

Mountaineers to Play Two Doubleheaders

The Mountaineers eaglers have a very busy schedule in line for them for the next two weeks. Starting tomorrow night at 7:30 both the boys and girl's teams of the locals will try to invade the powerful Fines Creek hardwood. On Tuesday night at 7:30 on the local floor the local eaglers will have a try at another one of their powerful rivals, the Bethel boys and girl's teams. Both Fines Creek and Bethel have always been noted for the fine basket ball teams they turn out and have won many honors.

Number Of Civil Cases Cleared In 2 Days Of Court

Max Polansky involving alleged slander, was continued to the May term.

The plaintiffs were given a verdict of recovery of $216.96 in the case of Hyatt and Company versus Erkraft Industries, which involved the delivery of 3,153 feet of cherry lumber.

In the case of M. M. Yarboroh versus James B. Towles, administrator of Jennie Towles, deceased, the defendant was required to pay the plaintiff $30 and the costs.

John D. Jones and Mrs. Dora D. Jones were granted judgment of $640.75 in the case brought against them by H. A. Osborne involving building materials.

The plaintiffs received nothing in the case of Hyatt and Company versus C. E. Mainus and wife, involving building materials alleged to have been sold them by the plaintiffs.

Late yesterday afternoon the case of Pet Dairy Products versus R. C. Thomas and Mrs. J. E. Jones came up for trial and is expected to last through today. All members of the jury outside of those serving in this case were relieved of duty until Friday morning.

has served in this capacity for the past three years.

For the past seven years he has served as moderator of the Haywood Baptist Association, and as half-time pastor of the West Canton church. He resigned that pastorate sometime ago and Rev. C. H. Green has been named as pastor.

During his three years as missionary for the Haywood association, he visited each of the churches every year, and taught various courses, and frequently consulted the pastor and layleaders on promotional work. For the past two years he has succeeded in enlisting all the churches in the missionary and benevolent work of the denomination.
