

Louise Russell Is Married To E. F. Waterbury

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner Russell of East street have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Russell, of Raleigh and Waynesville, to Private Elwood F. Waterbury, of Fort Bragg, and Herkimer, N. Y., which took place in an impressive ceremony on August 15th, at 10 o'clock at the West Raleigh Presbyterian church in Raleigh.

The church was decorated with ferns and snow-on-the-mountain, interspersed with crystal candelabra bearing lighted tapers. The Rev. John H. Grey, Jr., pastor of the church, pronounced the vows, using the ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented prior to the taking of the vows, by Miss Nancy White, of Raleigh. She rendered "Because" by d' Hurdellot; "Intermezzo" by Prevost, and "Romavie Sans Paroles" by Bounet. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march for the recessional.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a blue crepe ensemble with navy and white accessories. Her bouquet was of red rosebuds and stephanotis.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville district high school, where she was an outstanding student in the class of 1937. She now holds a clerical position in the state office of the Unemployment Compensation Commission in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Florella Waterbury and the late Frank Waterbury, of Herkimer, N. Y. He is a graduate of the high school of his city and was employed by the H. P. Snyder Manufacturing Company of Herkimer, N. Y., before volunteering for service in the U. S. army. He is stationed at Fort Bragg.

After the wedding the young couple left for a short trip to Carolina and Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Waterbury will continue her residence in Raleigh for the present.
