White House announced a Army contingent has been sent to co-operate with Netherlands forces in protecting mines which furnish more than 60 percent of the bauxite supply to the aluminum industry. The approval of Brazil, forces will patrol the Guianan border. The White House said the army force would be withdrawn as soon as the present passes.

FOREIGN RELATIONS
 Conference with representatives of Britain, China, Australia and the Netherlands and then representatives of Japan, the State Department announced it had prepared a plan dealing with the Far Eastern situation. The plan was based on U. S. policy previously announced. The President told his conference that for the present U. S. merchant ships in the area would not be armed.

ARMY PROGRESS
 Secretary Stimson told his conference the army "has made really wonderful progress" in its current maneuvers in the Philippines. He said reports from British in Egypt and Libya testified to the excellent performance of American equipment used there.

ACTIVE SERVICE AND THE NAVY
 Secretary Knox told his conference there has been a 10 per cent drop in navy enlistments since the torpedoings of navy ships in North Atlantic because they are no longer as willing to give their consent to some under

21. The navy needs 13,000 volunteers a month now and beginning next July will need 15,000 a month. If sufficient men do not volunteer, Mr. Knox said, the navy may have to utilize selectees.

PRIORITIES
 OPM ordered a 10 per cent cut in production by large manufacturer of various clearers for household use; a two-thirds cut in production of lead and tin foil for decorative purposes and for tobacco, chewing gum, beverages, confections, films, and similar articles. OPM also announced it will shortly institute a new priority system under which manufacturers of essential items will be allotted materials on a three-months basis in order to cut down the number of applications for priorities.

DEFENSE EXPENDITURES AND TAXES
 The Federal Reserve Board Chairman Eccles, speaking in New York, said "by the middle of next year defense expenditures will probably be running at an annual rate of $15 billion dollars above the middle of the current year. . . . Additional taxation must be imposed and further restraints (to consumers spending) must be imposed." He said he hoped "further taxation . . . will first tap the corporate excess profits and the middle and upper individual income brackets. . . . An OPM credit consultant, speaking in Chicago, said, "consumer credit control is contributing as much as the new Federal law to the battle against inflation."

The Nature and Work of the Church

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON 12-6

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Dec. 7 is Matt. 16:13-20; 18-15-20; Acts 2:37-47; 8:1; 9:31; I Cor. 7:17; 12:4-31, Gal. 1:13, 21-24; Eph. 1:15-23, 4:1-16; 5:25-27; Rev. 1:10, 11, the Golden Text being Eph. 5:25. "Christ also loved the church, and gave Himself up for it.")

UNITY IS a word we hear spoken again and again in our modern world. We must have unity in our nation, unity in family life, and to do the best work of religion we must have unity in our churches.

The word "church" is first used in the New Testament when Christ told His disciples, "on this rock I will build My church." He had asked them whom men said He was. They had answered that some thought He was John the Baptist, others that He was one of the prophets. Then He turned to them and asked "But whom say ye that I am?" And Simon Peter always ready with an answer, said "Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God."

The answer pleased Jesus, and He called Peter blessed, "for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but My Father which is in heaven."

In the 18th chapter of Matthew Jesus tells how His church is to be conducted. If a brother in the church should wrong another the one injured should first go to him privately and tell him of it. "If he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother." In other words, if he listened and atoned for his wrong doing, nothing more was to be done, of course; if not, the one injured was to take two or three of the brethren with him and try to win the man to repentance. If he still was obdurate, the church organization was to be informed, but if he refused to listen to the church, he should be outlawed from the organization. In other words, he was to be approached with all love and forbearing, and only if he was obdurate to all pleadings was he to be expelled from the fellowship.

Peter Preaches Repentance
 Another phase of the fellowship in the early church is told in Acts 2, verses 37 to 47. Peter had been speaking to the multitude and had so eloquently related the story of Jesus' life, death and resurrection, that all who heard him were much moved, and asked what they should do. Peter answered that they should repent and be baptized.

Observe Rules When Sending Greeting Cards

Definite rules govern the signing of Christmas cards, even though they are the expression of friendship and good wishes.

It is important that the cards reflect the degree of intimacy existing between the sender and the recipient. An air of formality in a card to a very good friend is as improper as an intimate greeting to a casual business acquaintance. Many persons prefer to select cards separately to find a personal subject and message for each friend. This is an ideal thing to do, but it requires considerable time.

Handwritten signatures are written different than names on formally engraved cards. When signing your name, it is best not to include titles—that is, do not put "Mr." or "Mrs." before your name. When names are engraved, however, they achieve a more formal tone and therefore require titles. Then only exception to this is the single man whose name is never preceded by a "Mr." even though it is engraved on the card.

Married couples writing informal cards to friends are faced with several special problems. There is no definite rule which tells whose name stands first, but if the names are written by hand it is better for the one who signs them to write his or her own name last. When the name is printed on the card it is immaterial whether the husband's or the wife's name comes first.

A very nice signature for a family would be, "From the George Karpas—all five." If there are only three in the family it would be equally suitable to write, "John, Mary and the Baby."

It is entirely proper to sign your name alone when sending cards to a business acquaintance whom your wife (or husband) does not know. In this case the card is addressed to the business acquaintance alone, even though he or she is married. Cards sent to a good friend, even though he is known by your husband or wife, may be signed with both your names.

Whenever doubt arises concerning the manner in which a Christmas card should be addressed or signed, use your own sense of good taste. After all, the mere fact you are sending a card is an expression of friendship, and as a result almost any errors you may make will be completely overlooked.
