As Mr. Coble was walking on the side track, the train had pulled up to the station and was backing out, it is supposed that he thought the train was pulling out on the main line, and did not heed the whistle. J. C. Worthington, employe in the Texas office nearby, saw the danger, and called to Mr. Coble, who evidently was unable to hear for the train. Mr. Worthington then called to ehe engineer, who applied the brakes, but it was too late as the body had been struck.

Mr. Coble was born in Asheboro and was the son of Manly and Helen Mr. Underwood's body was found at Coble. Major Boatwright reported that he cas well pleased with the inspection of the company, and congratulated the officers and men.

While here, Major Boatwright said that Waynesville was fortunate in being able to get an armory. This is one of the smallest communities that was given an aemory, it was said.

Company "H" now has 63 men and three officers. George F. Plott is aptain and is assisted by Lieutenants Paul Martin and Grady Boyd.

Those taking part in individual drills Tuesday night included: Corporal Bridges, Lieutenant Martin, Sergeant Edwards, Sergeant Davis, Corporal Wyatt, Corporal Davis. Sergeant Plott, Sergeant Arrington and pace Lieutenant Boyd.

L. McKee. His Methodist church. Original plans getting action for the formal opening of the park.

The meeting has been called by the committee which was named last December at a similar meeting in Knoxville. Mr. Stentz is a member of that committee.

Details of the meeting could not be learned, but one of the matters scheduled for discussion was for contacting President Roosevelt in an effort for acquiring sufficient acreage to complete the park.

Little Interest Is Being Shown Here In Town Election

Mayor Way Has No Oposition. Six Candidates For Places On Board Of Aldermen

Unless more interest is shown between now and Tuesday morning, Waynesville will experience one of the quietest town elections in many years. J. H. Way, Jr., present mayor, is the only candidate for the office of

There are six candidates seeking places on the board of aldermen. The three present members, S. H. Jones, T. L. Bramlett and M. M. Noland are all seeking re-election, while Dr. W. H. Liner, Mr. Davis and O. S. Rhymer are caudidates.

As far as can be learned, none of the candidates are doing much "campaigning."

The polling place will be in the court house, and Henry Gaddy and W. I Campbell will act as judges, while Roy Campbell is registrar.

There are approximately 1,500 qualified voters in Waynesville,

Whitner Prevost Out For Re-Election As Mayor, No Other Candidate For Place

An interesting election is expected at Hage wood on Tuesday, May fourth, when a mayor and three members of the board of aldermen are elected. Whitner Prevost is a candidate to succeed himself as mayor. He does not have any opposition.

There are five candidates for members of the board of aldermen. C. N. Allen and Sam Knight are seeking reelection, and the other three candidates are: Tom Queen, W. A. Bradley and John Blalock

Reports from Hazelwood show that there has been but little discussion of the election to date, but with the five candidates for places on the board it is expected that by this week-end the election will be the chief topic of con-
