

NEWS REPORTS AT FT. JACKSON

By Bobby Sloan.

I am fond of gadgets, particularly doo-hickies, with neon lighting and colored plastics and so after a wild ride through the late afternoon and night, when I found haven in what looked to be the latest in streamlined buses at the Terminal at Gastonia, I considered my troubles over. I was a bit previous! Campfires, rainy night, muddy walks, cold bumpy rides were in the past—far away in the background, with a ticket to Waynesville in my pocket who blame the self-satisfied, jaunty way—I may say smirk—which played tag with the dirt on my face.

I shall muse, thought I, of things to come. The surprise on papa's face when I walk in, the fire cheering on the games of my nephew and niece—a hot bath, clean clothes and the feel of starched sheet. Of things to come! Of a fresh Saturday morning up street mingling with all old familiar faces, in the old familiar way, walking to the barber shop, buying that overnight bag I've wanted so long and those white wool socks. I've only been able to buy at the Toggery. Of a girl and soft lights, and the music of a juke organ, of a whispered conversation over that last cigarette.

Ladies and gentlemen, at this moment the motor interrupted my pleasant stream of consciousness with a series of barks and my musings continued thusly:—

Censored
A tired and weary traveler, I arrived with the dawn Saturday and here I sit waiting for my family to arouse and greet the errant, wandering son. But I am in Waynesville and a week-end is before me, dirt and sand and cold and rain are behind me.

But the Editor doesn't pay me for such amusing twaddle, so up and at 'em.

Many thanks to "Poopy-deck" Truett. Without his help, my first-hand information would be limited. An old Mountaineer scribe himself he has and is giving me invaluable assistance.

An incident of the week was the red letter night when one of Company H found a real hayloft to sleep in—just like a featherbed—there was Jack Smith and "Big Ugly" Robinson and officially there were some more. We'll beat this here old war yet.

It looks like Company H just isn't going to have a mascot, unless Bucky Boone and Red Ruby Mathis are more careful next time they try to hide a hound dog. What about it boys, want to try again?

Toar Knight and Willie Messer spent the week-end in Columbia where they visited Bill Milner at the University of South Carolina. They saw Bill turn in a brilliant football performance... why not? He's a Company H Boy, isn't he?

Wylie Williams spent the week-end visiting friends in Gastonia.

The volley ball team was defeated in a recent contest with Company G.

Willie Messer played football with Cullowhee Saturday at Camp Croft.

That's all folks—so now I lay me, etc.—and get a little shut eye. See you Thanksgiving, I hope.

P. S. It looks now as if man-

NOTICE NORTH CAROLINA, HAYWOOD COUNTY.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT. VIOLA BROOKSHIRE, VS. ROBERT BROOKSHIRE

The defendant, Robert Brookshire, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Haywood County, North Carolina, for the purpose of securing for the plaintiff an absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of two years separation; and the said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county within thirty days after the 17th day of November, 1941, and answer or demur to the complaint filed in said action, or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This the 16th day of October, 1941. KATE WILLIAMSON, Asst. Clerk Superior Court. No. 1121—Oct. 23-30-Nov. 6-13.

2,400 pounds butter. 7,200 pounds bread. 3,600 pounds American cheese. 1,920 pounds coffee. 2,880 pounds canned cranberry sauce.

4,080 dozen eggs. 6,000 pounds flour. 20,400 pounds Irish potatoes. 7,200 pounds sweet potatoes. 1,440 pounds pumpkin. 6,240 pounds granulated sugar. 720 pounds brown sugar. 7,200 pounds fresh grapes. 2,400 pounds smoked ham. 5,760 heads of lettuce. 24,000 bottle of milk. 2,880 pounds canned micemeat. 2,880 pounds canned mincemeat. 960 quarts green olives. 1,300 pounds fresh onions. 48,000 oranges. 480 gallons oysters. 1,680 pounds assorted candies.

In addition to the royal feast, usually enhanced by the ingenuity of individual mess sergeants and cooks, soldiers will find cigars and cigarettes beside their plates. The extras are paid for out of the company fund and the savings made by units who purchase from the quartermaster... usually amounting to 2 per cent on foods.

On Thanksgiving day officers of all organizations are especially careful in their inspections of kitchens and dining rooms to make sure preparations have been properly made and that the food will be attractively served. As a rule, the mess halls are gaily decorated for the banquet and, often, special cards are printed for the occasion with the name of the soldier's unit and a Thanksgiving sentiment included with the bill-of-fare. Every effort is made on this distinctively American holiday to make the boys in khaki happy and satisfied inside and out.
