

Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan left on Friday for Raleigh, where she will spend a week or ten days visiting her sister, Mrs. Christopher C. Crittenden. En route she attended the Duke-Pitt game in Durham on Saturday. While in Raleigh Miss Quinlan will also attend the meetings of the Historical and Literary Society.

Miss Sarah Welch, student at Western Carolina Teachers College, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Welch, during the past week.

Henry Tuttle, who is attending Oak Ridge Military Academy, spent the Thanksgiving vacations here with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shelton.

Leon Killian, Jr., who is taking a course at the Washington Electrical School, of Washington, D. C., spent several days in town last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon M. Killian.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson had as their guests during Thanksgiving week, the latter's sister, Miss Agnes Simons and two friends, Miss Lora Mathis and Miss Kennedy, all of Kannapolis.

Haywood Teachers To Meet Saturday

Teachers of the county will meet at the Central Elementary school here at ten o'clock, and discuss vocational guidance.

I. A. McLain will discuss vocational guidance for boys, and Mrs. O. L. Yates will discuss the same subject from the standpoint of girls.

L. M. Richeson will talk on the

40 Men At Work On Sewer Project

Ditching and the laying of the pipes for the Waynesville-Hazelwood sanitary sewers was started on Friday of last week, with approximately forty men engaged on construction for the present.

The work was begun above the bank at the edge of the dam near the Lake Junaluska post office. While only a small crew are now on the job, it will be increased in the near future. In all probability there will be two shifts of workers.

Blythe Brothers Company, of Charlotte, who made the lowest bid on the construction, have the contract for the work, which will take 300 working days.

Miss Martha McCracken, who is taking a special course at Cecil's Business College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCracken.

"important demands of industry on the school." Rev. J. G. Huggin, Jr., will lead the devotion.
