New Pastor Of Jonathan Charge Marries Sunday

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Darline Sullivan Garrison and the Rev. George Maurice Carver, of Forest City, newly appointed pastor of the Jonathan Creek charge of the Waynesville district of the Methodist church which took place at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Garrison, route 2, High Point.

Rev. O. L. Easter, pastor of the Lebanon Methodist church of High Point, officiated. Vows were spoken before an improvised altar in front of the mantel in the living room. Floor baskets of large white chrysanthemums and seven branched candelabra against a background of palms and ferns were used in forming the altar. White lilies and ferns were banked against the mantel mirror.

Billie Garrison, brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Carey J. Davis, of High Point, presided at the organ, assisted by Mrs. Marion Bodenheimer, violinist, and Miss Dorothy Hayworth, soloist. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white lace and net. The fitted bodice was fashioned of lace and net with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. The skirt was of net over satin and made in bouffant style. The finger tip length veil of illusion was caught with a cluster of orange blossoms.

Miss Margaret Garrison, only sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. She wore a sheer gown of pink modeled on simple lines, with a full floor length skirt and fitted bodice. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and carnations tied with a large bow of pink satin ribbon and in her hair she wore matching flowers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue chiffon with navy accessories and her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds.

For travel the bride wore a navy blue tailored suit with white blouse and gloves. Her shoulder corsage was detachable from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of the Wallburg high school. The bridegroom is the son of R. M. Carver and the late Mrs. Carver of Forest City. He attended Bolling Springs Junior College, Brevard College and Wofford College, and was graduate from the High Point College in the class of 1941.
