

Colorful Costumes and Youthful Talent Mark Dance School Recital

The second annual recital of the dance pupils of the Evelyn Craig School of the Dance was marked by colorful costumes and youthful talent, reflecting credit both to the teacher and the students. The recital was featured as a variety show.

The program was presented last night in the auditorium of the Central Elementary school and consisted of tap, toe, acrobatic and ballet dance numbers with vocal selections.

Miss Betty Cronie gave a vocal number, accompanied by Theresa Alley. Miss Alley as a guest artist gave two numbers on the program. Mrs. Fred Campbell served as accompanist for the tap dancers and Miss Louise Martin accompanied the ballet groups.

The costumes, which were unusually effective, were designed by the dance school.

The school was started eighteen months ago by Evelyn Craig, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Craig, who has studied dancing since she was a small child. Miss Craig is a member of the junior class of the local high school.

In addition to those mentioned others taking part on the program last night included: Lynda Welch, Betty Sawyer, Betty Felmet, Pauline Ferguson, Tootie McDaniel, Clara Sue Shuler, Ruby McDaniels, Florence Ann Bowles, Martha Ann Grahl, Doris Grahl, Nancy Underwood, and Carolyn Cronie.

Mrs. Ray Shoaf has returned from Macon, Ga., where she has visited her husband, Private Ray Shoaf. Mrs. Shoaf was accompanied by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. Z. Candler.

Mrs. Robert W. Wright is visiting her family and friends at Lake Junaluska. She was formerly employed at the Broadway Department Store in Newport News, Va.
