

Uncle Abe
AS HE SEES THE HUMAN SIDE O' LIFE

"BOARDERS WANTED."
"What's yer rates?" they ax.
"Now I wern't hardly reddy t' give 'em this inferna-shun—rite off the reel; so I axt the man if he'd give me a minet t' de-side. Fackt is the man had so menny different sizes in hiz fam'ly I didn't no what price t' make, seein' as how I hadn't had enny eck-perence in the Boarders Wanted bizness. "Good gracious," I sez t' myself, "hit won't do t' looze 'em . . . I want t' make my price rite." Then I sez out loud t' the man, sez I—

"One buck a-peece fer you an' yer wife an' groan gal, 1/2 price fer the other 2 children, an' 2 bits for that little boy—i. e. if the little boy don't eat so overly much. Enny more in the fam'ly?"

"Two babies in the k-yar," he sed—"in arms with the nuss."

"Oh, I see," sez I . . . "jist nussin' babies. Well, I b'lieve I'll jist make it a rool rite here an' now, that all babies comin' t' Wonderful Balsam Breezes with arms will be throde in—" "Throde in," sez the man—"what-chu meen?"

"Why, I jist throw 'em in the bargain, man . . . free et sertry, as the lawyers say."

Well, I ordured in what I thawt

em." I thawt.
"What's yer rates?" they ax.
"Now I wern't hardly reddy t' give 'em this inferna-shun—rite off the reel; so I axt the man if he'd give me a minet t' de-side. Fackt is the man had so menny different sizes in hiz fam'ly I didn't no what price t' make, seein' as how I hadn't had enny eck-perence in the Boarders Wanted bizness. "Good gracious," I sez t' myself, "hit won't do t' looze 'em . . . I want t' make my price rite." Then I sez out loud t' the man, sez I—

"One buck a-peece fer you an' yer wife an' groan gal, 1/2 price fer the other 2 children, an' 2 bits for that little boy—i. e. if the little boy don't eat so overly much. Enny more in the fam'ly?"

"Two babies in the k-yar," he sed—"in arms with the nuss."

"Oh, I see," sez I . . . "jist nussin' babies. Well, I b'lieve I'll jist make it a rool rite here an' now, that all babies comin' t' Wonderful Balsam Breezes with arms will be throde in—" "Throde in," sez the man—"what-chu meen?"

"Why, I jist throw 'em in the bargain, man . . . free et sertry, as the lawyers say."

Well, I ordured in what I thawt

Mrs. Roosevelt Sees Grandson

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Mrs. Roosevelt
For the first time Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the president, sees her new grandson, the child of Franklin D., Jr., and the former Ethel duPont, at a Philadelphia hospital. Mrs. Roosevelt is shown with son Franklin outside the hospital.

Hospital News

J. C. Parker, of Canton, operative case, is some better.

Mrs. Dallas Webb, of Canton, operative case, is improving.

The condition of Walter F. Hall, of Clyde, operative case, is good.

Baby Edgar Lee McDonald, of Hazelwood, medical case, is improving.

Mrs. Marshall Leatherwood, of Clyde, operative case, is resting more comfortably.

Master Donald Reno, of Clyde, operative case, is some better.

Herman Kinsland, of Clyde, Route 1, medical case, is improving.

Miss Emily B. Barrett, of Canton, medical case, is resting more comfortably.

Mrs. S. E. Ledbetter, of Orangeburg, S. C., operative case, is better.

The condition of Mrs. R. L. Matthews, of Canton, operative case, is good.

Miss Clara Dyer, of Waynesville, Route 1, operative case, is better.

L. A. Stamey, medical case, is resting only fairly well.

Mrs. Ray Burgin, operative case, is more comfortable.

The condition of Miss Martha

Mills, medical case, is fair.

Miss Maggie McCracken, medical case, is improving.

Dr. A. C. Downs, of Clyde, operative case, is better.

The condition of Miss Katherine Happs, of Leicester, is good.

Luke Swinger, of Clyde, medical case, is improving.

DISCHARGED
Among those discharged during the week from the Haywood County Hospital are: W. F. Hipps, Robert Warren, Mrs. J. R. Ewart, Mrs. Lindsley Thompson, Willie Parks, Miss Nina Garrett, Mrs. Russell Warren, Mrs. Clarence McHaffey, Sam McElroy, Mrs. J. W. Troadway, Mrs. Alvin Miller, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, A. W. Wearn, Mrs. C. R. Stroup, Miss Nellie Reece. Master William Ledbetter, Miss Fennie Payne, Mrs. Victoria Mills, Mrs. George Pinnion, Bill Sam Rice, Mrs. Ella Gaddy, M. S. H. P. Pressley, Mrs. W. M. Gibson.

BIRTHS
Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Miller, of Waynesville, announce the birth of a daughter on July the 27th.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Price, of Cove Creek, announce the birth of a son on July the 31st.
Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ledford, of Clyde, Route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on August the 1st.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McElreath, of Clyde, Route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on August the 1st.

Prosperity is not so much a matter of dollars as it is a matter of dollars and sense.

The "SO CALLED" COMMON COLD

We again run up against "Lowered Resistance" when discussing "Colds."

It can not be emphasized too strongly that healthy, full-blooded bodies stand the best chance of keeping free of colds and influenza. If run-down and susceptible to frequent colds, see your physician. There may be some drain on your system that can be quickly and easily overcome.

When colds are prevalent, build yourself up by resting at least eight hours every night; eat regularly and keep the system open; drink plenty of water—and keep away from crowds and people who have colds. Should you contract a severe cold, stay in bed, and should you have a temperature, consult your doctor.

Smith's CUT RATE DRUG STORE

Part No. 30 of a Series "Telling the Public About the Doctor"

wood be a-stuff grab t' make 'em all 2 square meels er 2 rounded up meels, 'coordin' t' how they et; but hit didn't make 'em cab'in one feed. Why, I never seed sitch eatin' in all my born'd days! An' them thar yung-uns eat jist as much as the older fokes; cab'in the 2 little uns with arms, er in arms I meen, eat a-bout ditto.

Well, Mr. Editor, when I saw I'd made a loozin' deal, I kommentet to re-monstrate—

"I didn't bargain t' feed ye fokes by the 'our, only by the meel," sez I.

"Meel's not ended yet," they laff, eatin' away.

"Besides, ye sed them thar 2 leas' kids wuz in arms, an' they're both neerly as big as this 2-bit boy."

"They're in arms, ain't they?" sed the woman, pintin' at one in her lap an' 'tther in her man's lap.

"Well, I'd like t' no if that's the way all Flooidy fokes eat?" I growled.

"No, vittels taste better up here—at Wonderful Balsam Breezes," she giggled.

Well, they wuz eatin' me out o' hoes an' home I thawt . . . one 'our, 2 'ours—3 'ours an' I couldn't stop 'em! An' so hit ended in a terrible nightmare—when I woke up hollerin'—

"Call the law! Call Norman K. Ball, ma-by he can stop 'em!"

"What's matter?" cride Mrs. Alice.

"Oh, them rite-mites er me ag'in," sez I, layin' back down . . . "We'll noq hunc out that Boarders Wanted sine, like we'd planned on."

JABBO "LOOKIN' GOOD"
"Well, well! is that Jabbo with ye, Belle?" some one axt Belle last Sunday mornin', as her "ol' man" walked along by her side t' church, meek as a lamb—

"She is," replide Belle, "ain't he lookin' good?"

"Yes, he's a different lookin' man, Belle . . . ain't-chu proud of 'im?"

"Yes, um, I is; eaze Jabbo, he's dun got 'ligun now—an' jine de church."

On a seritin store winder here 'tther day: "MATER MELONS 25c." Sitch is the HEWMAN SIDE O' LIFE! UNKLE ABE.

For A Delightful Place To Dine

TRY
The Waynesville Golf and Country Club
GORDON OTTO, Of Miami, Manager.
PUBLIC WELCOME

Great Closing-Out Sale

Everything in Men's Wear
Nothing Reserved All Must Be Sold

- | | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| Men's Suits. | Manhattan Underwear. | Weyenberg Shoes. |
| Men's Trousers. | President Suspenders. | Swank Belts. |
| Manhattan Shirts. | Monito Socks. | President Belts. |
| Manhattan Pajamas. | Leather Jackets. | Ball Band Rubber Boots. |
| Manhattan Handkerchiefs. | Sweaters. | Ball Band Overshoes. |
| Shirtercraft Shirts. | Botany Ties. | Old Hickory Overalls. |
| Royal Pride Shirts | Resilio Ties. | Bath Robes. |
| Hanes Underwear | Frank Lee Hats. | Rain Coats. |
| | John W. Green Hats. | |
| | Florsheim Shoes. | |
-
- | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Manhattan Shirts . . . $1.65 | Florsheim Shoes 6.95 & 7.50 |
| Manhattan Pajamas $1.65 | Weyenberg $6 Shoes . . $4.95 |
| Shirtercraft Shirts . . . $1.29 | Men's White Shoes 1.95 - 2.45 |
| Royal Shirts 83c | John W. Green Hats |
| Frank Lee $5 Hats . . $3.95 | $2.25 to $3.50 |
| Ball Band Rubber Boots 2.65 | Hood Rubber Boots . . $2.25 |
| All $1 Ties 79c | All 50c Ties 42c |

Most Merchandise Marked in PLAIN FIGURES

CLYDE H. RAY, SR.

Main Street --:-- Waynesville, N. C.

Waynesville Art Gallery
Auction Sale

Merchandise From All Parts Of The World, For The Home Beautiful

2 Sales Daily
10:20 A.M. - 7:30 P.M.

LOCATED IN CITIZENS BANK BUILDING