Page 2

THURSDAY, OCTOBER

The Mountaineer

Published By THE WAYNESVILLE PRINTING CO. Main Street Waynesville, North Carolina The County Seat of Haywood County W. CURTIS RUSS Editor MRS. HILDA WAY GWYN Associate Editor W. Curtis Russ and Marion T. Bridges, Publishers PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Six	Months, In Haywood County
Ent Class 1879,	tered at the post office at Waynesville, N. O., as Becomd Mail Matter, as provided under the Act of March 5, November 30, 1914.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1941

Our Readers Speak

The four "Letters to the Editor" published on this page, are worthy of special mention, and certainly your time to read.

Three of the four are along constructive lines, and since the fourth is a pat on our back, we'll pass without any comment other than to say to the writer of the letter, "many thanks".

Taking the letters as we come to them:

NAMING PARK PEAKS

A timely suggestion from Frank Smathers, urging that North Carolina start a campaign to see that some of the peaks in the Park are named after famous Tar Heels.

He cites instances, showing that Tennessee "puts on pressure" to get what they want, and the results thus far have been most encouraging on the other side of the Smokies.

For the most part, Tar Heels are too modest to get out and seek such honors. However, in this instance, we feel that North Carolinians would be justified in getting what is rightfully theirs. We believe that the citizens of Tar Heelia have been just a little afraid of trampling on the toes of someone in Washington, and have appeared to be content with the "hand out of crumbs" rather than insist upon part of the cake.

The time has come when we must exert some of our feelings, and seek what is ours until we get it.

All Aboard ...

A progressive community is a working community.

Now that we have more or less let up on many things that occupied our time during the spring and summer, it seems timely that the community, and we speak of the county in general, should get behind the roads and highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce and not let up until the improvement of the road from Waynesville to Dellwood is started.

This 5-mile road has served its day. It was built when traffic was slower, and much less than today.

The road is not adequate to fill present day needs. It is dangerous, in that the curves are too sharp and the width not sufficient.

This road serves one of the most thickly populated sections of the county, and traffic To Soco Gap and up to Black Camp Gap add to the overload.

All of us working behind the capable committee can get a better road to Dellwood. We should mark this a "must" project, and get in behind it right away.

A Good Beginning

Haywood County is fortunate in having a man that is so capable of organizing and York Times, and his tribute to the executing far-sighted plans for large scale influence of the country weekly developments that when Western North appears in his book, "The Great Carolina civic leaders met and looked for a Tradition", published recently by chairman of such a working committee they Doubleday, Doran and Company. In this book in which Mr. Strununanimously named Charles E. Ray. sky examines the forces that have

It is with a certain degree of sympathy made America, he devotes one that we congratulate Mr. Ray, because we chapter to the press. After dishave an idea of the personal sacrifices he cussing the circulation of daily will have to make in order to serve thi section of the state on which he is so thor-states that in this nation of 30 oughly "sold".

This little tinge of sympathy is offset by ily each month reads 40 daily the gratification we have in calling Mr. Ray papers and magazines and five newspapers, nine weekly news-"our own". monthly magazines. Then he adds Haywood is fortunate in having a man so these significant paragraphs: capable, and a man who will do this all im-portant job. And we know that in appre-ciation of what he has already done, and will continue to do that the sitison of this appre-do the set of the set continue to do, that the citizens of this coun- manent ideas of the American ty will rally at his call when he needs them people? . . . Instinctively, when for furthering the cause of making Western we think of the power of the press North Carolina a better place to live-and always hot from the griddle, alit is to that end that he is giving of his ways bringing the latest bulletins -the latest victory or disaster, the time, energy and money.

The Asheville Oitizen gave a general out- latest reassuring communication, the line of the work of this group in this edi-sidewalk cafe snatches the newstorial:

Whatever additional advantages Western North Carolina may anticipate from the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, or on Parliament or on the conthese cannot be fully realized unless there vention hall-it is a familiar symis a liberal expenditure of the region's own bol of the power of the press which may be as faithful to the facts as energies. Federal and State cooperation most symbols are. But whatever

HERE and THERE By HILDA WAY GWYN

Isn't it funny how a little thing nal" . . . dated November, 1890 an get one competely down . . . whereas a real potential tragedy "Fashions, Fancy Work, Family at once ascertain its p an be faced with perfect calm- Reading, and etc., etc." . . . (it sity, and if found and and weekly newspapers and weekness . . . now take the case of was rather a relief to learn that will inaugurate a m Mrs. Ruth Craig of the Personality the publishers did not employ krieg to bring about the y and monthly magazines, he Beauty Shop . . . and one of her traveling agents) . . . we wonder sults. million families, the average famassociates . . . Blanche Medford if advertisements and stories in they were as composed as a current magazines will be as fun-May morn . . . when the shop was ny 50 years hence as those found in danger during the fire of last in this publication 51 years ago week . . . but a few days before they went all to pieces over . . . tragedy . . . we were much intrigued well, we are getting ahead of our over a sentence in a stirring story do People want to three story . . . it was past closing time entitled "A Breath of Scandal" . you know how accommodating . . . we judged a widow must have hey are about doing work after been somewhat forward for her hours for the business girls . . . time . . . "a vision of splendor, Blanche was trying to finish the with a few sprays of lilac about her "Horse and Buggy Doctor" . . dress, hinting faintly and quite to rest herself a bit after a hard day . . . she decided to read second year" . . . what would those chapter or two before going . . . Mrs. Craig was leaving modern widows who don't even and so Blanche offered to lock dress the part the first year? Mrs. Craig stepped out and the women were just as much up into the hall . . . and leaving concerned about being fat (no aid "Good-night". . . . paper from the shouting vendor and leaps without loss of time to -Blanche replied, not looking the top of a table to harangue the up from her book . . . "Good-night" crowd for a march on the Bastille . . and from down the hall there came another . . . perhaps it was an echo . . . "Good-night" . . . it . . . it sounded queer to Mrs. Craig . . . she walked back into the shop and Letters To Editor

Editor The Mountaine I am advised that Mountains Park officials nitely decided to renam the mountain peaks on Carolina side

I am further advised renaming those officials vor honoring some of guished sons of West Carolina, such as Hon, 1 ford, Hon. Sam Welch, Mr. Charles Webb and exerted an active inte acquisition of the park stages) provided, how there is a definite and demand therefor by the the "informed public." I am also advised the yet too late to prevail park officials to extend aries of the park to in Balsam and other near provided also, there is demand by an inform ined and united public, vided further that the the lands are wise and ited enought to reduce a up the price of the lan I am also advised th son Tennessee has r best of the bargain on enterprise is because nesseeans made it a first importance to in desires and demands (officials by an intellipropaganda supplement litical, radio and grou In other words, they k 'turn on the heat" by ilization of public s support All of this hearsay an information I pass on Editor, in the hope the

FRANK SM.

Editor of The Mountai . . . romance seemed to run to May I suggest a "Voice of the Peo your their streets?" I have ged, filthy, ignorant fo all sorts of trash on and roads, and I have ful girls and intellec doing the same thing. Mind you, I would successfully at widowhood in its asking them not to a might be impolite. Th adies of 51 years ago think of a very free, exceptiona country and may do bout it. I just want why-see? I have own mind for a reaso wonder with the waist lines they sort of reason-but car tried to keep) . . . for we found any. Surely all your four impressive and convincing put together could find ads on the subject . . . and we or perhaps the "trash want you to know that corsets themselves wight be were really objects of torture in swer! I am curious t those days . . . yet from one ad we what-if anything-is would judge that there must have minds. sounded queer to Mrs. Craig . . . been some sentiment even then in body for spitting, and said . . . "Blanche, I am going to say 'good-night' again, and I want

TRASH ON THE STREETS

Mrs. W. T. Crawford is concerned about the increase of trash on the streets, and feels that something should be done about it.

Certainly no town can expect to be called beautiful, such as Waynesville in the past has acquired as a title.

Mrs. Crawford asks why people want to throw trash on the streets. We are frank to say we cannot answer the question, but feel that it is lack of civic pride and proper respect for their community which enables them to continue such an uncalled practice.

We feel, Mrs. Crawford, that you are right in appealing to the younger generation to take pride and interest in their community. However, the example set by the older people will have a bad influence on the young folks.

The town officials certainly mastered the traffic situation in Waynesville, and that, it seems, is your only hope. A town ordinance, and officers empowered to make arrests. People for the most part are afraid of the fourth and fifth floor of the court house.

NO CARNIVALS NEEDED

R. P. McCracken in his interesting letter, gives the history of Haywood's big fairs of years ago, and points out that the fair thrived until outside attractions were brought in.

The writer pointed out, that with the outside attractions, the purpose of the fair was lost, and interest in the fair waned until until it was just the carnivals and midway. This newspaper feels that it is a foregone conclusion that carnivals have no place in Haywood, and that the experience of past promoters of fairs and livestock shows in Haywood will be heeded, and that the Livestock and Home Arts Show will continue from year to year as an educational feature, and continue on the same scope as at present.

The Mountaineer again urges all our readers to read these letters to the editor carefully. They are well worth your time.

should be available in abundance, yet the may have been true of the coffee say 'good-night' again, and I want initiative will rest always with the enlighten- houses of Queen Anne, when Eng- you to do the same" . . . Blanche ed leadership of the mountain section.

For this reason the organization of a of the French revolution, or the hear the "echo") . . . Mrs. Craig Western North Carolina committee to pro- cafe politicians of Europe since said, "Good-night" ... and Blanche mote the Park as well as the Blue Ridge then, the picture does not hold good answered . . . Parkway is a farsighted step toward more for this country. With us the shaping of public energetic local participation. Though the opinion is less the work of city title, "North Carolina Committee to Aid in gossipers in a club or a back room the Development of the Great Smoky Moun- than of half a dozen rural debaters tains National Park may seem somewhat at the general store or in the local garage. With us the small-town unwieldly, it is an accurate description of and country newspaper, which is the motive and of the task, which will be most often a weekly journal, is ment. to the very fact that it is a small-The Committee personnel has been chosen town rural press. As late as the terious "good night" with care. Men who not only are competent 1930 census, 51 per cent of the learn that the room had recently but representative of the communities concerned as well will assume most of the re- 8,000 inhabitants; but this small sponsibility for the development program. advantage of 2 per cent does not In the designation of Charles E. Ray, Jr., really measure the weight which Waynesville, as chairman, Percy B. Ferebee, can people carries in the life of the non-urban half of the Ameriof Andrews, as vice-chairman and George the nation.

M. Stephens, of Asheville, as secretary-trea- In these small towns and farm surer, the committee has placed itself under homes the ratio of native-born is the guidance of an eminently capable group much higher than the cities. The ratio of old-stock population is of officers. much higher; and it is still a fact

With such an auspicious start, the de- of prime importance for the realisvelopment committee cannot fail to achieve tic observer that the American of some considerable measure of success for its ful force, man for man, than the goal of providing a greater participation American of later origin. Counfor Western North Carolina in the Great try journalism, in addressing it-Smoky Park. Needless to say, Asheville and self to this better entrenched and the other communities which stand to gain the American people, has right at more highly privileged section of from its activities will afford the Commit- the start a selective advantage tee the most enthusiastic support and co- over the urban daily press. To this we may add the priori operation.

Power Of the Press

This is National Newspaper Week.

Naturally one would surmise that any editor would write a masterful editorial on the "Freedom of the Press".

We have editorials and articles on that and other 'subjects appearing in the second section of today's issue, where we have grouped all that matter.

home a point more effectively than In this column, however, we have a guest writer, so to speak—an editorial writer by the same point in the course of a the name of Simeon Strunsky of The New week to a metropolitan audience.

lish journalism first became a quite mystified agreed argument that a weekly newspaper which is read and absorbed in the seclusion and comparative leisure of the small town or the farm is likely to exercise a greater pull on its reader than the average copy of the metropolitan daily paper, crammed with a bewildering array of reading matter and consumed amid the distractions of urban life. Psychologically, it is a sound contention that a single copy of a weekly newspaper slowly

beorbed may succeed in driving

(she nower, or the militant newspapers was deep in her book and did not "Good-night" and down the hall there came the third "Good-night" Blanche tossed her book aside and came out of the shop . . . she and Mrs. Craig went stealthily in the direction of the last sound . . . and as they neared a door . . . they heard distinctly "Get away from that door" . . . in terror they fled . . and in one grand hurry tumbled the hair in curl with 'Frizzette' no less lengthy in expectation of achieve- more influential than the daily down the steps . . . and Blanche press. Primarily this would be due rushed into the Boyd Furniture store to find out about the mys-. . , only to

> If you would like to be amused . . ask R. V. Erk to show you a ted garment advertised . . . and described as "support without pressure" . . . (it must have been a forerunner of the modern sleek lastic step-in) . . . don't you know hat ad read invitingly to many a straight laced dame back 50 years ago . . .

, an illustrated magazine . .

"Latest Triumph of Electric Science . . . (which evidently concerned the men as well as the ladies) . . . "Electric Hair Curler . . by its aid . . . the hair, beard or mustache can be curled . . . Keep

. . and Pills . . . they appear to have been a cure for anything that happened to be the matter with you . . . "Complexion pills"

'riental Pills" . . . a boom to the Rich and Poor alike . . . can be secured throughout the world . . the famous Beecham's pills . . . one d we haven't quite figured out . .

The Chic Dress Suspender" . . copy of "The Young Ladies Jour- nothing can be seen of the sus-whole cities littered could actually travel m seeing a scrap of pape And now that our

I have been told that present European war roads.

highways are to be you think, my dear that the "trash thrower them up too ?! Hopefully

MRS. W. T. CR.

Editor The Mountains I feel like I owe ! least an expression of appreciation fof the hibition of livestock (Continued on P pender from the outs does not interfere with and is quite indepen placquet . . . entirely worked from the out double sets . . . 150 like a zipper) . . .

turned out to be some traption underneath a helped a lady lift he the proper height . displaying even her an another ad on the same was headed "Drat that and for the sum of 12 d could obtain "The Fan Dress Lifter" . . . and ed in quick review it slacks . . . and skirt from the floor . agers" with elastic lines . . . and we h of relief . . .

Along with other from this section we been more raspberry berry jam "carried | tourists than in any P son . . . Mrs. Rung the Greentree Tes Ro Marley at Oak Park . Francis . . . Mrs. He . . . Mrs. Shuford Ho the American Fruit Sh in fact at most of stores . . . and apre Mrs. McGraw at the "gone places" . . than three years she 2,000 to visitors . to show that if you d duce something the world will find a door