

-:- News Events Of Special Interest To Women -:-

MRS. ROBERT H. STRETCHER HONORS MISS MASSIE

Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher entertained with a contract party on Friday afternoon as a courtesy to Miss Mary Emma Massie, whose marriage to Carleton E. Weatherby was solemnized this morning in the First Methodist church.

Flowers in mixed bouquets were placed about the rooms. When the cards were put away Mrs. Hugh Massie held the top score and Mrs. C. J. Reece was the winner of the low score prize. Miss Massie, honor guest and Mrs. Roy Parkman, bride of the spring, who was before her marriage, Miss Marguerite Massie, were also presented gifts.

Enjoying the progressions of contract were: Miss Massie, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Tillie Rotha, Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. C. C. White, Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., Mrs. Vera Watkins, Mrs. C. J. Reece, Mrs. Herbert Braren, and Mrs. Hugh Massie.

At the tea hour the following joined the guests: Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. W. C. Boutwell, Mrs. Roy Parkman, and Mrs. W. W. Norman, of Griffin, Ga., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lula Uzzle, of Raleigh, in receiving her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Moss, of Charlotte and Lake Junaluska, who have been spending the summer at their home at the latter place, are on a two-week's trip in the North, visiting friends in Whitinsville, Mass., and before returning will also visit in Canada. While they are away Mrs. Ed Tsenhour and her three young daughters, of Charlotte, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. McCracken, will occupy the Moss home at the lake.

MISS TILLIE ROTHGIVES LUNCHEON FOR BRIDE

Miss Tillie Rotha was hostess on Thursday of a beautifully appointed luncheon honoring Miss Mary Emma Massie bride-elect of this week. The guests arrived at 11 o'clock and enjoyed several progressions of contract and at noon luncheon was served. The small tables were centered with arrangements of mixed flowers matching those placed about the rooms.

When the scores were added Mrs. Hugh Massie was the holder of the top score, and Miss Mary Stringfield held the second high. Both were presented attractive prizes, as was the honor guest.

Making up the tables for contract were: Miss Massie, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Hester Anne Withers, Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Miss Mary Stringfield, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Jr., of Sylva, Mrs. C. J. Reece, Mrs. C. C. White, Miss Fannie Pearl Felmet, and Miss Alta Walker, of Canton.

Joining the guests at the luncheon hour were: Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. Roy Parkman, and Mrs. W. T. Shelton.

The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Billie Rotha and Mrs. Herbert Braren in receiving and serving the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robeson and children, who have been visiting the former's parents, have returned to their home in Newport News, Va.

Miss Anne Rowe, district supervisor of the Western District of North Carolina home demonstration clubs, was a guest at the Waynesville Country Club, while in town this week. Miss Rowe took part on the program given during the annual farm tour.

Miss Mary Emma Massie Becomes Bride of C. E. Weatherby

In a ceremony characterized by impressiveness and simplicity, Miss Mary Emma Massie and Carleton Eddy Weatherby, of Waynesville and Faison, were united in marriage, this morning at ten o'clock in the First Methodist church. The Rev. James G. Huggin, Jr., pastor of the church, pronounced the vows, using the ring service.

Floor baskets of gladioli, hydrangea and Queen Anne's lace, with greenery, were used to decorate the church, forming a graceful and beautiful setting for the wedding.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. W. L. Matney, organist of the church, rendered a program of nuptial music that included "Serenade," by Schubert, "Traumeri," by Schumann, and "Andantino," in D. Flat, by Edwin H. Lamare. Two vocal numbers, "I Love You truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond and "At Dawning," by Charles Wakefield Cadman, were sung by Ralph Sams, of Spartanburg, accompanied by Mrs. Matney.

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner, was used as the processional and the wedding march from Mendelssohn was played for the recessional. During the ceremony Mrs. Matney softly rendered "To a Wild Rose," by Edward McBowell.

The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, James E. Massie. She wore a smart suit in brown sheer wool, an advanced fall model. The neck of the blouse was high and worn with an old gold ornament. The coat was trimmed down the front with bands of skunk. Her hat was of brown felt, her accessories were in matching shades of brown. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses, snap dragons, and gypsophelia.

Mrs. Roy Parkman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a becoming frock of flat crepe in boy blue, a fall model, fashioned on princess lines, trimmed in self-covered buttons, and on one shoulder a flower of blue crepe and gold cloth combined. Her accessories were in black, and she carried an arm bouquet of mixed garden flowers, harmonizing with the blue of her dress.

Master Jeff Reece, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reeces, and nephew of the bride, in a white suit, served as ring bearer and carried the ring in the heart of a rose.

Mr. Weatherby had as his best man, M. H. Bowles, Hugh Massie and Harold Massie, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. T. N. Massie and the late Thomas Newton Massie, of Waynesville. She attended the Waynesville schools, and after graduating she entered the Greensboro College, from which she graduated. Since leaving college she has been a member of the Waynesville High school faculty. Following the announcement of engagement and approaching marriage she has been extensively entertained.

The groom is the son of Mrs. C. E. Weatherby and the late Carleton E. Weatherby, of Faison, N. C. He was graduated from the Faison schools, and later from Duke University, where he was a member of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. Mr. Weatherby is principal and athletic director of the Waynesville Township High School.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Weatherby left for a wedding trip. Upon their return next week they will be at home in the Kirkpatrick apartments.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. W. A. Short and daughter, Miss Clara Short, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Faison Witherington, of Mt. Olive, Mrs. William McCracken, of Laurens, S. C., Lebo Massie and Ralph Sams, of Spartanburg, Mr. and Mrs. George Evans and Mrs. R. S. Coman, of Canton, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Evans, of Springfield, Penn.

M. H. BOWLES GIVES STAG DINNER PARTY

M. H. Bowles, who was best man at the marriage this morning of Miss Mary Emma Massie and Carleton E. Weatherby, was host on Monday night of a stag dinner as a courtesy to the groom-elect.

The motif of green and yellow was used with pleasing results in the table decorations and all appointments of service.

The guest list of the evening included the most intimate friends of Mr. Weatherby as follows: Ernest K. Herman, Hugh Massie, Jack Messer and the Rev. James G. Huggin, Jr.

BRIDE TENDERED BREAKFAST SATURDAY MORNING

Mrs. C. C. White was hostess of a breakfast on Saturday morning honoring Miss Mary Emma Massie, bride of the week. For the occasion bowls of mixed flowers adorned the rooms. At the small tables at which the guests were served small vases of roses were used.

The guests arrived at ten o'clock, and following the serving of breakfast several progressions of contract were enjoyed. When the cards were put away Mrs. Roy Parkman held the top score, and Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson was the winner of the second high. The bride-elect was also presented an attractive gift.

Those present for the affair included Miss Massie, Miss Tillie Rotha, Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, Mrs. C. J. Reece, Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Braren, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Babbie Way, Miss Alta Walker, of Canton, Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Jr., of Sylva, Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. Josephine Coman Ferguson, and Mrs. Roy Parkman.

Dr. and Mrs. Jasper Morgan, of Duke University, were the guests during the past week of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan. Dr. Morgan is the physician at Duke Hospital.

DINNER PARTY HONORED YOUNG COUPLE LAST NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reece and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Massie entertained last night with a dinner party complimenting their sister, Miss Mary Emma Massie and Carleton E. Weatherby, whose marriage was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock. The guest list was confined to the bridal party and the members of the two families.

The bride and groom and their attendants were seated at one large table, while the others were seated at small tables. The bridal table was centered with a large wedding cake decorated in the bridal motif, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The small tables were centered with vases of yellow and white flowers, with the color combination noted throughout the appointments.

Following the dinner a recessed wedding took place at the church. Those attending the affair were: Miss Massie, Carleton E. Weatherby, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. William McCracken, of Laurens, S. C., Mrs. Mrs. James E. Massie, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Massie, Jr., of Sylva, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Massie, Mr. and Mrs. Parkman, Mrs. Bonner Ray, Rev. Mr. James G. Huggin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Harold Massie, Lebo Massie, and Ralph Sams, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Evans, of Springfield, Penn. guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Massie.

Read The Ads

For A Delightful Place To Dine

TRY

The Waynesville Golf and Country Club

GORDON OTTO, Of Miami, Manager.

PUBLIC WELCOME

Among The Many Interesting New Shoes for Fall

WE SHOW

Exciting! Kedettes STOMPERS

- Platform soles—thick, chubby soles—"mudguard" soles—all of cushiony, resilient crepe rubber. Soft toes. Tangy harvest colors in peasanty cotton of loose rough weave, trimmed in downy peachskin.
- Wear them to school.
- Wear them for the country.
- Wear them for golf.
- Or just to walk in.

They're $2.50 All Just $2.50

Summer Style Kedettes Being Closed Out For $1.49

Tennis Shoes in Children's and Men's Styles 69c up

Children's school Oxfords 98c up

Shoe Dept.

C. E. Ray's Sons

Well Prepared in YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHING

During The Remainder of August A 20% Discount On Boy's Clothing

Prepared To Meet Your School Needs

C. E. Rays Sons

Meet Your School Needs at C. E. Ray's Sons