THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

SEVENTH YEAR

A CHEMISTOR

Sixteen Pages

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1941

$1.50 In Advance in Haywood and Jackson Counties

ton Rubber To Hold Open House

uso REA Assured $300,000 For Expansion Program Being Made For 3,000 At "Party"

n B. Price, State REA rman, Attended An-Meet Of Cruso Corgement was made at the neeting of the Cruso Rural cation Corporation held in on Saturday that the adtion in Washington had the group that the allot-$300,000 for extension of Haywood, Swain, Macon, and Transylvania counald soon be available.

ipal speakers at the meet-re Gwyn B. Price, of Ralirman of the State REA, V. Hannah, chief of the section of the Rural Elecinistration in Washingnother visitor was Joe Gill, New York Public Utilities. following directors were to serve the corporation the coming year, from the officers will be elected eeting in September: Chas. rary, Mrs. D. L. Pless, Erwin, Mrs. E. B. Rick-T. Rainer, W. P. Harris, ustice, Carter Osborne and Medford. The last two took the places of Miss Davis and Fred Ferguson Allen re selected by the nominatmittee, but asked to have

Rites Held ohnson City J. W. Summers

W. Summers, 59, reprefor many years of the Hardware Company, or City, Tenn., in this secthe state, died here at his the Kirkpatrick apartn the Asheville road Sunming at 10 o'clock.

ummers had not been well etime, having suffered a lness last year from which r fully recovered. Last returned to his home in City, but came back to ville a few weeks ago enhe Haywood County Hosr treatment, later moving partment. al services were conducted old Summers residence at k Monday afternoon and as in a local cemetery there. ring are his widow, a r by a former marriage, len Summers, two sisters brothers.

mber of persons from here the funeral on Monday, g: Dr. N. M. Medford, Mr. Geo. A. Brown, Jr., Mrs. oodard, Felix Stovall, Har-and Lawrence Kerley.

8 At Clyde k Yards Total Head Thursday

eekly sale of cattle at the d County Mutual Stock-cated in Clyde totaled 190 last Thursday.

brought per hundredsere: cows, $4.80 to $6.50;
$6.35 to $8.40; steers,
$8.00; calves, $3.00 to bulls, $7; sheep $4; hogs,

y Lots Sold lyde Auction

le of lots at Clyde Saturtermed as very satisfac-Mrs. John Morgan, owner. ection was conducted by ne Auction and Realty y, of Forest City, well sales promoters and aucge number of residential sold, and many buyers they would build at an

Commissioned ond Lieutenant

Harden Howell, Jr., was oned a second lieutenant dantry on Tuesday of this Fort Jackson, where he in training. ant Howell is the son of ad Mrs. J. H. Howell, the g postmaster of Way-

Labor Day Committees Second Group Of Draftees Left Planning Big Program

Chairman

Committeemen have about comleted all details for an elaborate Labor Day program here in this community September 1.

J. Dale Stentz was named general chairman by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last week, and he has already gotten his seven committees to function-

The general program will follow somewhat the general plan of last year, with a parade in the morning, followed by a full program of athletic events, softball games, and the annual Labor Day street dance in the evening at Hazelwood, Cash prizes are being awarded in each event, including the parade, it was announced. Committeemen as announced yesterday by Mr. Stentz, are:

Parade: L. M. Richeson, Lawrence Kerley, A. P. Ledbetter and W. A. Bradley.

Publicity: M. H. Bowles, chairman, W. Curtis Russ and C. N.

Mutt parade: Francis Massie. Band: L. T. New, Jr. Square dance: "Bug"

Athletic events: C. E. Weatherh - . By and E. C. Wagenfeld.

Agents Announce Four Township Farm Tours

Four township farm tours of the demonstration farms in the chosen area will be held on Friday and Monday, according to the county agents.

Starting at the same hour of 1:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon a tour will be made of the Waynesville township, beginning at the farm of Bob Welch and one of area with the group assembling at poration has been organized. the N. C. James store.

On Monday a tour will be made Pilkington Company. to cover the Beaverdam township and the center Pigeon area demonstration starting at 1:00 o'clock at the Garden Creek mill and will go from there to the farm of Will L. Clark. Other farms to be visited are: Mrs. H. G. Reno, W. J. Smathers, Judson Pinner, Grover J. Abel, and George Stamey.

At the same hour on Monday tour will be made of the Iron Duff Watershed and Crabtree township, starting at the Jarvis Caldwell farm in Iron Duff. Other farms to be visited include, Joe D. Medford, John F. Rogers, F. A. Justice, W. C. Kirkpatrick, Harley R. Bryson, and Oral L. Yates.

Last Rites Held For R. M. Scates In Hazelwood

Funeral services were conduct ed Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Hazelwood Baptist church for Raymond M. Scates, 38, who died from a self-inflicted bullet wound at his home on Main street Thursday evening at 7:10 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. J. M. Woodard, officiated, Burial was in Green Hill cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: Leon Morrow, Bill Milner, Jack Burnett, James Leatherwood, Joe Shipley, and Thomas Hoyle.

Dr. J. R. Westmoreland, coroner, who made an investigation, said Mr. Scates ended his own life by shooting himself through the mouth with a bullet from a .22

Mr. Scates was the only surviving son of the late J. P. Scates, a former mayor of Hazelwood. He attended Western Carolina Teachers College, and was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Surviving are the widow, four sons, Corporal Frank Scates, of Brown with the preaching. Fort Jackson, R. M., Jr., Edward and Joe; two daughters, Frances and Yvonne; one sister, Mrs. H. B. Milner, of Hazelwood, and his step-mother, Mrs. Sallie Scates.

Corporal Joe Shipley, of Fort their guest last week the latter's Jackson, spent the week-end with his family here,

Here On Monday

James Nichols Palmer was made group leader of the 15 second draftees, from the Waynesville area who were taken by bus Monday morning to Fort Bragg, from which point they will be sent to other camps. Samuel Jack Liner was assistant leader.

Troy Lee Ferguson was the only volunteer among the second group to go. The bus left around 10 o'clock, with a crowd of relatives and friends telling the boys good-

The list included in addition to Volunteer Ferguson the following: Robert Medford Fulbright, Waynesville; Troy James Stevenson, route 2, Waynesville; John Williams Boyd, route 2, Waynesville; Glenn Robert Brackett, Lake Junaluska; Fred Alley Wyatt, route 1, Waynesville; John Mull Caldwell, Salem, N. J.; Charles Homer

Smith, route 2, Waynesville. Samuel Jack Liner, route 1, Waynesville; James Nichols Palmer, Asheville; Robert Britt Franklin, Cove Creek; Weldon Hughey Henry, Lake Junaluska; Cordell Lewis Bradley, Maggie; Jersy Retodd Massie, route 1, Clyde; Arthur Wilford Burchfield, route 2, Waynesville.

Sen. Robert Reynolds (left), 57, of North Carolina, and Evalyn Walsh McLean (right), 20, whose mother owns the famous Hope Diamond, have announced they will be married soon. Reynolds has been wed

3 Prominent State Legionnaires Will time. Be On Program Here Tonight At 7:30

School Will Begin 9:15 And Dismiss At 3:45 Until Sept. 28

When the Waynesville township schools open on Wednesday the 27th the pupnls will assemble at 9:15 and be dismissed in the afternoon at 3:45, Daylight Saving Time.

This will be observed until September the 28th, after which date the old schedule will be used, according to M. H. Bowles, district superintendent.

Quilt, Rug Show Attracted Large

The annual quilt and rug show staged here on Wednesday by the Woman's Club in the community center in the Chamber of Commerce building was attended by a large number of visitors and local residents.

The following served as judges of the shown: Mrs, R. N. Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Henry Baynard, of St. Petersburg, and Mrs. Fort Adams, of Atlanta, all guests at the Waynesville Country Club.

Mrs. James W. Killian served as general chairman with the following committee members: Mrs. G. C. Davis, Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mrs. Linwood Grahl, Mrs. J P. Dicus, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Troy Wyche, and Mrs. Joseph Web-

Many interesting articles both old and new were exhibited in the various classes entered, with the hooked rugs perhaps holding the limelight.

Those winning prizes included class 1, best appliqued new quilt, $1.00, Mrs. Woodson Jones, with Mrs. W. F. Swift honorable mention; class 2, best new patchwork quilt, $1.00, Miss Katheryn Queen, with Alice Stringfield honorable mention; class 3, best new silk quilt, $1.00, (a) Mrs. Jonathan (Continued on page five)

County National Defense Council Meets Tomorrow

J. C. Lynn, county chairman of national defense, has called a spe-Haywood County Council tomored a dime board for several days, cial meeting of all members of the row night at 8 o'clock (daylight saving time) in the court room.

Chairman Lynn points out that this is a very important meeting, called for the main purpose of organizing aircraft observation posts in Haywood county. The aircraft warning stations must be set up by September 10, so plans must get underway in the near future.

Plans will also be discussed for county. A committee on nutrition Lawson Mehaffey, on the Fairview will be appointed at the meeting.

North Carolina American Legion organization are slated to appear on the program tonight at the local American Legion home on Depot street at 7:30. W. H. F. Millar, commander of the Haywood Post, said yesterday that Tommy Green, district commander, James Tisdale, area chairman on Americanism, and Burgin Pennell, past commander, will appear on the program, in addition to an interesting entertainment.

Commander Millar said old A. E. F. songs would be featured the first of the meeting, and promised: 'No one will be asked to contribute to anything at meeting of this "Haywood Post No. 47 is revived and rejuvenated, and all veterans are cordially invited to attend," he concluded.

Crowds Yesterday 1941 Flower Show Prize List Is Attracting Entries

Interest in the annual flower show sponsored by the Waynesville Woman's Club continues to grow, according to Mrs. Frank Ferguson, chairman in charge of Entries may be placed on the evening of the 25th or on the morning of the 26th, but in either case must be in readiness by 11 o'clock when the judges start their inspection.

The various committees assist ing include: entry committee, Mrs. Jack Messer, Mrs. Felix Stovall Miss Mary Ashworth Barber, and Mrs. M. G. Stamey; arrangements, Mrs. Orr, Miss Robena Miller, Miss Caroline Alsteatter, and Mrs. Jere

Prize list, Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. John Queen; judges, Mrs. Wm. Hannah and Mrs. James W Killian; silver offering, Mrs. Troy Wyche, Mrs. R. N. Barber, and Mrs. G. C. Davis.

Clyde Fisher Takes Training For Work In Rubber Plant

Clyde Fisher, mayor of Hazelwood, left for Dayton, Ohio, during the week where he will go in training at the Dayton Rubber Manufacturing plant there. He will return after his period of instruction and will be connected with the rubber company here when the branch plant which is now under construction begins operations.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Perry and two children, of Gastonia, are the guests of Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill. Mrs. Perry is the granddaughter of Mrs. Turbyfill and was before her marriage Miss Julia Henson, daughter of Mrs. Garnett Henson.

Mrs. Charles W. Edwards, Jr., of pushing the program of food con-servation for the family in the parents this week, Mr. and Mrs.

* Elaborate Plans

Three Steers, Six Pigs and Five Lambs To Be Barbecued For Saturday Event. WTHS BAND TO PLAY

Soco Gap Dance Team and Band To Provide Evening Of Free Entertainment.

(See Page 15)

"We want to have one big happy get-together and meet all of our new neighbors at one time if possible," stated officials of the Dayton Rubber Manufacturing Company when they arrived in town this week to make preparations for the free barbecue and square dance to be held at the plant Saturday night, August 23rd. This looks like one of the biggest events of its kind ever held in Haywood county. The plant is being tidied up and while some of the machinery is already installed, there will be plenty of space available to serve the barbecue and refreshments and to conduct four or five square dance groups at one

A public address system is being installed so that Sam Queen can call for four or five dance rings Three outstanding men of the at one time. The famous Soco Gap string band will play from a specially erected band stand in the center of the spacious dancing area provided.

The Soco Gap dance team of nationally known ability, will also give an exhibition, Every thing s being provided for the entertainment, comfort and safety of those attending.

Door prizes for both ladies and gentleman as well as novelty dance prizes will be given. An old timers buck and wing dance will be be one of the high spots of the evening. In between dances guests will hear the singing of famous mountain ballads.

The barbecue will be served in cafeteria style. The company is: providing for three thousand people. Three choice Haywood county steers, six fine pigs and five lambs will provide the barbecue. All of the other regular barbecue trimmings will balance out the menu, including a wide choice of refreshments.

The 60-piece Waynesville Township High School Band will give a band concert while the barbecue is being served. The band will perform under the direction of L. T. New, Jr.

Officials of the Dayton Rubber Company who will be in attendance are: J. A. MacMillan, chairman; A. L. Freedlander, president and general manager; C. E. Hooven, vice president; William G. Pickrel, general counsel; E. A. Baker, treasurer; P. T. Mayle, competroller; H. S. Mooradean, factory superintendent; R. M. Weimer, personnel director and R L. Wetzel, advertising manager...

Jonathan Woody will act as master of ceremonies. He and the following committees are serving with the company officials in lining up the big get-together.

Barbecue Committee - Rufus Siler, chairman, C. N. Allen, W. A. Bradley, C. A. George, L. N. Richeson, Hallett Ward, E. C. Wagenfeld, W. L. Hardin, Jr., Aaron Pre-

House Committee-R. L. Prevost, Jr., chairman, Charles Ray, vice chairman, Grayden Ferguson, Hugh Massie, Jerry Liner, Howard Hyatt, J. H. Way, Jr., Thomas Stringfield, Jr., R. V. Erk.

Reception Committee J. E. Massie, chairman, L. N. Davis, vice chairman, R. L. Prevost, Sr., D. J. Noland, George Brown, Jr., R. T. Boyd, Ben Colkitt, W. R. Francis, Frank M. Davis.

Ladies Committee-Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, chairman, Mrs. George Bischoff, Mrs. D. D. Alley, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. C. N. Allen, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs W. A. Bradley, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. J. M. Long, Mrs. J. H. Woody, Mrs. Jack Messer, Mrs. Geo. Brown, Jr., Mrs. Johnny Ferguson, Mrs. Bill Prevost, Mrs. William Medford.

Transportation and Safety-Sheriff R. V. Welch, chairman, O. R. Roberts, Norman Caldwell, Sam. Cabe, J. L. Stringfield, Jerry Rogers, Noble Ferguson, L. L. Kerley, Wm. Medford.

Door Prize Committe-Messer, chairman, J. Dale Stents, vice chairman, J. M. Long, J. R. Boyd, Earl Ferguson, Ben Sloan.

Reeves Noland Improving Two Main Street Buildings

C. N. Allen Head Of Hazelwayne Corporation Here

J. Dale Stentz,

C. N. Allen was named president of the Hazelwayne Corporation at a recent meeting of the board of directors. Mr. Allen succeeds J. M. Long, who has served as president for the 14 years that the cor-

The corporation built the building which is occupied by Royle

Other officers include L. M. Killian as vice president; E. J. Hyatt, secretary-treasurer, with Hugh Massie and C. M. Dicus members of the board of directors together with the officers.

Glenn Palmer Renamed Trustee of W. C. T. C.

Glenn C. Palmer is one of the nine persons recently appointed by Governor Broughton as members of the board of trustees for Western Carolina Teachers College. The members will serve until May 1, Others appointed on the board include: Mrs. D. H. Tillett, of Andrews; Harry E. Bunchanan, of Hendersonville; Frank Hyatt, of Bryson City; Mrs. J. S. Silverteen, of Brevard; Mrs. E. L. Mc-Kee, of Sylva; E. E. Wheeler, of Asheville; Gilmer A. Jones, of Franklin, and D. Hiden Ramsey, of Asheville.

Fred T. Peden Has Heart Attack In Pittsburgh

Fred T. Peden, manager of the Champion Fibre Company Store in Canton, and member of the Haywood County Hospital board of trustees, was stricken with a heart attack on Monday while attending a feed convention in Pittsburgh, Pa. The physicians stated that due to his condition he would not be able to leave the hospital for at least two weeks. Mrs. Peden left yesterdy for Pittsburgh.

10-Day Revival Begins Sunday At Shady Grove

A ten-day revival will begin Sunday at the Shady Grove Methodist church on Jonathan Creek, with Rev. Frank Leatherwood assisting the pastor, Rev. Odell Services will be held each night at eight o'clock. "We invite everyone to attend,"

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore had as Woodrow Smith, of Candler.

D. Reeves Noland, prominent Haywood County farmer, who has recently purchased a block of business buildings on Main street adjoining the recently completed Boyd Furniture Store, is making extensive improvements on the One building was occupied for many years by the late Jefferson Reeves who operated the Waynesville Pharmacy, and the other the Moody building was occupied by Mrs. Lou Silverthorn for a number of years, but more recently by a shoe shop.

Both buildings are being renovated with many changes. The old Jefferson Reeves store will be converted into a modern business house, with a full length basement. On the second floor there will be two apartments and two offices.

The Moody building will be remodeled and reoccupied by the shoe shop. It will also have a basement and a second story apart-

Rubber Company Heads To Give Rotary Program

Friday will be "Dayton Rubber Day" for the Waynesville Rotary Club, when officials of the Dayton Rubber Manufacturing Company will be present and provide the pro-

Charles Ray is chairman of the program committe. The officials of the company will designate their speaker for the occasion

Haywood County Doubles Quota Ambulance Fund

Haywood county's Old North State fund quota has been doubled, with the final collections amounting nearly $1,800, according to Chairman R. D. Coleman, of Canton, and Mrs. Whitener Prevost. who was in charge of the Waynesville area.

The local troop of Girl Scouts under the leadership of their captain, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, operatwhich brought more than $250.00. Boxes were also placed in the various hotels in the community. The total amount realized was approx-to England as a gift from the citizens of North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stovall had as their guests Sunday Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mr. and Mrs.

The money raised will be sent to help buy an ambulance plane at a cost of $75,000 to be presented