The home economics department now has a new refrigerator for their department. This will be a great help to the girls in their work.

Ice cream sales are carried on daily in the office of the Fines Creek school. Elizabeth Rogers is in charge of the sales. Profit made from the sale of ice cream will be used for the purchase of play ground equipment.

The elementary glee club has been organized for the first time in the music department. Officers for the club are president, Peggy Noland; vice president, Doris Rathbone; secretary, June Brown; treasurer, Ted James. Bonnie Walker and Mary Lee Bramlett are the news reporters.

Rally Day was observed last Sunday at the Laurel Hill Methodist church. A two act drama was read by the pastor, the Rev. Joe Shackford.

As fall is approaching and winter not far off our thoughts turn to the safety of our school children. We can not ignore the safety of our school children who will be the men and women of tomorrow.

The roads in our section are very good except the Fines Creek mountain road. The Cold Spring bus must travel over this road twice daily. This road should be fixed and we know of none better qualified to do this than our county representative, Glenn C. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis had as their guests last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Reeves, of Greeneville, Tenn. Mr. Reeves has been connected with tobacco warehouse for several years and each year he travels over this vicinity bargaining for tobacco sales.

Glenn Noland, a teacher in the Hazelwood school, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Z. Noland. He had with him a friend, Mr. Davis, who holds a

At the morning hour of worship all communicants of the church have been urged to be in their pews for the observance of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Sunday will be Universal Communion Sunday at which time Christian people all over the world will be observing the sacrament. A suitable communion message will be given by the Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, pastor of the church.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

"Unreality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. The Golden Text will be taken from John 1, 2:16-17, "All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eye, and the pride of life is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

THE METHODIST CHURCH
"World Communion Sunday" will be observed October 5th by Protestant churches all over the nation, the communicants being reminded of their suffering brethren in the other parts of the world. In observance of that day, the Holy Communion will be celebrated at the eleven o'clock hour with the pastor in charge.
In the evening the pastor will preach, using as his sermon subject: "How Manasseh Learned of God."

Cove Creek News

Mr. Fugit has moved his saw mill business from Cove Creek to Dellwood. However, this will not throw the crew out of work, as John Howell and his son-in-law, Sam Chambers, are planning to continue the mill.

We regret the loss of the Fugit family, as they were loyal church workers and good neighbors.

The traffic has been across Cove Creek to Cataloochee and Tennessee this summer. More tourists than usual have crossed and more local people, too, due to a good fishing season in the park.

Although I heard several complaints about our narrow, curved roads, wrecks have been limited and no serious injuries.

We hope to have better roads in the near future.

The principle crops grown by the Cove Creek farmers this year are tobacco, potatoes and corn. The have had exceptionally good markets for their beans, and are in good hopes of the tobacco market.
