President's Ball Attended By More Than 500

More than five hundred persons attended the ball at the Waynesville Armory on Friday given in honor of the President's birthday anniversary. Sam Queen and his famous Soco Gap Dance Team directed the features of the evening. The local unit of the State Guard assisted in receiving the guests.

The affair was both a social and financial success. Mrs. Doyle Alley, general chairman, stated yesterday that all ticket committee chairmen had not as yet handed in their reports so that a total of the sale of tickets could not be given at this time.

Patriotic colors were used to decorate the Armory, with flags placed advantageously about the spacious building.

A number of persons from adjoining counties were present for the affair, as well as representatives from every section of Haywood County.

One specialty feature of the evening was the exhibition number given by the Soco Gap Dance Team, with their leader Sam Queen calling the figures.

Both round and square dancing was enjoyed. A number of well known local people also gave exhibitions of mountain clogging.

Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Crockett have as their guests their daughter, Mrs. M. H. Mims, and baby, Julian L. Mims, of Edgefield, S. C. Mrs. Mims plans to spend several weeks with her parents in Hazelwood.
