Text: "THOSE JAPS told to stay and fight to the last man in the Solomons for the glory and honor of Hirohito back in Tokyo must be setting some sort of record for long-distance face saving. Shortage of dyes is dooming the old British school tie. From now on the boys will have to carry the marks of their education in their heads and not on their chests. Everyone, says an editorial, admires a champion. How about a champion tightwad? Devil's island. What about the convicts already there—don't they have any rights? In Bromley, England, a monkey turned on cafe lights during a blackout. Trying to live up to his game, no doubt. A duck can dive under water, swim on the surface, walk on land and fly in the air. What a swell secret weapon it would make if it could only fire a gun!"
