woman in the Baptist churches of the county are urged to attend.

Mr. Bob Woodward, of Columbia, S. C., is spending several days as the guest of his father, Mr. H. W. Woodward, at the Adger House.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Davis were the guests of friends in Knoxville, Tenn., over the week-end.

Friends in town will be glad to learn that Mrs. C. E. Hamilton, Jr., of Philadelphia, who has spent some time in Waynesville, is improving after a critical illness.

Judge Felix E. Alley, who is holding court in Franklin, spent the week-end in town with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Messer left on Wednesday for Charlotte, where they will attend the state meeting of the North Carolina Parent-Teacher Congress.

Miss Bobbie Jean Truesdale has as her guests this week Miss Hilda Ogburn and her brother, Dr. Herbert Ogburn, of Greensboro.

Mrs. Charles Miller, who has been visiting in town for the past six weeks, having come here from Florida, where she spent the winter, left on Monday for her home in North Webster, Indiana.

Miss Lucy Bolton, who has spent the winter here, left on Monday for her home in Detroit. Miss Bolton made many friends during her stay in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Brewer, of Asheville, were the guests over week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins Freeman.

Mrs. D. Doyle Alley, district president, left on Tuesday for Charlotte, where she is attending the state meeting of the North Carolina Parent-Teacher Association.

ROTARY CLUB OBSERVES ANNUAL LADIES NIGHT

The outstanding social event of the week was the annual Ladies Night, which was tendered Rotary Annys by the local Rotary Club, on last Friday night. The affair was given in the banquet hall of the Welch Memorial Sunday school building, of the First Baptist church. For the occasion the spacious room was elaborately decorated in spring flowers, with the colors of purple and gold, of the club, much in evidence.

The windows were filled with sprays of apple blossoms, and the large U shaped table, at which the fifty-eight guests were seated, was arranged at intervals, with bowls of yellow spring flowers, while the ceiling of the room was draped in purple and gold.

Mr. W. C. Russ, president, presided at the beginning of the evening, after which he turned the gavel over to Dr. S. P. Gay, program chairman, and his committee, composed of Dr. Robert H. Stretcher and Mr. Ralph Prevost. The committee had charge of the program of amusements of the occasion.

Many clever and laughter provoking games were enjoyed with several unique contests. In the guessing contest, Mrs. D. Doyle Alley was the winner. In the amateur hour staged Mr. J. Wilford Ray, came out the winner.

As favors the guests of honor were presented with attractive three compartment compacts, which were engraved with the Rotary emblem. As an added feature to the evening, assembly singing, with Mr. Evander Preston, as director, and Miss Margaret Walker, as accompanist, was enjoyed.

Dr. Robert H. Stretcher, vice president, and past president, in behalf of the organization, presented Mr. W. C. Russ, who will retire from the office of president in July, with a handsome past president's pin. In his presentation Dr. Stretcher paid a high tribute to the splendid work done under the leadership of Mr. Russ.—(H. W. G.)

HOUSE PARTY GIVEN AT CAMP OVER WEEK-END

Miss Mary and Miss Catherine Palmer, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, entertained a group of their friends with a week-end house party at their camp on Plott's Creek. Mrs. Claude Medford chaperoned the group. Those enjoying the affair were Miss Louise Mears, Miss Lucy Medford, Miss Mary Ann Turner, Miss Lucile Aldridge, Miss Catherine Boyd, and Miss Josephine Nelson.

METHODIST CIRCLE NUMBER THREE TO MEET

Circle Number three of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon, April 28, with Mrs. Grady Boyd at three o'clock. Mrs. John M. Queen will have charge of the devotional.

The same circle will serve dinner at the W. W. N. C. Cafe Saturday night, beginning at six o'clock. The public is invited, and the proceeds will be used for the work of the circle.

Miss Eva Leatherwood and Miss Ila Greene spent the week-end as the guests of friends in Hendersonville.

Mr. Wallace Blackwell and a party of friends were among those motoring to Tryon last week for the horse show.

Rev. R. S. Truesdale was called to Columbia, S. C., on Wednesday on account of the death of a kinsman.

Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Truesdale have as their guests, Mrs. J. B. Penland, of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. Thomas Calhoun and two children, Isabella and Thomas, of Beaufort, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLoud and small daughter, Barbara, of West Asheville, were the guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ferguson.

A marvelous new SAFE method that will actually give your hair a deeper, wider, accentuated wave and more lasting satisfaction. Come in for free consultation—let us tell you about the wonderful new "Mode Parée" Method.

$5 value for .. $3.50 OR

2 for $6.00

The Personality Beauty Shop PHONE 306

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY HONORS PRESIDENT AT MEETING

Following the regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Methodist church on Tuesday of last week, the members gave the president, Mrs. Rufus Siler, a surprise handkerchief shower. During the social hour Mrs. Nana Shankle rendered a musical program, following which the birthday cake with lighted candles was brought in, and the honor guest showered with gifts. This is Mrs. Siler's second year as the competent and popular president of the group.

Miss Kathryn Queen had as her guests on Sunday Miss Nettie Pinnix, of New Bern, and Miss Dorothy Dick, of Knoxville, Tenn., classmates at Duke University.

MRS. R. N. BARBER DELEGATE TO D. A. R. CONGRESS

Mrs. R. N. Barber, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Miss Mary Ashworth Barber, in Burlington, is spending this week in Washington, D. C., where she is a delegate from the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, she is attending the National Congress of the society.

Miss Lois Harrold and a party of friends spent Saturday in Asheville.

Mrs. Bess Lee Page, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Cameron C. Lewis, in Charleston, West Virginia, has returned home. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lewis who will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee.

It's Easy To Find
Graduation Gifts
at RAY'S
Gifts That Please

for HIM

Best Wishes To You

- SHIRTS, TIES
- HANDKERCHIEFS
- INTERWOVEN SOCKS
- HICKOK SHIRT JEWELRY
- TOILET SETS
- PAJAMAS, SWEATERS
- SHOES, HATS, SOCKS
- CLOTHES, BELTS, ETC.

for HER

Best Wishes Seniors

- UNDERWEAR
- FOUNDATION GARMENTS
- HANDKERCHIEFS, SCARFS
- GLOVES, SWEATERS
- SPORTSWEAR
- POCKET BOOKS
- PAJAMAS, DRESSES
- HATS, COATS

for GRADUATES, too

Graduates too, will find here the type of clothing needed for graduation events. Moreover you will find our clothing and accessories properly styled for wear in college next year. Its collegiate merchandise and the price is in reach of Dad's pocket book.

C. E. RAY'S SONS

under those new spring clothes should go
A FRESH, IMPROVED Foundation Garment and you will find them
at RAY'S
in the best styles from
GOSSARD and VASSARETTE

GOSSARD'S

Mis-Simplicity Puts Everything Under Control For
$3.50 to $5.00

Brassieres of every type. At Every Price

STUNNING NUMBERS

COMFORTABLE TWO-WAY STRETCH
GIRDLES

—By—
Gossard — Munsingwear and Vassarette.

Summer Underwear by Goldette, Kickernick, Munsingwear and other good houses.

C. E. RAY'S SONS

Massie's Dept. Store The Place To Find The Very Thing You Want In A Spring Outfit---For Men, Women, and Children