THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1936

county officials. While the rest of A special invitation is extended

HELD AT ALLEN'S CREE

ness that prevails Voice Of The People community.

--- (Continued from page 1) -

empty and even cruel. I like to live traveled much through the South and in Waynesville, because nowhere else have yet to find a more progressive I have ever been is there, in my opin- and delightful town than Waynesville, ion, so rare a combination of culture but one has to live in Waynesville, to and honest kindliness.."

Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell-formerly residence here I would like to say we of Lenoir, resident of Waynesville have found great happiness in the for past 35 years-"I like to live in Waynesville for more reasons than you will give me space to enumerate, but since you have allotted me a few

Lynn, Mass., resident of Waynesville tempered by kindliness or it proves for the past six years-""We have > appreciate its friendly hospitable people. In summing up our six years town and people."

Money paid out by banks in Benoni, lines-I will name first the climate South Africa, is declared by the that is ideal both winter and summer, Chamber of Commerce, in a protest, and second, the neighborly friendli- to be so filthy that it is unsanitary.

Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld-native of throughout the ty.

(Continued from page 1) -

Weaver College,, in Buncombe coun-He graudated in his profession from the University of Baltimore in loyal support given him in the elec-1892, and took a post graduate course at the Johns Hopkins Medical School in the same year.

in 1892, he Locating in Canton practiced there until 1901 when he moved to Waynesville. He served five terms as county superintendent of health, two years as president of the Haywood County Medical Society, six years as councellor of the tenth district of North Carolina Medical Society and six years on the board of trustees of the Waynesville special harter school district.

りょくうとく うとうきく わとく ひとく ひとく ひとく ひとく ひとく ひとく ひとく ひょく Dr. Abel was a strong supporter of the movement to establish the Haywood County Hospital and in getting the Duke Endowment to contribute for its support. He was one of the principal surgeons in that institution. He was local surgeon for the Southern Railway and at the last meeting of Association of Southern Railway Surgeons he was made first vicepresident. He was a member of the state and county medical societies, a member of the district medical society, a member of the American Medical-Association, a member of the Southeastern Surgical Congress, and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

United States Army.

In fraternity circles, Dr. Abel was grand master for several years. He chapter and a shriner.

Hale Love and Rebbeca Moore Love, man. who survives him. Also surviving are Hugh Abel, died October 24, 1938.

was through all those years a student and a thinker.

years he was recently elected for the COMMUNITY SING TO BE Funeral For Dr. J. F. County Officers To office. Mr. McCracken 'says he will Abel Set For Today Take Oath Of Office endeavor, as best he can, to collect both back and current taxes. Here Next Monday Sheriff R. V. Weich, who returns on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clog that he has the hardest job of all the at the Allen's Creek Baptist church

(Continued from page 1) tion, and continuing he said: "I pledge nite propositions, he is handling peo- part in the program myself to give to the people the best ple, at their worst. If the sinner only service that I possess and to conduct hurt himself, the sheriff says, his job my office in a business like and up would be a simple matter. But when right and honest manner, as I am capable of doing."

George A. Brown, Jr., said: "I am willing to give all the time possible serves a sentence, his duties get pretty to serving the people of the county, complicated, and if a man has a to give them an efficient county government for the next two years. We osition to handle. He says, with the realize that we have lots of problems to solve, and we hope, as a board in office he hopes to "treat all alike, to have the co-operation of the public the rich and the poor, the black and culties which we face and others the voters have placed in me."

Frank Davis, another member of like to thank the people for their suping of the next two years, Mr. Davis I hope to assist in accomplishing is the collection of back taxes, which I $200,000. I consider this a grave re-

During the World War, he was in This would be a great help to the the service of the United States Gov- man who is keeping his taxes paid ernment with the rank of major at up. Haywood county is a wonderful Camp Oglethorpe. At the time of his county, but we have had entirely too death he held a commission as major much lost motion and inefficiency. in the Medical Reserve Corps of the Whether I can remedy this situation is to be proved in the next two years."

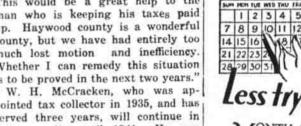

a thirty-second degree Mason, and a pointed tax collector in 1935, and has charter member of the Commandery served three years, will continue in of Knights Templars of the local this capacity until 1941. He was lodge. He has been master of Way- appointed by the legislature for a nesville Lodge No. 171, A. F. and A. period that will last through 1939. M., seven terms and district deputy after which he will serve the two was also a past high priest of the local his right hand know not the work of his left and every worthy cause re-In 1893 Dr. Abel was married to ceived his support. All those who Mary Vance, daughter of David Vance knew him well, his friends, his paand granddaughter of Col. Joseph tients, his loved ones, mourn his pass-Cathey. His second marriage was to ing remembering him as a great Bessie Love, daughter of Mathew physician, a great friend and a great the white." in general, in working out the diffi-Glen C. Palmer, who will reprethat will arise during the coming two sent the citizens of Haywood in the years. I appreciate the confidence 1939 General Assembly, displayed signs of homesickness, in an interview yesterday, before he even starts he board of county commissioners, for Raleigh. Mr. Palmer takes a when interviewed, stated he would very sensible view of the problems of legislation. He says he is espeport in the recent election. In speak- cially interested in getting some definite action on the rabies situation in said: "One of the outstanding things the county. He takes a state-wide view of the law making, however, understand amounts to more than and only in rare and exceptional cases, does he approve county measures. sponsibility during my term of office.

MONTH in, month out, many women and girls obtain twoway benefit from Cardui. It aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more energy from their food-and so increases resistance to the strain of functional periodic pain. Try it!

W.F. STRANGE PHONE 173 Estimates Gladly Given

FOR SALE 1932 Austin Coupe Motor Recently Overhauled A-1 Mechanical Condition THE FIRST GETS IT ..... PHONE 113-Or See JOHN SHELBY Central Cleaners

Hello, Boys and Girls I have arranged with EAGLE 5 and 10c STORE To Display My Toys In The Building Next To Their Store, And Formerly Occupied By Mormino's Fruit Stand.

Bring Your Parents and Look Over The Hundreds of Toys