

Uncle Abe AS HE SEES THE HUMAN SIDE O' LIFE

Then what do ye think? Why, to cap the stack— "A-yuh—hew-haw—hew-haw," Went Palmer's ol' jack.

John Rogers's mule colt seemed to be the prize fighter, well as the prize looker. At lunch wuz when the jack looked in at the winder an' luffed the loudest, seein' all us kuntry men with them little synthetic plates, an' tryin' to hannel sinthe tick cups, forks an' spoons.

IRON DUFF The county wide farm tour took in several Test Demonstration farms, at which I headed up at the new Crabtree-Duff school house.

BETHEL At the Farmers' Federashun Picknick at Bethel Uncle Abe spent one o' the moast enjoyable times uv hiz life—yes, sir-ree! I want to tell you that President McClure an' hiz boys do things up brown.

WANTED MAPLE LOGS, Hard and Soft. Also Birch, Bass, Ash, Cherry, Walnut, Butternut and Bellwood.

mouth oap'm an' roddy all the time? CATTALOO-CHEE Cattaloochee brawt back ol' memories... uv the time when me an' S'neator John Queen yooce to teen kids over thar 5 days out uv the week.

Jimmy Explains His Income

Walter Davenport and Jimmy Roosevelt. Replying to a recent article in a national magazine which stated that James Roosevelt, eldest son of the president, had built up a large fortune in insurance business since his father took office, Jimmy confers with Walter Davenport, left, editor of another national magazine on a forthcoming article telling his side of the story.

growth and better stand where lime was applied. Twin Maple Farm owned by Guy Chambers was the next stop, where a demonstration in growth of grasses and legumes following the application of lime was seen.

"Seeing Ourselves as Farmers as Others See Us." The fact that cash crop farming tends to decrease interest in soil conservation and general farm up-keep was brought out forcefully.

Carolina Hill-Billies H. L. Liner

Waynesville Art Gallery Auction Sale Merchandise From All Parts Of The World, For The Home Beautiful 2 Sales Daily 10:20 A.M. - 7:30 P.M. LOCATED IN CITIZENS BANK BUILDING

Iron Duff Watershed Farm Tour Held Last Week

Numerous Demonstrations Visited by Farmers and Farm Women In Iron Duff Last Wednesday the Iron Duff area demonstration farm tour began at the Iron Duff school building.

The next stop was at Joe A. Chambers' who had installed a hydraulic ram. This ram was pumping spring water to the house and using the branch water for the pumping force.

GUARD YOUR OWN AND NEIGHBORS CHILD FROM SCARLET FEVER. This ancient disease, while not conquered by any means, is less a menace now that Doctors and health authorities understand how to fight it.

THIS TAVERN OBSERVES THE LAWS. When you drink Beer in a tavern... choose your tavern. WHEN YOU restrict your patronage to legal, respectable retail outlets, you not only encourage those better outlets but you've made a start toward driving out the bad spots in your community.