

Caroline Dillard Is Married To Rev. G. W. Bennett

Miss Caroline Patton Dillard, daughter of Mrs. O. S. Dillard, of Candler and the late Professor Dillard, became the bride of the Rev. George Willis Bennett, son of Mrs. J. C. Bennett, of Candler, in a ceremony at the home of the bride's mother at 5 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Nane Starnes, pastor of the West Asheville Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the families and a few close friends.

The room in which the ceremony was performed was decorated with evergreens placed against the large rock fireplace before which the vows were spoken. Candelabra and large baskets of white gladioli and larkspur were used on either side of the fireplace.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Robert Barnes, sister of the bridegroom. Selections included "Liebstraum" by Liszt and "Traumerei" by Schubert. Miss Nell Parsons sang "Because" by Guy d'Hardelot and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used and during the ceremony Mrs. Barnes played "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

Miss Jane Dillard was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a dress of pink and white printed sheer and her bouquet was of a nosegay of roses.

The bride and bridegroom entered the room together. The bride wore a pastel blue crepe ensemble with matching blue hat with a navy shadow veil and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids.

The ceremony was followed by a small informal reception. The table was covered with a handsome lace cloth and centered by a three tier cake.

Immediately after the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina of the class of 1941. While there she was circulation manager of the college paper and a member of the Altheian society. For the past several months she has made her home here, where she holds a position with the First National Bank.

The bridegroom was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1941. He was active in debating, being a member of the Wake Forest College debating squad and was a member of the Pi Kapp Delta fraternity. He has been pastor of Chunn's Cove Baptist church for the past year.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Miss Muriel Greig, of Newark, N. J., and Miss Leida Beshears, of Franklin, former classmates of the bride.

O. R. Martin, who is now located at Otto, spent the week-end in town with his family.

Engagement Announced

MISS CORINNE ALLEY, whose engagement to Leon Marcus Killian, Jr., of Newport News, Va., and Waynesville, has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Doyle Davis Alley. Mr. Killian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Killian, of Waynesville. The marriage will take place in August, the date to be announced later.

Mrs. D. D. Alley Announces Engagement Of Her Daughter

Mrs. Doyle Davis Alley has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Corinne Alley, to Leon Marcus Killian, Jr. The wedding will take place sometime in August, the date to be announced later.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Doyle D. Alley, prominent local attorney and one time president of Young Democratic clubs of the state. She is a graduate of the local high school and for the past two years has been a student at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Killian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Killian, of Waynesville, and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mark Killian. He is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school and later was a student at the Blue Ridge School for Boys and McCallie's. He has taken special work at the Bliss Electrical Engineering college of Washington, D. C.

He holds a position in the electrical department of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, of Newport News, Va.

DAR Chapter Has Last Meeting Of Year On Friday

The Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the last meeting of the year 1941-42 on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Rotha as hostess, Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, regent, presided.

Annual reports of the officers and committee chairmen were given which presented the activities of the chapter during the past year. Mrs. Bushnell also reported the purchase of a $100 war bond by the organization.

Miss Lois Harold had the program of the afternoon and she spoke on the history of the flag, starting with its first inception in this country and following it down to its present state of 48 stars and 13 stripes. She illustrated its development with color drawings which had been made by the students in her grade at Central Elementary school.

Miss Patsy Gwyn, winner of the late DAR Pilgrimage award, told of her trip to Chicago and the many courtesies extended the Pilgrims by the National DAR Society. She presented the chapter with a contribution for their work and Mrs. Bushnell, regent, and Mrs. W. F. Swift, vice regent, with small gifts from Chicago.

Announcement was made of the "Victory Vanishing" benefit parties that have been inaugurated by the chapter in which the organizations of the town are cooperating. The money derived will be applied on the courtesy program to the draftees leaving this area.

Motion was made for a free will offering of $1.00 from each member for the purchase of blood plasma for the men in the service.

A number of special guests were present for the meeting. A social hour followed adjournment.

Marriage Announced

MRS. ALLEN KERMIT MURRAY
Mr. and Mrs. John C. Underwood have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sybil May Underwood, to Corporal Allen Kermit Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen DeWitt Murray, of Phoebus, Va., who formerly resided here. The vows were solemnized in Clayton, Ga., on Tuesday, May 10th.

Virginia Matney To Wed C. W. McDaniels Later In Summer

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilliard Matney have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia Olive Matney, to Calvin Warren McDaniels, of Wilmington. The marriage will take place during the summer, the date to be announced later.

Both the bride-elect and the bridegroom attended the local township schools. Mr. McDaniels is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman McDaniels, of Gastonia. He holds a position in Wilmington.

ATTENDING CONFERENCE

Attending the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union at the North Canton Baptist church last Friday were the following from the Hazelwood Baptist church: Mrs. John Blalock, Mrs. Oscar Knight, Mrs. David Gaddis, Mrs. Burress, Mrs. Pink Compton, Mrs. Clarence Scruggs, Mrs. Robert Cope, and the Rev. Frank Leatherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harden Howell had as their guest during the week the latter's niece, Miss Margaret Marshall, of Washington, D. C. Miss Marshall has been attending a conference at Ridgecrest.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Delegates to State Meet

The following delegates were elected at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary on Thursday night to attend the state meeting to be held this month in Asheville: Mrs. J. C. Brown, president-elect, Mrs. W. H. F. Millar, and Mrs. Guy Massie, president.

Alternates included: Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Mrs. Edna McGee, and Mrs. M. C. Green. During the social hour the members enjoyed jointly with the American Legion.

Birthday Party Given For Sonja Sue Snyder

Mrs. Jack Snyder entertained a group of children on Saturday afternoon for her young daughter, Sonja Sue in observance of her fourth birthday anniversary.

Games featured the entertainment of the afternoon, after which ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were: Mary Davis, Patsy Clark, Barbara Curtis, Mary Alice Crawford, Lois Ann Tittle, Johnny Tittle, Grace Blanton, Susie Swanger, Barbara Fortner, Colleen Kuykendall, Elizabeth Ann Davis, Harold Clark, Mike Byrd, Bud Swanger, Stuart James, and Carol Davis.

Mrs. J. N. Dillard, of Roxboro, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. J. Rathbone.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Long and two sons, Noyes and Lauriston Harden Long, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hardin. Mr. Long's mother, of Marion, is also the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin.

Miss Susie Woodall, of Smithfield, was the guest of Miss Hilda Way during the past week. Miss Way and Miss Woodall were classmates at Greensboro College.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Davis have returned from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where they attended the marriage of their son, Dr. G. M. Davis, to Miss Betty Lou Alexander.

Mrs. Mary Moody Mebane has returned to Washington, D. C., where she is now residing after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Hugh Jolly.

Cyril Minett, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Minett, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. T. J. Rivers, at her home in Augusta.

Mrs. J. T. Glenn, accompanied by her small granddaughter, Virginia Hamilton, of San Antonio, Texas, left during the week for a visit with her son, Bobby Hamilton, U. S. Navy, who is now taking some special course in sound pictures in Washington, D. C. Before returning home she will visit friends in New York and Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Howell and children, Linda Jo and Betty Jean, of Newport News, Va., were the guests of relatives here during the past week. They were accompanied home by Mary Dorcas Howell.

Dick Whisenhunt, of Hartsville, S. C., is spending several days here with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lane.

Hazelwood Group At Montreat Conference

Those attending the young people's conference, is being held at the Montreat assembly this week from the Hazelwood Presbyterian church, Margaret Blalock, Edith Crow, Mildred Milner, Helen Robinson, Doris Blalock, Winchester, John Stewart, Mrs. S. R. Crockett, and Whitesides from the Bethel church. While there the group will attend "Pine Cot," the summer of Rev. and Mrs. Crockett.

Methodist Circles To Hold Meeting Tuesday

The circles of the women's society of Christian Service of First Methodist church will meet on next Tuesday as follows: Circle number one, at 8 o'clock; circle number two, at 8 o'clock; circle number three, at 8 o'clock; circle number four, at 8 o'clock; circle number five, at 8 o'clock; circle number six, at 8 o'clock; circle number seven, at 8 o'clock; circle number eight, at 8 o'clock; circle number nine, at 8 o'clock; circle number ten, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles B. Carter, of Asheville, who returned last week from Duke Hospital where she has been a patient, visited her parents here for a few days. She will leave for her home on Monday to join her husband during his day furlough.

J. Dale Stentz has returned from a week's visit with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. and George Stentz, in Newport News.

Some Recent BOOKS

- Worth Reading, Right Now, Educate A Woman. $1.00
- 50 Years of Life at the Woman's College of U. N. C. The Road We Are Traveling. $1.00
- Stuart Chase Price of Free World. 75c
- Henry A. Wallace Pearl Harbor. $1.00
- Elliott Coleman No postage charged to out-of-town customers.

Brown Book Co.

Asheville, N. C.

Father's Day -- Sunday, June 21st

Don't Forget DAD

A Gift From The Toggery Will Please

Over 300 Pairs Of Summer SLACKS All Colors

Zelan - Cloth Jacket
3.95 to 5.50

Interwoven SOCK
3 pairs $1.25

Manhattan and Tru Val PAJAMAS
1.98 and 2.50

Cooper Socks 29c

We Will Wrap Each Gift FREE

Cooper and Manhattan Underwear

BELTS In Leather and Glass
50c to $1.50

Big Stock Of SLACK SUITS Priced $298 to $850

You Will Find Among Other Lovely Things At RAY'S

CURTAINS

Criss-Cross! Tie-Backs!
Ruffles! Pin Dots! Priscillas!
Dotted Swiss! Embroidery!

ATTRACTIVELY PRICED

Dress up your windows for Summer with cool new curtains! Cushion or pin dots, eyelet embroidery, many other types. White, pastels. All sizes.

RAY'S Sons