WEDDING OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN PASADENA, TEXAS

A marriage of interest to friends and relatives in this section was that of Miss Iva Amanda Clarke, of Pasadena, Texas, and Milton Lanier Alford, of New Orleans, which took place at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Mark Richards, of Pasadena on Wednesday, June the first, at nine o'clock in the morning, with only the family and intimate friends attending.

The Rev. Richards, who is pastor of the First Baptist church of Pasadena, pronounced the marriage vows, which were made before an improvised altar of ferns and roses. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Richards, violinist, rendered a program of pre-nuptial music, which included "Land-berry Air," an old Irish melody, "Liebestraum," by Liszt, "Wiegenlied," by Brahms, and "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go," by Peace.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white Chantilly lace with blue accessories, and her flowers were a bouquet of sweetheart roses and cape jasmine. She was attended by her sister, Miss Vera Clarke as maid of honor.

Mrs. Alford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clarke, who formerly resided at their home on the Dellwood road. She was graduated from the Waynesville High School in the class of 1935, and since moving to Texas with her family, has continued her education in the Pasadena schools.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Bessie Alford and the late D. P. Alford, of New Orleans. He was educated in the city schools of New Orleans, and later attended the Franklington school. He was a member of the air corps at Barksdale Field and afterwards spent two years in Central America. He now holds a position with the Houston division of the Champion Paper and Fibre Company.

Following the ceremony the young couple left for the Rio Grand Valley on a wedding trip, and upon their return will reside in the Bishop Apartments in Pasadena.
