FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
"On Being Christian in a Time Like This," will be the theme discussed by Rev. J. C. Madison in the morning service at the First Methodist church. What are the implications of the Christian gospel for an individual living in a world overrun by hate, and a citizen of a nation about to plunge into war again? This and other similar questions must be faced by the Christian conscience today.

Other services of the day will be Sunday school at 9:45, young people's league at 6:30 and the evening worship at 7:30. The subject of the evening message will be, "From Whence Cometh Help?"

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. H. G. Hammet, Pastor.
Sunday, November 9, 1941.
Sinful man has always been puzzled as to how he may throw off the nature of sin with its guilt and shame. This brings the need of some change within. The Sunday school lesson for Bible study at 9:45 a. m. answers this problem with the subject "The Necessity of Repentance."

At the morning worship at 11:00 the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Eternity of Christian Stewardship." At the evening worship at 7:30 the annual Church Stewardship program. This dy-

Large Number Attend Baptist Mission Week

"Mission Emphasis Week" now being observed by the First Baptist church here opened on Monday evening with 175 present and with prospects for continued large attendance throughout the five-day period.

The discussions on missionary adventures are being led by the Rev. J. Alex Herring, native, and now serving as missionary in China. In connection with the talks on missions, movies are to be shown each night, showing pictures of the places and conditions under discussion of Southern Baptist work in China, Japan, Europe, Brazil and Africa.

During the first part of the evening from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock study courses are held as follows: Adults, taught by Miss Myrtle Zentmeyer, of Raleigh, on "The Word Overcoming the World;" young people, with Rev. H. G. Hammett, teacher, on "Frontiers for Christian Youth;" intermediates, taught by J. C. Brown, on "World Airways for the King."

Miss Margaret Terrell and Mrs. H. G. Hammett are instructing the juniors on "By Clipper Plane and Stratoliner." Mrs. Jack Messer and Miss Eula Patterson are in charge of the primary groups studying "The World Friendship Room."

Saunook News
By Mrs. Claude Hill

Every one seems to have enjoyed the Halloween party given Friday night by the PTA. The prizes awarded the ugliest man went to Claude Hill, Sr., a beautiful cake. Shouts of laughter went up when the cake awarded the prettiest girl was handed to Earl McCracken, alias Daisy McCracken. He was dressed in blue silk with white accessories, high heel shoes, and wore glasses, a kerchief tied over his curls with the exact amount of make up made a lovely girl introduced as Daisy McCracken. The prizes awarded the tackiest dressed girl and man went to June Rider and Vaughn Rhinehart.

Farmer Rogers has moved his family to Newport News where he is going into the garage business. His father, Harrison Rogers, has also joined his family at Newport News.

Mary Ruth McElroy was the week-end guest of her grandfather, Grover Swayngin.

Charlie Smathers was called from Boone where he has charge of the State fish hatchery, to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Georgian Smathers, who is very ill at this time.

The writer has visited our school's lunch room on several occasions and am really proud of our good clean cooks. The food looked delicious and smelled oh so good. Miss June Rider, Mrs. Tom Edwards, Mrs. Dewey Arrington are our cooks, Miss June the head cook. They are good workers and very efficient, although the room is small and the stove not all we wish for.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses and the beautiful flowers sent during the illness and death of our wife and mother.
