MRS. JOHN K. BOONE HONORED ON EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. John K. Boone was complimented with a beautiful appointed luncheon on Saturday when her daughter, Mrs. Rufus Siler, assembled a group of her friends. The occasion marked the eightieth birthday anniversary of the honor guest. Mrs. Siler was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Hugh Massie in receiving.

The guests were seated at one long table down which were arranged large red apples holding lighted green tapers, on a crystal plaque. Clustered about the apples were colorful branches of caryophyllus vines. Each

MRS. RUFUS L. ALLEN ENTERTAINS LITERARY GROUP FROM ASHEVILLE

Mrs. Rufus L. Allen was hostess of a breakfast at her home here on Saturday in compliment to the members of the Asheville chapter of the National League of Pen Women of America, of which she is an active member.

The house was arranged with bowls of chrysanthemums. The central table in the dining room was covered with a handsome lace cloth over yellow satin and adorned with a silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. The smaller tables were similarly appointed.

Following the serving of breakfast the members held a brief business session, after which the program was given. Each guest read excerpts from some of her work.

Announcement was made that the next meeting would be held on the third Saturday in December with Miss Elizabeth J. Moore, as hostess, at her home in Asheville. Each member would be expected to read some original contribution about Christmas. Those present for the delightful affair on Saturday were: Mrs. Crosby Adams, of Montreat, Mrs. J. W. Erskine, of Weaverville, Mrs. Miriam Whitehead, of Chicago and Montreat, Mrs. E. A. Ogle, Mrs. Oliver Perry, Mrs. Asbury Barnett, Miss Elizabeth J. Moore, and Miss Margaret Lovell Gibson, all of Asheville.

place was marked by a unique holder containing nuts and grapes.

The following composed the guest list: Mrs. Pinkney L. Turbyfill, Mrs. B. F. Smathers, Mrs. S. C. Satterthwaite, Mrs. E. J. Robeson, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Mrs. W. L. Hutchins, Mrs. James G. Huggin, Jr., Mrs. H. G. West, Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell, and Miss Anne and Miss Corrie Kerr, sisters of Mrs. Boone.

The honor guest who is one of the best loved women in the town was the recipient of many lovely gifts, not only from the guests assembled, but by other friends and members of the family.

Mrs. Boone is the widow of the late John K. Boone. For years she has been outstanding in the town, being particularly active in the First Methodist church. During the past year she was signally honored when the women of the church named the Missionary Society the Mollie Boone Society.

B. S. COLBURN ADDRESSES WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Burnham S. Colburn, of Asheville, and Biltmore Forest, was the guest speaker on Thursday afternoon at the regular November meeting of the Woman's Club, which was held in the Welch Memorial building of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Dan Watkins, president, presided.

Mr. Colburn was introduced by Mrs. William Hannah, who told of the many interests of the speaker, stating that he had one of the largest stamp collections in the South, an unusual number of valuable Indian relics, and a very noteworthy collection of minerals.

Mr. Colburn discussed the minerals of North Carolina, illustrating his remarks from time to time with rare specimens from his collection. He spoke of the discovery of gold in the state. He stated that rubies were first mined here and then in Burma. He told of the rare gem hiddenite, which is found only in North Carolina.

He displayed specimens of kunzite, golden beryl, aquamarine, emerald, rutile, amethyst, zircon, crystal quartz, and rhodolite, all found in North Carolina. Mr. Colburn said he had been asked to sell his collection of native stones and he felt they should kept in the state.

During the brief business session a Christmas message was read from the National Federation officials urging that the members use living Christmas trees this year.

Mrs. Jack Messer, chairman of education, asked that the members contribute magazines to the high school library. Mrs. Frank Ferguson, chairman, spoke of the Christmas sale of Tuberculosis Seals.

The following new members were proposed: Mrs. Fred Yearout, Mrs. Wilburn Jackson, Mrs. D. D. Alley, Mrs. John Reitsel, Mrs. Vestal and Mrs. Ben Moller.

The following were appointed as a hospitality committee to serve as hostesses for various occasions next summer, when the club was asked to sponsor or assist in civic and social affairs: Mrs. Felix Stovall, Mrs. R. R. Smithwick and Mrs. Dan Watkins.

During the social hour the following served: Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Mrs. James W. Summers, Mrs. John C. Murphy, Mrs. R. N. Barber, and Mrs. Felix Stovall.

Miss Diann Black spent the week-end in Asheville, as the guest of friends.

Miss Mildred Crawford is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Ogburn, at their home in Greensboro. Mrs. Ogburn was before her marriage Miss Bobbie Truesdale, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Truesdale, who formerly resided here.

Mr. C. A. Black and daughter, Miss Diann Black left this week for Safety Harbor, Fla., where they will spend the winter with the former's daughter, Mrs. W. C. Runk. They will return to Waynesville the early part of April.

21 Attend Meeting Of Rock Spring All-Day Club Meet

The all day meeting of the Rock Spring home demonstration club which met with Mrs. A. C. Walker on Nov. 15, was greatly enjoyed by all.

The dinner was furnished by the members, and was served in the dining room.

There were twenty-one present with one new member, Mrs. P. J. McCracken.

The home agent, Miss Mary Margaret Smith, gave some very interesting suggestions on holiday decorations, gifts and wrappings. We farm women should be able to use them to a great advantage.

The reading, "The Meaning of Christmas," by Mrs. Albert Ferguson, was enjoyed. So few of us realized the true meaning of Christmas or what it should mean to us and our families.

Interesting games were played. Mrs. F. A. Justice scoring all the point in "Ketch'em," won the prize, a can of cranberry sauce.

Officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Wayne McElroy; secretary, Mrs. Essie Medford; song leader, Miss Dora Clarke; reporter, Mrs. Frank Medford.

The Adam's apple is the most sensitive part of the human body.

We read that the food served to actors on the stage is really fit to eat. Some restaurants might get an idea here.

MR. AND MRS. FINCHER ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fincher, of Lake Junaluska, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Wilda Fincher, to Wayne Moore. The ceremony was solemnized at the parsonage of Long's Chapel at Lake Junaluska, on Saturday evening, November 19th, at seven thirty o'clock, in the presence of a small group of intimate friends and members of the family. The pastor, the Rev. John E. Carper, officiated.

For the occasion the living room of the parsonage was arranged in quantities of chrysanthemums and greenery, with lighted tapers placed at intervals about the room.

The bride and groom entered the room together. The bride wore a becoming tailored suit of teal blue wool, with accessories of spice brown. He flowers were a corsage of sweetheart roses and sweetpeas.

Mrs. Moore was educated in the Clyde schools and the Biltmore Junior College, of Asheville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore, of Hayesville. For the past seven years he has been residing in Waynesville, where he has been connected with the Waynesville Candy Company.

After a wedding trip to Carolina Beach and various points in Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will return to Waynesville, and will make their home in the Clevehill apartments.
