Pretty Arrival

Beatrice Phillips, daughter of William Phillips, U. S. ambassador to Italy, arrives at New York, enroute to her home in Boston. She had been vacationing in Buenos Aires, Ar-gentina.

Lieut. Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey

Australian commander in the Mid-lews of The World As Gathered By the Camera

Jackson Houston, 87-yeard General Sam Houston, at Fear Houston, the Texas Army to victory Hexico in 1836, has been fill the unexpired term of Senator Morris Sheppard Houston will be required saly until June 28, when a idection will be held.

woyed by Cupid

gee from the war but not romance is Julia Eygendaal, rold Belgian, pictured as she mold Belgian, pictured as sne in New York aboard the allur en route to Venezuela to yaboy she met in Holland in It took her almost a year to America in her flight from Nazi-captured Brussels.

es for Million crusader for labor, Miss steel Company with a $1,000,000 in anti-labor ac-a. A stockholder, she demands in be reimbursed by those who setered such expenditures.

corated by Britain

Harold Sims, grandson of William S. Sims, com-of the U. S. Navy in the Yar, is shown as he left ham Palace where he was with the William Model

Australia Welcomes U.S. Sailors

Australia, is gaily decorated with the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes as American seane streets amin' a blizzard of confetti. The service men visited Australia in a train-

Apple Queen

A member of the distinguished Virginia Lee family, Mollie Foulkes Lee has been named the 1941 apple blossom queen of Winchester, Va., and will rule over the annual May fete. Queen Shenandoah 18th is 18 years old.

In Ottawa Post

Britain's new High Commissioner to Canada, Malcolm MacDonald, former Minister of Health in the British Cabinet, arrives at his Ottawa post.

Steals Plane Plans

Count Joseph de Benque, 64, who served as a spy for Italy and France in the World War, is said by police in New York to have confessed the theft of 1,500 blueprints of airplane pumps used on military aircraft. The Count was arrested as a courier handed him the stolen prints.

Unwelcome in Rome

Italy has demanded the recall of Capt. William C. Bentley, assistant American military attache in Rome, ta retaliation for Washington's expulsion of Admiral Alberto Lais, Italian naval attache, who was charged with directing sabotag Italian ships in U. S. waters. No explanation was given for Bentley being termed "persona non grata."

Fritz Kreisler Hurt

One of the world's greatest violin-One of the world's greatest violinists, Fritz Kreisler, 66, was struck by a motor truck and gravely injured when he was trapped in New York traffic while crossing Madison Avenue during rush hour. Unconscious and suffering from a fractured skull, he was taken to the hospital, where his condition was described as "satisfactory."

Willkie's Sister Back

Mrs. Charlotte Pihl, sister of Wendell Willkie, returns to New York from Berlin after a three-year stay. Mrs. Pihl is the wife of Commander Paul E. Pihl, U. S. Navy attache in Berlin.

Kiddie King

King of the kiddies is nine-months old David Gallagher of New York City, chosen as the typical American baby by officials of National Baby Week. Little David has a drink on the house in honor of the occasion.

Tells of Norse Aid

Crown Prince Olav of Norway puffs Crown Prince Olav of Norway purson a cigar after finishing dinner given by the Economic Club of New York. Making his first public address since arrival in the U. S., he revealed that 1,000 Norwegian ships are carrying goods to Britain. The Prince called this the "greatest contribution that Norway is making to the allies."

Backs Ship Seizures

Commander F. F. Reynolds, representing the chief of naval opera-tions, is shown before the House merchant marine committee hear-ing on two bills to accelerate the acquisition of foreign ships in dle East, was named second in command to Gen. Sir Archibald American ports. He declared the ships would be used to replace ton-nage taken over by the Army and Navy for transport and supply. Wavell in an effort to stem rising Australian discontent over conduct of the war in Greece and North

Named queen of the bathing beau-ties at Bondi Beach in Sydney, Aus-tralia, Doreen Roads was one of the swimming during the good-will visit there of American warships. Miss Southern Pine reasons U. S. sailors did a lot of Spring time is queen time in the United States, and here is another lovely lass who has been elevated to royalty. She is Miss Southern Pine of 1941, pretty Mary Black of Beau-fort, S. C., dressed in newsprint to mark another year of progress in the use of pulp and paper products, the South's newest and potentially one of its greatest industries.

Household Hint

Insure long and useful life for your linoleum by varnishing when new and thereafter waxing lightly each month after washing.

Governor Breaks Ground For Power Plant Addition

Upper left, crowd watches as Governor Broughton operates shovel breaking ground for Carolina Power & Light Company's $6,000,000 addition to its Cape Fear Plant in Chatham County near Moncure. Lower left shows Governor Broughton and L. V. Sutton, company president, left, in cab. Lower right shows Sutton, Governor Broughton, W. H. Weatherspoon and S. P. Vecker, company vice-presidents, as Governor praised the company for its "farseeing policy" of "co-operatnig fully" with the national defense program by having an ample supply of electric power available at all times.

Queen of Sydney Made It This Time

The first time Wolfgang Sonnenfeldt, 16, a German refugee, tried to reach the United States, his ship was torpedoed in the North Atlan-tic. The Nazi ship that did the sink-ing returned him to Germany and a ing returned him to Germany and a prison camp. He finally made his way to Bombay, India, where he got transportation to the United States. He is shown arriving at New York aboard the President Madison.

Vargas Diamond Cut

The world's largest uncut diamond, the Vargas stone, valued at $2,000,000, is held by Kay Herman just before cutting work was started in New York. The diamond is being split into twenty-three stones ranging in size from five to fifty

Exiled Crown Prince

Youngest scion of royalty made homeless by an axis invasion is little Crown Prince Alexander of Albania, shown in London. He was only a few days old on April 6, 1939, when his half-American mother, Queen Geraldine, and King Zog were forced to flee Albania,

"Tiger's" Grandson

Mrs. Pierre B. Clemenceau, wife of Mrs. Pierre B. Clemenceau, wife of son of late French premier, the World War "tiger of France" arrives at New York. The young mother, a native of New Orleans, said she had fied from Bordeaux to Marseilles to Dakar, Africa, then to the air base at Boloma where she boarded the transatlantic plane fer the U.S.