

Broadway Reception for United Nations Heroes

Fifteen United Nations air heroes were showered with ticker tape as they drove up Broadway, from the Battery to New York's City Hall. There the veterans of Pearl Harbor, Java, Corregidor and Libya were received by Mayor LaGuardia, Bernard Baruch and Wendell Willkie. At night they were honored by more than 20,000 people at a rally in Madison Square Garden. (Central Press)

Jap Prisoner in Australia

Accompanied by a Scotland Yard sergeant, a maid and a valet, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are shown being greeted on their arrival in Washington on their first official visit as Governor and First Lady of the Bahamas. Left to right, are: Sir R. I. Campbell, British Minister; H. O. Clare 3rd, Secretary of the British Embassy; The Duchess of Windsor and the Duke.

Writing to Adopted Soldiers

More than two hundred children who attend St. Michael's Parochial School in Chicago have adopted U. S. soldiers for the duration of the war. They pray for the troops and write to them regularly just as the three youngsters in the foreground above are doing. Left to right, they are: Mary Ann Kelbus, Anna Mae Zvonek and Paul Stahulak.

Speaks at Graduation

Pictured addressing the graduating class at West Point is Gen. George C. Marshall, U. S. Army Chief of Staff. He predicted that American soldiers will again land in France and said that the strength of the U. S. Army will reach 4,500,000 by the end of the year.

Painting Miles on Old Tires

John Lange, is shown painting synthetic rubber liquid on an old tire at Trenton, N. J. Any number of coats of this new liquid may be applied to a smooth surface tire, each coat to be put on after the previous covering has dried. After it has dried, it is claimed that it will stand up well and give satisfactory additional mileage. (Central Press)

Leathernecks Land in Ireland

Where there's a fight you'll find the leathernecks. United States marines, in full war kit and wearing new type combat helmets, are headed for their encampment somewhere in North Ireland after landing from one of the transports which carried the largest AEF contingent to cross the Atlantic in this war.

Enlist as 'Pearl Harbor Avengers'

C. P. Phonphoto

In the biggest mass enlistment in U. S. naval history, 12,326 were sworn into the Navy, Coast Guard and Marines as "Avengers of Pearl Harbor." Rear Admiral Randall Jacobs is shown in the Nation's capital administering the oath of allegiance to navy volunteers on the left. Waiting to take the oath are volunteers of the Coast Guard (center), and volunteers of the Marine Corps (right).

A Third Lieutenant

Roberto Lim is the only third lieutenant in the United States, an established rank in the Philippine Army. He graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis last December, but could not return to his homeland because of the war. Lim joined the army and is attached to the First Filipino Infantry Battalion now training at Camp San Luis Obispo. He is the son of Gen. Vicente Lim, a hero of Bataan.

A Heel Missing

Can you imagine the conversation between the pretty toes of model Choo Choo Johnson as they step along. Say the right toes to the left: "Don't look now—but I think we're being followed by a couple of heels." Choo Choo is setting a new style for milady's footwear by pasting pictures of Hitler and Mussolini on her heels. There's no room for Hirohito.

The Aging Duce

Since he has been relegated to a back seat in the Axis, Mussolini finds time heavy on his hands. One of the few official acts he still continues to carry out is the decoration of war widows whose husbands lost their lives in fighting for the Duce's shattered dream of an Italian empire. Note how the once physically-powerful Mussolini has softened and fattened up. The photographs, passed by British censors, were received from an enemy source. (Central Press)

Wife Preservers

If a member of the family has a cold, dishes used by him or her should be boiled before washing to prevent the spread of the disease carrying bacteria.

New Sub Slides Down the Ways

More trouble is in store for the Axis as this U. S. sub is launched at a shipyard somewhere along the east coast. The new underwater fighter was christened the Gurnard by Suzanne Slingluff, daughter of Commander Frank Slingluff, U. S. N. retired. After a shakedown cruise the sub will be ready to take its toll of Axis shipping.

World's Largest Flying Ship Wins Design Award

C. P. Phonphoto

This is the first picture released of Glenn L. Martin's design for a 250,000 pound flying ship. It was for this design that Glenn L. Martin won the American design award. The new ship will be able to carry 102 passengers, 80 lbs. of luggage for each passenger, plus 25,000 pounds of mail and cargo to London in 13 hours.

U. S. Army Signal Corps Photo

Here's a scene that is more than common at almost every embarkation point in the U. S. While Johnny Doughboy kisses his best girl good-bye, his dog sits up and cocks an annoyed eye at the whole proceeding. He can remember when Johnny had lots of time for him, but ever since she came along things certainly haven't been the same.
