WHAT OSCAR COULD DO TO A SAWDUST PILE

DALLAS—About the only place Oscar would be safe in a cell, and he might chew his way out of that.

He was blamed for eating away most of a wooden pole that supported a shed at the livestock pound. The shed was nearing collapse.

Overseer P. O. Davis ordered an auction to clear the pound of its inhabitants—all goats.

Oscar's four pals brought $4.65. Oscar, with his weakness of wood, was sold down the river for 35 cents.

North Carolina traffic death toll for 1940 was 988 lives.

Abandoned Ship Sails Herself Home To Britain

LONDON.—A 200-ton "ghost ship" sailed herself 60 miles to land recently after being abandoned by its crew when fire broke out from unknown origin. The navigatorless vessel missed a dangerously rock by inches and berthed itself in a west coast inlet.

The engines were left turning over slowly as the crew fled to lifeboats so hurriedly that their wallets were left behind. The flames burned out quickly and the ship soon will be able to return to service.

Well-Dressed Japanese Are Wearing Horsehair

TOKYO. — Necessity being the mother of invention, Japan has a new cloth this season. It is made of horse hair and is said to rival

Low Alimony Figure By Wife Surprise To Court

OAKLAND, CALIF. — Mrs. Frances E. Peterson is believed to have been the only woman seeking a divorce in local courts who asked for too little alimony.

Twenty years old, and with a two-year-old son, she blushed and replied diffidently when Judge Harris asked her how much alimony she desired.

"Would $40 a month be all right?" she queried in reply.

"No it would not," declared the judge. "It wouldn't be enough."

And he awarded her $12 a week from James A. Peterson, sheet metal worker.

Having Trouble In Mattress Distribution

TALLADEGA, Ala. — Members of the Home Demonstration Office here connected with authorizing applications and distributing mattress materials to qualified farmers are finding many difficulties connected with their work.

The secretary of the office asked one applicant: "What makes you think you are qualified for a mattress? Have you proof of your need for one; any difficulties that would qualify you for a mattress?"

The applicant replied: "Difficulties? Listen to this: My wife and I have been married before. She has four little difficulties. I have five little difficulties; she's a difficulty to me; I'm a difficulty to her, and that makes 11 difficulties all together."

He got the mattress.

SELF-DENIAL

The dinner passed off successfully, but afterward, when the ladies were in the drawing room, Mrs. Young remarked to her hostess: "I don't want to be personal, but I should like to know why I was so pointedly ignored when the wine was being handed round tonight."

"Oh," said the hostess, "I told the butler about that. I know you have joined the Temperance league."

"But," said the guest, "it wasn't the Temperance league I joined, it was the Morality league."

"So stupid of me, dear," was the reply, "but I knew you had given up something."
