Smiles :-

Both the photographer and the mother failed to make the restless little four-year-old sit still long enough to have his picture taken. Finally, the photographer suggested that "the little darling" might be quiet if his mother would leave the room for a few minutes. During her absence the picture was successfully taken.

On the way home, the mother asked: "What did the nice man say to make mother's little darling sit still?"

"He said, 'For this thrill, you little bear, or I'll knock your block off—do I that thrill,' explained mother's little darling.

Tramby—Could you spare me something for a cup of coffee?
 Bootman—"Hoos, man! I've think I carry lumps of sugar around in my pockets!"

TAKES A STEADY HAND
 The negro was being examined for a driver's license.

"And what is the white line in the middle of the road for?" he was asked.

"To' keep 'em," was the reply.

MODERN
 "Maid leaders," said a negro preacher, "when you hears Gabriel sound his horns yo' wants to be ready to jump."
 "Maid goodness," exclaimed one of the congregation, "an he comin' in an auto?"

FUN AT THE ZOO
 "It's just love to go to a zoo," said the little girl. "It's such fun to see the monkeys counting their fur."

AHEM!
 In the course of the trial the judge turned to the Negro woman on the stand and asked, "How old are you?"
 "Seventy-three, judge."
 "Mandy, you don't look 72."
 "I'm sure, judge."
 After a few minutes the trial was interrupted by Mandy. "Judge, I was wrong when I said my age was 72; dat's mah bust measure."

POOR HUSBY
 "Your trouble is caused by an ugly little microbe," said Dr. Hagas in diagnosing a case at a patient's home.
 "So-a!" sneezed the woman.
 "He's in the next room."

Make your explanation exact:
 College Girl—Take an egg, make a perforation in the base with some suitable pointed instrument, and a corresponding one in the apex. Then by applying the lips to one aperture and forcibly exhaling the breath, discharge the shell of its contents.
 Farmer's Wife (who was listening)—Well, well, it beats all how folks do things nowadays. When I was a girl, we just made a hole in each end and blow.

COMPLETE
 Mr. Brunhilde: "And the vacation resort overlooked a small lake?"
 Mr. Brunhilde: "Quite so—and it overlooked good food, comfortable rooms and decent beds."

Mountain Joe ...

Heard a fellow the other day who had been away from here for ten years, and when he got back he thought he was in the wrong town, so many changes had been made.

This is a progressive community. We do not take any sudden spurts and try to grow like a mushroom over night. Our growth is steady and on a sound economic plan and basis.

All that makes people happier. And after all, with the world thrown in turmoil, happiness is almost at a premium in all the globe except this nation.

Down at Burgin's we are a happy group... and we spread happiness... with our friendship as well as our low prices on quality merchandise.
