Miss Harriet Boyd Wedded To Joseph A. Webster Saturday

Miss Harriet Josephine Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Boyd, and Joseph Alvan Webster, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Webster, of Spartanburg, were married at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Perry street.

The marriage took place between the hours of the open house which the parents were holding in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. For the ceremony a limited number of relatives and intimate friends were present. In the evening the bride and groom received with the family.

The vows were spoken before the altar in front of the church in the library. Greenery as a background with floor standards with lighted tapers, and white standards, containing white flowers on either side made an attractive setting for the ceremony.

Rev. James G. Huggin, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated, using the double service.

After the ceremony the following musical was rendered:

Who Will Be The Lucky Graduate?

We will award a fine GRUEN Guld Watch in a few days the GIANT WATCH tells!

Who... will be the lucky GRADUATE

See this Giant Watch on display in our window. When it stops, the hand will point out the lucky winner. The fortunate graduate will indeed be very happy over this wonderful award.
