softball teams shared top honors in the league, with each team having suffered defeat only once in nine games,

The peppy high school team remained on the third rung of the won and lost ladder, while the Lions occupied the half way mark after winning and dropping a game this week.

Honors for winning the most games of the past week, went to the high school sluggers, as they added two games to their win column

Pet Dairy played three games, and won one. Dayton Rubber took the only game they played, as did the Tannery.

Rotary ended with the same percentage, after taking a game from Jonathan Creek, only to drop one by a run to Pet Dairy. Jonathan Creek dropped both games of the week. One to Rotary and the other to the Lions by a 13 to 9

The Booster dropped their only game of the week to high school. Total games won and lost for Buchanan.

The North Carolina Confederate Memorial forest in the Pisgah National Forest will be dedicated on Sunday, with Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, as the chief speaker.

The forest will contain 125,000 red spruce and balsam trees as living memorials to the 125,000 soldiers North Carolina furnished for Confederacy during the War

Because of rubber and gasoline restrictions most of the dedicatory program will be held during luncheon at the George Vanderbilt hotel at Asheville at 12:30. Afterwards a brief exercise for the unveiling of the temporary marker at the memorial forest near the Devil's Court House along the Blue Ridge Parkway will be held.

Mrs. R. O. Everett, of Durham, division president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which is sponsoring the project, will make the address of presentation of the area into the custody of the National Forest Service and H. B. Bosworth, supervisor of Pigah National Forest, will accept it for the government.

Mrs. L. E. Fisher, of Asheville, is general chairman of the committee in charge of the dedication program, as it was during her term of office as state president Sunday, June 14th, at 10:40 p. m. that the movement was started. A number of the state officers will
