

Is Honored With Miscellaneous Shower

Roy Swanger honored Mrs. Swanger, the former Miss Swanger, with a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hendricks. The entertainment consisted of a dinner, assisted in serving by Mrs. Bryan Ball, Mrs. Floyd ...

Party Given Roberta Smith

Roberta Smith, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Smith, of ... celebrated her tenth anniversary on Wednesday at the home of her parents. The party was given by ...

Leonard Leatherwood returned from Louisville, Ky., where she has been a few days with her husband who is stationed at Fort ...

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barr left Thursday for Fairmont, Minn., where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Merry, for a fortnight or more.

I. E. Verbal, county sanitarian, spent the week-end in Statesville with friends.

First Baptists To Hold Annual Stewardship Meet

The annual stewardship meeting of the First Baptist church will be held at 7:30 Sunday evening, the 9th, instead of the regular Sunday evening service. The meeting is sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society and the junior organizations, including a playlet by the Sunbeams, numbers by the Junior R. A., the Intermediate G. A., the YWA, and stewardship declarations by the Intermediate R. A.

All members of the congregation and the public are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Lillie Walls Swan, of Asheville, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walls.

Dr. J. W. McKay spent a few days in Atlanta last week. While there he attended the Georgia Tech-Duke football game on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitener Prevost and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost were among those attending the Duke-Tech game in Atlanta on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Drama Lampkin, who is now located in Raleigh, is the guest of her family here this week.

Woodrow Burnett, of the Bethel section, who has spent the past two months in Hamilton, Ohio, where he has been employed, returned home this week.

Mrs. Sam McElroy, of Lake Junaluska, returned on Thursday from Norfolk, where she has been visiting Mr. McElroy and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McElroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pressley, their children and the former's mother were the guests on Sunday of Mrs. Addie Proffitt, at the home of Robt. McLean. Mrs. Pressley is the daughter of Mrs. Proffitt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barr left Thursday for Fairmont, Minn., where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Merry, for a fortnight or more.

I. E. Verbal, county sanitarian, spent the week-end in Statesville with friends.

Miss Josephine Cabe spent the week-end with friends in Atlanta.

Miss Josephine Cabe spent the week-end with friends in Atlanta.

Miss Josephine Cabe spent the week-end with friends in Atlanta.

Mrs. Paul Young Gives Party for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Paul Young was hostess of a miscellaneous shower at her home last Friday evening honoring Miss Pauline Ray whose wedding will take place this month. Games were enjoyed by the guests and the honor guest received many lovely gifts.

The guest list included: Mrs. Fern Parris, Mrs. T. L. McHone, Mrs. Joe Young, Mrs. Earl Thomson, Mrs. Kin Miller, Mrs. Roy Ray, Mrs. Floyd Miller, Miss Thelma Ray, Mrs. Clarence Bharan, Miss Ora Rogers, and Miss Mildred Ray.

Mrs. Joe Liner Gives Party for Young Son

Mrs. Joe Liner entertained a group of children on Friday for her young son, Joe Liner, Jr. Halloween decorations were used throughout the home. Various games were enjoyed by the youthful guests.

Among those present were: Agnes Jane Roberson, Betty Liner, Eileen Geringer, Mary Lou Geringer, Florie Patrick, Ann Hardin, Nancy Horton, Dorothy Grahl, Gale Woodard, Johnny Edwards, Doug Moore, Stuart Roberson, Johnny Calhoun, Zack Massey, Jr., Galen Purcell, Teddy Purcell, Bob Purcell, Keith Leatherwood, Mike Leatherwood, Tommy Leatherwood, Stanley and Tommy Massie, Lamar Hammett, Charles Bridges, Dicky Boyd, Charles Frady, and Wilburn Davis.

Mrs. Jeff Garrett, the former Miss Lucile Blackwell, left Thursday for her home in Reidsville, after spending a fortnight here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.

Mrs. D. J. Smith, of China Grove, spent the past week in town the guest of her daughter, Miss Mary Margaret Smith at her home in the Massie apartments.

Mrs. James W. Summers, who spent several days in town during the past week, left Thursday for Kingsport, Tenn., where she has accepted a position in the city library there.

Jack Elwood, of Canton, Ohio, arrived Saturday to join Mrs. Elwood here for a brief visit. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood are leaving this morning for Canton, where they will spend the winter. En route they will stop in Washington, D. C., for a visit with the latter's sister, Miss Amelia MacFayden.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Williams and daughter, Mildred Aleen, have returned to their home in Noblesville, Ind., after spending several days with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Seawell spent the week-end in Atlanta as the guests of relatives. Leon Campbell, of Biltmore, is visiting his parents, Mr. and W. J. Campbell, this week.

Mrs. H. L. MacFayden and Miss Louise MacFayden are leaving today for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the greater part of the winter with the former's daughter, Miss Amelia MacFayden, who resides in the capital.

Mrs. John Shackford, of Rock Hill, S. C., is visiting relatives in town. Sgt. Roe Hill, of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Dave Schulhofer and Mrs. W. R. Morgan who have been residing the past several months with Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Schulhofer, left Sunday for Aiken, S. C., where they will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Schulhofer.

Mrs. Winfred Phillips and small daughter, June, and Mrs. Nathan Phillips left Sunday for Newport News, Va. Mrs. Winfred Phillips plans to join Mr. Phillips who holds a position there and Mrs. Nathan Phillips plans an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Powers and son, Roy, of Biltmore, spent Sunday with Mrs. T. L. McHone and Mrs. Rufus Clark in Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Compton and son, Joe attended the Georgia Tech-Duke football game in Atlanta Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. Kates and small daughter, Jo Ann, of Marion, spent last week here as the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Schulhofer.

Miss Mary Guernsey and Mrs. Ward have left town after spending the summer here at the home of the former on Welch street and are now at home in Orlando for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Massie spent the week-end in Atlanta, where they went to attend the Duke-Tech football game on Saturday.

Christian Jew Preaches Here Sunday Night

Rev. E. S. Davidson, son of a Synagogue ruler, whose conversion runs like a modern parallel to the Apostle Paul, will preach at the Presbyterian church here at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. He will have as his subject "The Jewish Problem and it's Only Solution."

Bethel School Clubs Give Party During Week

The journalism and dramatic clubs of the Bethel high school were hosts during the week of a party. A number of interesting games were enjoyed. In addition to the two clubs there were present the following: Mrs. Pless, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Chambers, Mr. Whitesides, Mr. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Francis.

J. W. Killian, Local Sportsman Enjoys Week Of Hunting In S. C.

J. W. Killian, well known local sportsman, was the guest last week of W. H. Marvin at his home in Yamassee, S. C., on a hunting trip. Mr. Killian, who took with him his twelve dogs, stated that his host has eight, and that in all his experience he had never had a more enjoyable or exciting hunting trip.

Lester Burgin, Jr., student at Mars Hill College, spent the week-end here with his parents. He had with him as his guest a class mate from the college.

Richard Bradley, Jr., student at Davidson College, spent the week-end in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley.

Mrs. Harry Frehn, of Bristol, Tenn., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, returned on Thursday to her home.

Dr. Mack Davis spent the week-end in Atlanta as the guest of friends. Mrs. H. A. Nickolls, of Hendersonville, spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Calhoun.

Mrs. John H. Smathers left during the week for St. Petersburg, where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., and small daughter, Elizabeth Barber, have returned from Griffin, Ga., where they visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norman.

Mrs. Malcolm Williamson and her son, Malcolm, Jr., spent the week-end in Atlanta as the guests of relatives.

J. C. Brown Attend Committee Meet of N. C. Educational Group

J. C. Brown, vocational agricultural teacher in the local high school, attended a meeting of the legislative group of the North Carolina Educational Association, which was held in Chapel Hill on Saturday afternoon. He was accompanied by Mrs. Brown and J. Colvin Brown, Jr. While in that section they visited Miss Ruby Frances Brown, student at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Rev. Mr. Williamson To Address Hazelwood PTA

Hazelwood P. A. T. will hold their regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium, Tuesday night, Nov. 11th, at 7:30. Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, pastor of the Waynesville Presbyterian church, will be the guest speaker. Everyone interested in P. T. A. is invited to attend.

G. A. GROUP TO MEET

The G. A.'s of the Hazelwood Baptist church will meet with Polly Ann Gibbs Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th, at 6:30 o'clock.

Allen's Creek News

By Clarence Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Putman and son, Billy, of Swannanoa, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Murd Putman.

There were quite a few witches, ghosts and goblins out Friday night and they all seemed to be having a fine time. They were very well behaved and Saturday morning showed no signs of their mischief.

Mrs. H. G. Hammett, of Waynesville, visited the Allen's Creek church Sunday and gave some enlightening details as to the helpfulness of a W. M. U. to the church. She will return Wednesday afternoon to help with the organization of the union.

Allen's Creek Sunday school is the largest it has been in the history of the church. There has been an average attendance of 237 for the past two months. The highest being 261, the lowest 221.

Our pastor, Rev. W. L. Sorrells, delivered an interesting sermon last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. His subject was "The Church Covenant." After which opportunity was given for new members. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scruggs joined at this time.

Rocky Branch church, which is our nearest sister church, has just organized a B. T. U. Our adult union gave a demonstration program at their church Sunday night.

DEATHS

MRS. JULIA LANDS

Last rites were conducted yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Rocky Branch Baptist church for Mrs. Julia Scruggs Lands, 68, widow of the late Pink Lands, who died at the Haywood County Hospital on Tuesday at 7 a. m. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Lands was a native of Blairsville, Ga. She is survived by the following: five daughters, Mrs. Pearl Jones and Miss Pauline Lands, both of Greenville, S. C., Miss Beulah Lands, of Waynesville, Mrs. Pennie Balentine, of Bridgeton, N. J., and Miss Modenia Lands Lincoln, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C.; four brothers, Knox Scruggs, of Denmore, Fla., Allen Scruggs, of Chatsworth, Ga., Fred Scruggs, of Blairsville, Ga., and Will Scruggs, of Canton, Ga. and three grandchildren.

MRS. WILLIAM D YOUNG

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence on Short street for Mrs. Tintie Freeman Young, 87, widow of the late William D. Young, who died on Tuesday at her residence here. The Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by the Rev. J. Clay Madison, pastor of the Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in Greenhill cemetery.

The following will serve as pallbearers: David Underwood, J. Turner Russell, Henry Gaddy, Cling Ensey, W. C. Medford, and Linwood Grahl. Granddaughters will have charge of the flowers.

Mrs. Young was a native of Haywood county. She is survived by one son, Edward Young, and three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Haney, Mrs. W. F. Strange, and Mrs. Kin Miller, all of Waynesville; one sister, Mrs. Harriet Franklin, of Huntington, West Va.; and 14 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

JOHN WILLIAM MESSER

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Moody cemetery for John William Messer, who died at the Haywood County Hospital on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The Rev. Ellis Arrington officiated. Burial was in the Moody cemetery. Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Mr. Messer was a native of this county and was born on Feb. 28, 1855, the son of Manuel and Sarah Burgess Messer. His late wife was the former Linda Hunter. Surviving are three sons, George Messer, of Route 2, Waynesville, Holland Messer, of Lake Junaluska, and James Messer, of Hazelwood; four daughters, Mrs. Charles Mc Donald, of Hazelwood, Mrs. Epey Beck, of Clyde, route 1, Mrs. Davis Rockardmer, of Waynesville, route 2, and Mrs. Jerry Gaddy, of Way-

Fines Creek News

Mrs. D. N. Rathbone. Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Clark were given a miscellaneous shower at their home Saturday night by Mrs. Roy Queen. Many of their friends were present. They received some lovely and useful gifts.

The members of Laurel Hill Methodist church wish to thank those who donated and help make it possible for the ceiling to be purchased for the church. We hope that the work will continue to progress rapidly and the church soon be finished.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joe Shackford, who have been residing in Fines Creek for the past year, where the former has been pastor of the Fines Creek charges, has left for Winston-Salem. Rev. Shackford will be pastor of a church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark, of Virginia, spent last week with friends on Fines Creek. Mr. Clark returned to his work on Monday, but Mrs. Clark will remain for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. West.

John Rathbone, son of Mrs. Dola Rathbone, leaves Friday for Fort Bragg. Mr. Rathbone is a volunteer in the U. S. Army.

Gerald Mooney, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mooney, will be leaving soon for the navy, which he joined as a volunteer.

The woman's missionary meeting of Christian Service will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Rogers for their next meeting, at lower Fines Creek.

nesville; two brothers, James Messer, of Waynesville route 2, and Joe Messer, of Hendersonville; one sister, Mrs. Joe Hunter, of White Oak, and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

MRS. MATTIE YARBOR-ROUGH

Funeral services will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the home on Cove Creek for Mrs. Mattie Yarbrough, 75, wife of Tom Yarbrough, who died at 1:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at her residence. The Rev. Forrest Ferguson and the Rev. Doyle Miller will officiate. Burial will be in the family cemetery on Cove Creek. Mrs. Yarbrough is a native of Haywood county and was born in 1868. Surviving are: two sons, William E. Yarbrough, of Cove Creek, and Harley C. Yarbrough, of Candler, route 2; five daughters, Mrs. Zennie Bennet, of Franklin, Mrs. Leona Packett, of Cove Creek, Mrs. Hermia Noland, of Everett, Wash., Mrs. Jessie Noland, of Route 1, Clyde, and Mrs. Ivy Bingham, of Candler. Eighteen grandchildren also survive.

Advertisement for C. E. Ray's Sons shoes. Features an illustration of a man in a hat and boots, and a large image of a high-top boot. Text includes: 'Your Best Bet For Medium Priced Shoes', 'BOOTS', 'It's wise to wear them! they give you comfort, protection and their longer service saves you money.', 'Ray's Store Prepared To Meet Your Boot Needs', 'Boots Are A Specialty With Us—', 'We have studied the needs of Haywood County people', 'We have carefully assembled a stock of boots for men, Women and children. We have a large selection. Our prices are attractive.', 'LOW HEIGHTS—Men's 8"—10"—12" Boots. These low boots are especially suited to meet the needs of construction men and men working around barns.', 'LACES IN DUXBAK AND OTHER MATERIALS', 'C. E. RAY'S SONS', 'See us for Overshoes—Rubber Boots—Raincoats—'

Large advertisement for 'These Waynesville Merchants Announce New Store Hours'. Text includes: 'In cooperation with labor laws, the national defense program, and the conservation of electric power, the undersigned merchants, and perhaps others, will observe the following store hours:', 'Week Days 8:30 A. M. to 6 P. M.', 'Saturdays 8:30 A. M. to 9 P. M.', 'Effective November 10th', 'Effective November 8th', 'By operating under these new hours, we feel that we can render better service at all times', 'The Food Store', 'Eagle 5 and 10', 'Harold's Dept.', 'Dixie Store', 'A. and P.', 'Reliable Jewelers', 'Stovall's 5 and 10', 'Massie's Dept. Store', 'Belk-Hudson Co.', 'The Toggery', 'C. E. Ray's Sons'