

The football season is waning. The Mountaineers have only three more games on their schedule, and only one of them on the local field. This Friday they will journey to Mars Hill and the following Friday meet the swannanoa aggregation for the last home game of the year.

The big game is yet to come—Thanksgiving—The Mountaineers will play a return match with the Canton Black Bears at Canton, with the game scheduled to start at 2:30 in the afternoon. The first game this year went to Canton by an 18 to 6 score.

And in the big five, we see the lime-light pointed at the Duke Blue Devils. Last week's upset with Carnegie Tech taking the Pitt Panthers gave Duke fans heart as to the outcome of the Duke-Pitt game to be played at Durham on Saturday, November 26th. Coach Wallace Wade has already started drills for this particular game, and the outcome of the tussle will have to wait until the last play is over.

The deer and bear hunt in the Pisgah National Forest is breaking into the high circles. Yesterday the Columbia Broadcasting System made arrangements and broadcasted a thirty minute description of the hunt direct from the Forest. Special telephone lines were laid to the scene of the broadcast which was several miles from the nearest telephone. A description of the hunt was broadcast on a nation-wide hook-up.

The Pisgah hunt is not the only

Crippled Mountaineer Team To Face Strong Mars Hill Friday

hunting that is taking place in this end of the state. Last week one of the largest bears to be killed in this section fell before the gun of Joe Parris from Ivy Hill Township, in Waynesville's back door, back of Eagle's Nest mountain. The bear weighed 487 pounds.

It is our opinion that this section will soon become the bear and deer hunting paradise of the South. If the animals are not all killed just for the fun of it, the game will last longer and some other hunter can have a little of the fun.

Coaches Weatherby and Ratcliff will present a crippled Mountaineer team on the Mars Hill field Friday. Several of the locals will not be able to enter the game and several others that will probably not see much action.

The Mountaineers are rather short on reserves, but are expected to give the Mars Hill lads a "run for their money."

Mars Hill and Waynesville are bitter rivals on the gridiron. The Mountaineers are after a top score this season as last season was a 7 to 7 tie.

Shook, regular quarter, is definitely out of the lineup for the balance of the season due to arm injuries. It is expected that Reeves will run the team.

From all reports, Mars Hill has a strong fast team this year and are all "primed" and ready to meet the locals at Mars Hill, Friday.

Canton Still On Winning Rampage; Beats Hendersonville

The Canton Black Bears romped to another victory in the Blue Ridge Conference last Friday night at Canton, taking the undefeated Hendersonville Bearcats by a 28 to 0 score. The game was played in a steady downpour of rain with only a few fans present.

The Bears completely outplayed the Bearcats, chalking up 22 first downs to the visitors.

The Canton eleven will be hosts to the Swannanoa team this Friday with the game to be played in the afternoon. This is another conference game. The Bears are expected to take the game without very much trouble.

Copperhill Lacks Metal To Hold Mountaineers

One-Sided Game Played In Downpour, Was Featured By Fumbles And Slides

The Waynesville Mountaineers easily trounced the lads from Copperhill, Tennessee, last Friday by a score of 33-0. The game was played in a steady rain, and only a few fans were on hand.

The Mountaineers were scheduled to play the Murphy eleven, but due to some misunderstanding in the schedule they cancelled and secured the Copperhill team in their place. This was the first time in the history of the school that the Mountaineers have played the Tennesseans.

The steady rain hindered the passing attack of the visitors. They relied on their ability to make yardage through the air ways. Fumbles were numerous, and Waynesville took advantage of most of the opponents' fumbles.

The scoring started early in the game when the locals intercepted a pass down in Copperhill's territory and took advantage of the break to score with Reeves acting quarterback in place of Shook, going over for the tally. Knight converted the extra point. The second score of the game came also in the first quarter when the visitors threw a short pass and then attempted a lateral which was fumbled and recovered by Waynesville on the 20 yard line of Copperhill. Knight plunging over tackle netted the six points and Milner driving for the extra point.

Due to the nice punting of Tipton for the Copperhill eleven, the locals were kept deep in their territory in the second quarter, having no chance to score.

During the third period Waynesville added two more touchdowns to their credit. Milner made the sensational run of the afternoon over his right guard and through the middle of the Copperhill secondary for 30 yards to score untouched. Reeves attempted the extra point but was stopped short of the line. The second score of the quarter was made by Reeves after the hard charging line of Waynesville had blocked a punt and recovered on Copperhill's 20.

In the last period, practically a new team was in the game for the locals to make the final tally of the game. This score was made after a blocked punt, with Davis plunging over for the six points. Inman attempted to convert the extra point, but was stopped at the line of scrimmage.

Milner, Reeves and Knight led the locals in the backfield, while Collins, Taylor, Messer showed up in the line.

Jack Toomer Resigns As Pro At Waynesville Country Club

CAROLINA-FORDHAM
The Carolina Tar Heels journey to New York to engage the strong Fordham eleven. Last year the Fordham Rams defeated the Tar Heels by a 14 to 0 score.

Jack Toomer, who has been the golf pro at the Waynesville Country Club for the past several seasons, has been named pro at the Penrose Park country club, at Reidsville, N. C.

DAVIDSON-V. M. I.
Davidson plays the V. M. I. eleven at Davidson this week-end. Davidson went down in defeat last season to the Virginia lads, 7 to 0.

Mr. Toomer was popular with the local golfers as well as with the visitors, who frequently played the course of the Waynesville Country Club. He will assume his duties in Reidsville on January the 1st.
