

Mrs. Wm. Hannah Takes Over Duties As Club President

Mrs. William Hannah was installed as the new president of the Waynesville Woman's Club at the regular May meeting held on Thursday afternoon in the Sunday school rooms of the Presbyterian church.

Others who will serve the club during the coming year include: first vice president, Mrs. C. P. Kirkpatrick; second vice president, Mrs. Frank Ferguson; third vice president, Mrs. Jack Messer; treasurer, Mrs. Troy Wyche; secretary, Mrs. Bonner Ray; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. T. Crawford.

Mrs. George A. Kunze, chairman of music, was in charge of the program which was on religious music and followed the outline of a program recommended by the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Those taking part and the numbers rendered were: Miss Mary Stentz, soloist, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" to Guonod's "Ava Maria," accompanied by Miss Grace Crocker; Mrs. J. Dale Stentz sang a negro spiritual, "Lord, I want to be a Christian," also accompanied by Miss Crocker; Mrs. Fred Martin, sang "Trees," a hymn to nature, by Joyce Kilmer, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Matney.

The following composed a choir and sang a number of old familiar hymns: Mrs. H. G. Hammett, Mrs. Lawrence Green, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Henry Foy, Mrs. J. W. Killian, Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, Dr. Edith Anderson, Miss Ida Jean Brown, and Mary Stentz.

Prior to the rendition of the hymns, Mrs. Kunze told the story of each and the circumstances attending their composition. The songs used on the program were: "Star Spangled Banner," "Abide With Me," "Faith of Our Fathers," "Fairer Lord Jesus," "Rescue the Perishing," "Onward Christian Soldiers," "In the Hour of Trial," "Almighty Fortress," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "God of Our Fathers," and "America."

During the business session all officers and committee chairmen made their annual reports of work done during the club years ending this month. Mrs. R. B. Williams, of Carey, guest of Mrs. C. N. Sisk, who attended the state Federation meeting in Winston-Salem, gave an account of the convention.

Mrs. Dan Watkins was chairman of the hostesses of the afternoon, with Mrs. William Medford, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell as associates.

Christian Rauschenberg and his daughter, Miss Lucy Rauschenberg, of Atlanta, who have spent the past fifteen summers at Lake Junaluska, spent the week-end in town. Mr. Rauschenberg is building a summer home at the lake.

June Bride-Elect

MISS MARY ALICE DUNGAN, of Elizabethton, Tenn., whose engagement to Kenneth Vaughn Brugh, Jr., of Blacksburg, Va., has recently been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCracken, of Waynesville, and has often visited here.

Engagement Of Mary Alice Dungan Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dungan, of Elizabethton, Tenn., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Alice Dungan, to Kenneth Vaughn Brugh, Jr., of Blacksburg, Va.

The wedding will take place on Tuesday, June the 3rd, at the Central Methodist church of Elizabethton.

Miss Dungan is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCracken and is widely connected in Haywood county, her mother is the former Miss Josephine McCracken. She has often visited relatives here, where she has many friends.

The bride-elect was graduated from the Elizabethton high school and Shorter College of Rome, Ga. For the past two years she has been chief clerk at the Carter county, Tenn., WPA office.

Mr. Brugh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brugh of Pulaski, Va. He was graduated from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, of Blacksburg, where he is now associated with the department of aeronautics. While a student at VPI he was a member of the Scabbard and Blade, honorary military society, the German and Bachelor clubs, and was captain and adjutant in the cadet corps.

Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., and young daughter, Betty Barber, have returned from Griffin, Ga., where they were the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norman.

Her Wedding Took Place Saturday

MRS. BEARL NESBIT, who before her marriage on Saturday, May the 17th, at Long's Chapel, Lake Junaluska, was Miss Emily Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Palmer, of Crabtree.

Marriage Of Emily Palmer To B. F. Nesbit Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Palmer, of Crabtree, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emily Ferguson Palmer, to Bearl Floyd Nesbit, of Fletcher. The vows were solemnized at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Long's Chapel Methodist church, Lake Junaluska. The Rev. T. A. Groce, a close friend of both families, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. W. H. Neese. Only relatives and intimate friends attended the marriage.

The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with greenery and baskets of mixed flowers.

A program of wedding music was presented prior to the ceremony by Miss Ruth Gladden, accompanied by Mrs. Riley Palmer, sister-in-law of the bride. The selections included: "I Love You Truly," "Oh Promise Me," and "The Sweetest Story Every Told," with the traditional wedding marches used for the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Glenn C. Palmer, Haywood county representative in the State Assembly. She was attired in a gown of white silk marquette, fashioned basque style with a long full skirt. She wore a short veil, with halo trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of white mixed flowers.

Miss Josephine Plott was maid of honor. Her gown was light blue with small rows of lace on the bodice fashioned of starched net over taffeta. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades.

The bridegroom entered with his father, J. B. Nesbit, who served as best man. Barbara Ann Nesbit, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nesbit, of Black Mountain, and niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Serving as ushers were Joe Palmer, brother of the bride, and Marvin E. Nesbit, brother of the groom.

The bride was graduated from the Clyde high school, Brevard Junior College, and holds a B. S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers College. Since graduation from the latter she has been teaching in the primary grades of the Crabtree school.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nesbit, of Fletcher. He was graduated from Fairview high school, Brevard Junior College, and holds a B. S. degree from the North Carolina State College. For the past two years he has taught vocational agriculture in the Crabtree high school.

Father And Son Banquet Hazelwood Presbyterian Church To Be Held On 22nd

The annual Father and Son banquet of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the church on Thursday evening, May 22, at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. M. R. Williamson, pastor of the Waynesville Presbyterian church, will be the speaker of the evening.

Bride Of Next Month

MISS ELVA SCHREYER, of Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schreyer, whose engagement to John Dudley Moore, of Lake Junaluska, was announced recently by her parents.

Local DAR Members Attend Meeting of Chapter in Asheville

The following members of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the DAR attended the open meeting of the Edward Buncombe chapter in Asheville, which was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Carroll on Wednesday afternoon: Mrs. James M. Long, Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Mrs. Harry Rotha, Mrs. James W. Killian, Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Mrs. C. E. Quinlan, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. R. L. Prevost and Mrs. Harry Marshall.

The meeting was attended by a large number of state officers and a delightful musical program was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McElroy arrived on Sunday from the Naval Air Base at Norfolk, Va., and joined their son, Paul McElroy, Jr., and his friend, Glenn Harshman, also of Norfolk, who have been spending the past two weeks here at the home on Love Lane.

Dr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Crittenden and three children, of Raleigh, arrived during the week for a visit to Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan. Dr. Crittenden has returned to Raleigh, but Mrs. Crittenden and children will remain in town for a more lengthy visit.

Announce Wed

MRS. THOMAS J. LOFT, who before her marriage on September 22nd, was Miss Margaret Turner, daughter of Mr. and P. D. Turner.

Hazelwood Sunday School Group Enjoys Weiner

The intermediate group Hazelwood Presbyterian school of which R. A. Gaddis, teacher, enjoyed a weiner near the Golf Course on Tuesday evening.

Those attending were: Margaret Blalock, Miss Edith Merrow, Elmer Harris, M. Blalock, Miss Doris Ann John Summerrow, Miss Winchester, Miss Mary Sparks, of Spruce Pine, Hoyle, Miss Estella Wright, Laura Winchester, Barron Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gaddis and Pete Gaddis.

Master Johnnie Allen Given Party On His Birthday Anniversary

Master Johnnie Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Burlington, Vermont, was the of honor at a party on Monday when his grandmother, Mrs. Stringfield and his aunt, Miss Stringfield, in celebration of his first birthday anniversary.

The guest list included: Linda Sloan, Sallie Stoval, Williamson Prevost, Florence Bowles, Adora Lee Prevost, per Sloan, Jr., and Jimmie Jr.

Moore formerly taught mathematics in the Waynesville high school.

Advertisement for Arrow Shirts. Features an illustration of a man and a woman. Text: 'Oh, you men are all alike!' All men alike? Look at 'em! Tall, skinny, squat, plump! But it doesn't faze us—in our Arrow Shirt family you'll find collars to suit all male shapes and tastes. Arrows also have the famous "Mitoga" figure-fit, up-to-the-minute styling, and they're Sanforized-Shrunk (fabric can't shrink even 1%)! Get some Arrow Shirts today. . . . $2 up. Massie's Dept. Store. C. J. REECE, Owner.

Advertisement for Mojud crepe silk stockings. Features an illustration of a woman's legs in stockings. Text: 'For GLAMOUR Legs Mojud crepe silk stockings. MOJUD the dependable HOSIERY. Don't deny your New Spring clothes, the glamour perfection of these beautiful hose. Our Mojud Crepes look sheerer, last longer, cost less in the end. 79¢ — $1 THE TOGGERY'

Advertisement for Curlee Tropical Suits. Features an illustration of a man and a woman in a suit. Text: 'COOL as a Summer Breeze Curlee Tropical Suits. These light weight worsteds, featuring the season's newest and smartest patterns, are smartly styled and expertly tailored. They're cool and comfortable but, at the same time, these fabrics hold their shape and stand up under hard summer wear. $1975 Massie Dept. Store. C. J. REECE, Owner.'

MASSIE'S DEPARTMENT STORE "WHERE QUALITY REIGNS" C. J. REECE, Owner