

Miss Daphne Rice And Greek Waddell Wed On Dec. 26th

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rice, of Hendersonville, who formerly resided in Hazelwood, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Daphne Rice, to Greek Waddell, of Hazelwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Waddell.

The ceremony was performed on Friday, December 26th, in Greenville, S. C.

The bride wore a blue crepe dress with British tan accessories. Mrs. Waddell is a graduate of the Hendersonville high school and now holds a position with the Ecusta Paper Corporation at Brevard.

Mr. Waddell is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school and at present holds a position with the Unagusta Manufacturing Company, of Hazelwood.

American Legion Post And Auxiliary Will Have Meeting Tonight

The Haywood post of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will hold a joint meeting tonight at the Legion home. A chicken dinner will be enjoyed, served free to those attending.

All members of the auxiliary are requested to be present since plans have been formulated for training in home nursing and first aid. Classes will be organized for the carrying on of this essential part of furthering civilian national defense.

Miss Ruth Coffey, of Carson-Newman, who spent the Christmas vacation here with her mother, has returned to resume her work for the spring term.

Miss Lura Mae Queen, student at Elon College, has returned to school after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and H. C. Green at their home on Fines Creek.

Tom Hill, who is attending Georgia Tech, has returned to resume his work after visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Charles R. Thomas, during the holidays.

Sergeant Willie Messer, who has been stationed at Fort Jackson, will leave this week for Daniels Field, Augusta, Ga., where he will join the U. S. Air Corps.

Joe Way, III, Charles and Edwin Leatherwood, and E. R. Caldwell, Jr., have returned to Wake Forest College, to resume their studies after spending the holidays here with their families.

Dr. G. M. Davis has returned from a week's visit to points in Florida.

LeRoy Davis, of Clyde, who is a student at Clemson College, has returned to resume his work.

Miss Hilda Way, who is teaching in the schools of Kannapolis, has returned to resume her work there.

Weds In Greenville

MRS. GREEK WADDELL, the former Miss Paphine Rice, of Hendersonville, whose marriage took place in Greenville, S. C., on December 26th. Mrs. Waddell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rice, of Hendersonville, who formerly resided in Hazelwood.

G. C. Ferguson To Speak At January Woman's Club Meet

Grayden C. Ferguson, city manager, will discuss "City Management" at the January meeting of the Woman's Club, which will be held on next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.

Assisting Mrs. Blackwell as hostess will be Mrs. George Bischoff, Mrs. Jack Messer, and Mrs. Felix Stovall. Mrs. J. Dale Stents will be in charge of the program.

Special guests of the afternoon will be the mayor and the town board of aldermen.

The following girls have returned to the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina after spending the holidays here with their families: Miss Corinne Alley, Miss Ruby Frances Brown, Miss Ruth Turner, Miss Jane Grace, and Miss Ethel Caldwell, and Charlene Rotha, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Martin Berry in Pleasant Valley, N. Y.

Miss Catherine Davis has returned to Lee-McRae after spending the vacation here with her family.

Jane Cooper Miller Is Married To Clinton R. Swift

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jane Cooper Miller, daughter of James Clarence Miller, of Waynesville, to Clinton Revere Swift, on Saturday, January 3rd, in the First Presbyterian church of Asheville.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. C. Grier Davis, performed the ceremony in the presence of members of the immediate families.

Mr. Swift is the son of Captain and Mrs. Charlie Swift, of Skyland.

The couple will reside at Skyland.

Lester Burgin, Jr., Bobby Plott, and Hugh Francis have returned to Mars Hill College after spending the holidays here with their families.

Miss Elizabeth Francis, assistant county home demonstration agent of Iredell county, has returned to Statesville, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Francis.

The following students have resumed their work at Western Carolina Teachers College after spending the holidays here with their families: Miss Betty Burgin, Miss Roberta Norris, Miss Alma Jackson, Miss Merrill Green, Miss Emelyn Haynes, Miss Vera Hosaflook, Sam McElroy, and Lane Arrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Massie are returning this week from Daytona Beach, where they have visited the latter's family. They have been extensively entertained during their stay in Florida.

Ben Coltick, Jr., Richard Bradley and Jack Richeson, have returned to Davidson College after spending the vacation season here with their parents.

C. E. Weatherby has returned from the eastern part of the state, where he attended the Rose Bowl game at Duke University, and visited his mother in Faison.

Miss Marion Morgan, Miss Jane Stentz, and Miss Polly Francis, students at Virginia Intermont, have returned to college for the spring term.

Mrs. Roger Walker is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Shackford in Rock Hill, S. C. She was accompanied by Mr. Walker, who returned after a brief visit.

Miss Kathryn Hill, student at Agnes Scott, has returned to her work after visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Charles R. Thomas.

Mrs. G. N. Henson and son, Bill Henson, of Forest City, arrived on Saturday to visit the former's mother, Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill. Mr. Henson has returned, but Mrs. Henson is remaining over for a more extended visit.

Mrs. Mary Moody Mebane, who is now residing in Washington, D. C., spent the Christmas holidays here with her sister, Mrs. Hugh Jolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Perry and G. N. Henson, Jr., of Gastonia, spent the week-end here with Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill.

Miss Martha Way, who teaches in Mt. Airy, left Sunday to resume her work in the city schools.

Miss Robena Miller Has Charge of UDC Chapter Program

Miss Robena Miller had as the paper of the afternoon at the January meeting of the Haywood chapter of the U. D. C. which was held with Mrs. John M. Queen as hostess on Friday. Miss Miller discussed the State of Tennessee and its contribution to the history of the Confederacy, giving sketches of the heroes. She also stated that the first meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held in the city of Nashville.

Mrs. Oliver H. Shelton gave a resume of the proposed memorial of Judah P. Benjamin in Sarasota, Florida.

Mrs. Noble Garrett was elected as third vice president to take the place of Mrs. Felix E. Alley, Jr., who is now in Florida. As third vice president, Mrs. Garrett will assume the duties as director and adult leader of the children's chapter of the Confederacy.

Plans were discussed regarding increasing the membership of the chapter, which is to be the major project for all chapters throughout the country according to Mrs. R. N. Barber, state registrar. Mrs. Barber also stated that an effort would be made during the year to bring all the inactive members of the chapter into participation of the program.

Plans were formulated to devote the next meeting to be held the first Friday in February as a memorial to the late Mrs. S. A. Jones and Mrs. E. J. Robeson, both members of the chapter, at which time their work would be reviewed. Mrs. R. N. Barber will be in charge of the program with the meeting held at the Hotel LeFaine with Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Grover C. Davis, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. John R. Hipps was a special guest. Following adjournment, a social hour was enjoyed.

Sergeant Robt. Sloan, who has spent the past ten days with his family here, has returned to Fort Jackson.

Mrs. N. C. Williams, of Hendersonville and her sister, Miss Edwina McDowell, both formerly of Waynesville, were guests here for a brief visit during the week.

Miss Alice Quinlan, who has spent the past two months as the guest of relatives in Columbus, Ohio, has returned to town and opened her home on Pigeon street.

Miss Mary Mock spent the week-end in Knoxville as the guest of friends.

Miss Marietta Love, who is located in Raleigh, has returned after spending the holidays here with her mother, Mrs. Hugh A. Love.

Miss Dorothy Richeson, student at Peace Junior College, Raleigh, returned on Monday to resume her work. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, who returned on Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Robinson and son, Bobbie, spent a few days last week with relatives in Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Obenchains and children have returned home after spending some time with the latter's parents in South Carolina.

Jim and Bill Milner, students at the University of South Carolina, have returned for the spring term, after spending the Christmas vacation with their parents on the Balsam road.

Among those attending the Rose Bowl football game from Hazelwood were: Dr. and Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. George Bischoff, Bud Blalock, Bill Milner, and Earl Scruggs.

Bill and Jim Milner had as their guest from Thursday till Sunday, Deemas Turner, a teacher from the University of South Carolina.

Those returning to college from Hazelwood after spending the holidays with their parents are: Richard Bradley, Davidson, Lester Burgin, Jr., Mars Hill, Dorothy Richeson, Peace, Kathryn Blalock, Peace, Catherine Davis, Lees McRae, Jack Richeson, Davidson, and Jim and Bill Milner, University of South Carolina.

Bride Of Prominent Physician

MRS. J. RUFUS McCRACKEN, who prior to her marriage in Greenville, S. C., on Saturday, December 20th, was Miss Alma Estelle Kee. Mrs. McCracken is supervisor of public health nurses in the district health department. She is the daughter of James Raymond Kee and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Cordell Kee, of Kings Mountain.

Edna M. Blanton And Lonzie Messer Wed In Tennessee

Mr. and Mrs. Pilgrim Blanton, of Hazelwood, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edna Marie Blanton, to Lonzie W. Messer. The marriage took place in Sevierville, Tenn., on October 12th, 1934.

The bride was attired in a navy blue gaberdine suit with matching accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Messer is a graduate of the local township high school.

Mr. Messer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Messer, of White Oak. He attended Fines Creek high school and the Cecil Business College, of Asheville.

Mr. Messer has been connected with the office of the Haywood county farm agents for the past five years, holding the position of chief clerk.

Miss Dorothy Richeson, Miss Jane Dudley Francis, Miss Catherine Blalock, Miss Catherine Jones and Miss Sarah Louise Leatherwood left Monday for Raleigh, where they are attending Peace Junior College after visiting their families during the holidays.

John Kirkpatrick, of Spartanburg, was the guest of his father and stepmother, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, on Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Hall Alley, who is now residing in Atlanta, spent the week-end in town. Mrs. Alley accompanied her daughter, Miss Mary Lee and Miss Betty Gene Alley, who had spent the holidays with her here. The latter have returned to Montreat Junior College to resume their studies.

Weaver McCracken, Jr., senior and instructor at the University of Alabama, returned to his work on Sunday after spending the holidays with his parents near Lake Junaluska.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Balentine and son will leave on Saturday for Duke Hospital where the former will be under medical observation.

Miss Louise Russell returned to Raleigh Sunday afternoon after spending the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Russell, on East street.

Mrs. O. C. Mastin, of Weedwood, Alabama, is visiting her children here, Miss Debrayda Fisher and Clyde Fisher.

Mrs. R. N. Barber To Have Paper At DAR Meet Friday

Mrs. R. N. Barber will discuss "The Japanese Situation" at the January meeting of the Dorcas Branch Love chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, which will be held with Mrs. Jimmie Boyd as her daughter, Mrs. Glenn Boyd at the home of the former on Friday afternoon. Mrs. S. Bushnell, regent, will preside.

Mrs. James M. Long will view the National Magazine. Several matters of importance are to be brought up at the meeting tomorrow and all members are especially urged to attend. The meeting will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

Methodist Society To Meet Tuesday, 13th

The regular monthly meeting of the woman's society of Christian Science will be held on Tuesday the 13th at 2:30 at the church. Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, president, will preside.

Lieut. Sara Marie Neese, of the Salvation Army at Charlotte, returned to her work Sunday after spending a few days with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. William H. Neese, at the Crabtree Methodist parsonage.

Miss Pauline and Miss Marjorie Rogers have returned to their work in Hazelwood after spending Christmas with their parents on Fines Creek. During the visit home they entertained a number of their friends.

Miss Lois Massie and Miss Frances Turner have returned to Greensboro College to resume their work after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hyatt, and Miss Louise Killiam were among those who attended the Rose Bowl game at Duke. Mr. and Mrs. Davis made a brief stop at Shelby en route where they visited the latter's parents.

Miss Stacy Wilburn, William Stringfield, Joe Davis, of Waynesville, and Dotson Palmer and Frank Cathy, of Clyde, have returned to Chapel Hill, to resume their studies after spending a fortnight here and in Clyde with their families.

Robert Cope, Jr., of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cope.

Miss Ruth Dotson, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and F. Dotson, route 2, has returned to Carson-Newman to resume her studies.

Meet Your Friends At RAY'S

AFTER VISITING Shop the Super Market Way

Good Food - Low Prices - Easy Shopping

THE GREATEST VARIETY ANYWHERE WEST OF ASHEVILLE

And Under the Same Roof CLOTHING - DRY GOODS - SHOES Practically Everything Needed

C. E. RAY'S SONS

P. S. Maybe your neighbor has never shopped the Super-Market-Way. Won't you tell her, and bring her along next time. Thanks.

SAVED SATURDAY SPECIALS

ORANGE CREAM LAYER CAKE Regular 65c 59c

Pecan Honey Buns — Chocolate Eclairs
Cheese Bread — Assorted Cookies

We Reopen Saturday, January 10th—Pay Us A Visit

WAYNESVILLE BAKERY
Church Street Phone 73-W

SALE

LADIES' & GIRLS' All Winter HATS

The Season's Biggest Millinery Bargain

1-2 Price

With months of cold weather ahead here is an opportunity to Dress and Save

Winter DRESSES COATS SUITS 1-2 PRICE

Save on warm clothing for the children A GOOD SELECTION OF SNOW-SUITS REDUCED to $2.95

SLIPS $1
Regular $1.29 Seller For Only

BELK-HUDSON
"The Home Of Better Values"