CLUBS HAVE JOINT MEETING

The Woman's Club and the Community Club held a joint meeting on Wednesday afternoon, in the banquet hall of the Welch Memorial Sunday School building of the First Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. H. W. Baucom presiding. Plans were discussed for the merging of the two organizations into a greater Woman's Club.

Mrs. John M. Queen, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the following report: President, Mrs. S. P. Gay; first vice president, Mrs. Ben Colkitt; second vice president, Mrs. James W. Killian; third vice president, Mrs. Carroll Bell; secretary, Mrs. Felix Stovall; treasurer, Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Harden Howell. The report was accepted in full, with all officers elected, to serve the new organization for the coming year.

It was decided that each club should finish the year's work, as planned, with all projects completed.

The next joint meeting of the group will be held on the second Thursday in May, and will be both a social and business meeting. Mrs. James M. Long offered the lounge of the Waynesville Country Club for the next meeting. All arrangements for the occasion were left in the hands of the executive committee, and the hostesses and plans will be announced at another date.

A good representation was present from each organization, and much enthusiasm of the merging of the two clubs, marked the meeting.

Mrs. Nana Shankle, Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell, and Mrs. Fred Marley, were among those motoring to Asheville on Friday.

Mrs. Mason Trowbridge, Miss Cornelia Trowbridge, and Mrs. John Nichols, of Upper Montclair, N. J., have returned to their home after a week's visit at the Palmer House. Mrs. Trowbridge is the mother of Mason Trowbridge, who was at one time connected with the Farmers Federation.

MUSIC CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. L. HARDIN, JR.

The Waynesville Music Club held the regular monthly meeting on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Jr., as hostess. Mrs. Hugh A. Love, president, presided. Spring flowers adorned the living room.

Mrs. Love asked that the club observe National Music Week, and suggested that some numbers be given during the week at the Park Theatre.

It was announced that on Saturday, May the 9th, the members of the Saturday Music Club, of Asheville, would be the guests of the Waynesville Music Club on that date and would give an exchange program at that time. The meeting will be held with Miss Margaret Stringfield at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sam L. Stringfield.

Mrs. Hugh A. Love and Mrs. Grover Wilkes, of Sylva, who attended the meeting held recently in High Point, of the State Federation of Music Clubs, gave interesting and concise reports of the gathering.

Miss Margaret Terrell had charge of the program of the afternoon, with the subject, "Russian Music and Russian Composers," under study. Prior to the rendition of the numbers, Miss Terrell gave an illuminating talk on the history of Russian music and some of the outstanding composers.

The hostess was assisted in serving during the social hour by Mrs. Hugh A. Love and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher.
