Visits Here

CORPORAL CARL GRASTY, of Camp Lee, Va., spent a 7-day furlough here visiting his wife and mother, Mrs. O. P. Grasty, at Maggie. Corporal Grasty is in the quartermasters division, and likes his work so much, that he plans to remain in the army even after the war. He entered the service in January and has been at Camp Lee ever since entering.

Rogers Brothers

Four brothers, sons of Mrs. Ellen Rogers and the late James Mitchell Rogers, of the Bethel section, are now serving with the Armed Forces, in various divisions. At the top, left, is Pvt. Collie Rogers, age 37, who enlisted in the army in February, 1942. He is in the Field Artillery (F.A.) stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn. He visited his mother in Canton recently.

Private Charlie R. Rogers, top right, is 27 years of age, and is with the Q. M. Regiment in Australia. He entered the service in 1941.

Lower left is Private George Rogers, age 25, who is with the engineering division at Camp Polk, La. He enlisted last November. At right is the youngest son, Pfc. Woodrow W. Rogers, age 23, who is with the 13th Infantry stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C. He entered the service in September, 1941.

Corp. Wayne McCracken Arrives Safely

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCracken have been notified that their son, Corporal Wayne McCracken, of the 340 Bomb Squadron of the American Air Force has arrived safely, his destination unknown. Corporal McCracken has been in the service for the past 18 months. He volunteered and was first sent to McDill Field in Tampa, Fla., then to a flying school at La Guardia, N. Y., and then to Sarasota.

H. Parker Parrish Becomes Instructor

H. Parker Parrish, who volunteered last November, has recently graduated from the Master Gunner's course at the anti-aircraft artillery school at Camp Davis. He is being retained at the school as an instructor. Young Parrish, a native of Thomasville, Ga., had resided in Waynesville two years prior to his entry in the service. He held a position with the Blue Ridge Parkway.

2 Haywood Boys

Gas rationing has no fears for Pvt. Claude E. Sutton (right) and Pvt. Dennis Winkler (left) who have taken their bicycles for their means of "going into town" from camp.

Two Haywood Boys Transferred to Maine

Private Claud E. Sutton and Private Dennis Winkler, both of this county, are now stationed at Dow Field, in Rangor, Maine. Both volunteered on Jan. 2, of this year. They took their basic training at Sheppard Field, Wichita, Texas. They are both serving as plane mechanics. They are enthusiastic about their work.

Sergeant George Moody Visits Family Here

Sergeant George Moody spent the week-end here with his family. Sergeant Moody re-entered the service in December, 1941. Prior to that time he had been in the U. S. Army for 12 years.

Lt. Col. Harry Crawford Stationed in Ireland

A letter from Lt. Col. Harry Crawford, to his mother here stated that he was temporarily stationed in North Ireland, the letter having been written a month ago. He stated that the weather was pretty chilly, but that after he had spent eight winters in the state of Iowa he could "take the Ireland climate."

Sergeant James Robinson, of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coalsen have received word from their son DeDee Coalsen, that he has arrived safely in Ireland. Mr. Coalsen, who went in to the service several months ago, received his training with the Armored Regiment at Camp Wheeler, Ga., Fort Knox, Kentucky, and Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Lieutenant James Davis, of Fort Jackson, spent the week-end here with his family.

Private Robert Cope, Jr., of Fort Jackson, is spending a furlough here with relatives.

Captain George F. Plott is now stationed in Springfield, Ill. Mrs. Plott recently returned home after spending three weeks with him. He likes the present location fine, but is finding it "warmer than Western North Carolina," he said.

Captain George C. Plott, who left here in September, 1940, with Company H for Fort Jackson, is now stationed with Company D, 353rd Infantry, 89th Division, at Camp Carson, Colorado. Captain Plott says he is enjoying the west, and that the country was beautiful, but he still looked forward for each issue of The Mountaineer for news from home.

PFC Bill Toohy, now with the marine corps, in Key West, Fla., has gotten just a little homesick since reading the line-up of the softball teams in The Mountaineer. Bill did the announcing for two years and took an active part in the athletic programs of the community. He is anxious for mail from home. His address is PFC Wm. F. Toohy, U. S. M. C., Naval Operating Base, Key West, Fla.

For Bill's personal opinion of Key West mosquitoes, it is suggested that you write for information direct.

Promoted

Exactly four months after enlisting in the army, Ned D. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dill J. Howell, has received two promotions, and is now a corporal and serving as a supply clerk at Moore Field, Advanced Flying school, Mission, Texas. Corporal Howell is only 20 years old, and graduated from high school here in the class of 1941.

Coast Guard Notifies Ralph Ditmire Missing

Relatives of Ralph Ditmire, 50, native of Bryson City, and one time resident of Waynesville, have been notified by the Coast Guard that he is "missing in action in the service of his country."

Prior to the entry of this country in the war Mr. Ditmire was a pursur on a passenger seamanship. Later his ship was taken over by the navy and Mr. Ditmire remained with it in a civilian capacity. Two weeks ago a cable was received stating that Mr. Ditmire had arrived safely in Iceland.

Mr. Ditmire traveled for a number of years in Western North Carolina for the Wilson Packing Company and for two years was assistant district passenger agent of the Southern Railway in Asheville. His family reside in New York. He is survived by his wife and three children, one son, Dick is in the navy.

Howard Jennings Now In Marine Corps

Howard Jennings, of Sumter, S. C., son-in-law of Mrs. W. T. Crawford, is stationed at Paris Island, Mr. Jennings recently volunteered for service. Mrs. Jennings, the former Miss May Crawford, has gone to Red Wing Camp in the Adirondacks, where she has been counselor for the past several years.

Private James G. Deweese, son of Mrs. Lillie Deweese, of Hazelwood, who was recently stationed at Camp Berkeley, Texas, where he is taking his basic training with the medical corps.

GOLDEN GLEAMS

Cognito, ergo sum. I think, therefore, I am. —Descartes. Send thoughts, they say, are best.—Dryden.

For just experience tells, in every soil, That they who think must govern those that toil. —Goldsmith.

They never taste who always drink; They always talk who never think. —Matthew Prior.

Though man a thinking being is defined, Few use the grand prerogative of mind. How few think justly of the thinking few! How many never think, who think they do! —Jane Taylor.
