The Christian View of Marriage

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for November 1 is Genesis 1:27, 28; 2:24; Jeremiah 29:4-6; Matthew 19:3-6; John 2:1-5; the Golden Text being Hebrews 13:4. "Let marriage be had in honor among all."

IN THE beginning God created man and woman—"male and female created He them." God then blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth."

The other reference in Genesis for our lesson for today refers to the other description of the creation of human beings wherein it is told that God put Adam into a deep sleep, extracted a rib and ordered Eve, to keep him from loneliness and be a helpmeet for him. Adam's words spoken in his joy were:

Now our lesson takes us to Nazareth, in Palestine, where Matthew tells us Jesus was preaching and teaching. Great multitudes followed Him everywhere, and among them were the Pharisees and Sadducees. These latter were always trying to trip our Lord, you remember.

member, hoping to get Him to make some admission that would give them a chance to have Him arrested and thrown into prison, at the least. The result was, however, without exception, to cover themselves with humiliation, for He showed them that they were ignorant of the laws of their own religion.

In this case they asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?" Jesus answered, "Have ye not read, that He which made them at the beginning made them male and female, 'And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?'"

"Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore, God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." I imagine these men had no more questions for Him that day. That is the ideal marriage, and few indeed have been the races that have adhered to it throughout the centuries.

The last reference today is to the marriage which Jesus attended with His mother and His disciples. It was at Cana. The story recites Jesus' first recorded miracle, Jesus' mother discovered that the guests wanted wine and there was none. She told her Son and said to the servants, " whatsoever He saith unto you, do it." Jesus directed that six waterpots of stone should be filled with water, and when it was withdrawn it was wine.

evening message will be "Move On Or Die."

Church school opens at 9:45. The Methodist Youth Fellowship is beginning a series of special studies on the subject, "Planning The World of Tomorrow." These meetings will be held each Sunday evening through the month of November at 8:30. The program next Sunday will be in the form of a forum.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

Assembly rooms, second floor of Masonic Temple. Sunday school at 9:45. Reading room open Wednesday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock. "Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon on Sunday morning at the regular 11 o'clock hour.

The Golden Text will be taken from Proverbs 3:11, "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his corrections; for whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth." Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon will be the God of hosts, who is a strong Lord following from the Bible: "O Lord unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? Justice and judgment are the habitations of thy throne; mercy and truth shall go before thy face. If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips." (Psalm 89: 8, 14, 31, 32, 34).
