

Posts of Duty of Children of Mrs. D. C. Campbell

Four of the seven children of Mrs. D. Crockett Campbell and the late Mr. Campbell, of the Maggie section of this county, are in the service. Their present stations are as follows:

Guy Campbell, chief electrical engineer, U. S. Navy, who has been in the service since last July, is now serving "somewhere" in the North Atlantic. He is a veteran of World War Number 1, and at the time he volunteered was an electrical engineer located in New York City.

Lt. Grace Platt Campbell, U. S. Nursing Corps, is now stationed in Jamaica, and has been in the service since December, 1940. Prior to her volunteering she was in Woodland Clinic, Woodland, Calif.

Lt. Campbell was connected with the Haywood County Hospital for several years.

Auxiliary Nell Campbell, of the Woman's Army Auxiliary Corps, is now stationed at Shelby, Miss., where she is taking an officers' training course.

Pfc. Fred Campbell, who has been in the service since March of this year, volunteered in November, 1942, but was not called into active duty until several months later, is now stationed in Texarkana, Tex.

Pfc. Talmadge Woodard Stationed At Camp Cooke

Pfc. Talmadge L. Woodard, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Woodard, of Hazelwood, has returned to Camp Cooke in California, after spending a 15-day furlough here.

Pfc. Woodard has been in the service since September, 1942, he was first stationed at Fort Bragg, then Camp Helen, Texas, and from there he was transferred to Camp Cooke.

Young Woodard is a graduate of Waynesville Township high school, graduating in the class of 1940. He was Valedictorian of the class.

Before entering the service he was employed by the Wilmington shipyard.

Pfc. Woodard has a brother in the service, Corporal Leonard Woodard, who is stationed at the Marine base in Key West, Florida.

Pvt. James H. Mitchell Now At Camp Young

Private James H. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, of Waynesville route 2, is now stationed at Camp Young, Calif. He was inducted in the service at Camp Croft in January of this year.

From Camp Croft he was transferred to Los Angeles, Calif.

Prior to entering the service, Pvt. Mitchell was employed by the Underwood Novelty Company.

Seaman James F. Albright Here On 7-Day Leave

Seaman James F. Albright, seaman first class, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albright, is spending a seven-day leave here with his parents.

Seaman Albright has recently completed his boot training at Bainbridge, Md. He volunteered in the service and has been in since March. Prior to his being called to active duty, he was employed by the Pet Dairy Products Company.

Pvt. Alvin A. Dills Is Home On Furlough

Private Alvin A. Dills, son of Mrs. Jane Dills, is spending a several days furlough here with his mother. He is now stationed at Shaw Field, S. C.

Pvt. Dills has been in the service for the past seven months. He volunteered and reported for duty in the Air Corps at Shaw Field, where he has since been stationed.

Prior to his volunteering for the service, Pvt. Dills was taking welding training at the North Carolina Ship yards in Wilmington.

Pvt. James R. Wyatt, Jr., Spends Furlough Here

Private James R. Wyatt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wyatt, of Waynesville, route 2, recently spent several days here with his wife, Mrs. Hilda Moody Wyatt.

Pvt. Wyatt has been in the service since August 2, 1942. He was inducted at Fort Jackson and from there he was transferred to Keesler Field, Miss. From the latter he was sent to Albuquerque, New Mex. and from there to his present post of duty at Boca Rayon Field, Fla.

Pfc. Warren H. Putnam Now In California

Private First Class Warren H. Putnam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Putnam, of Cove Creek, is now stationed at Camp Beale, California.

Pfc. Putnam has been in the service since September, 1942. He was inducted in the service at Fort Bragg and from there was transferred to Camp Wolters, Tex. From Camp Wolters, he was sent to his present post.

The General Sherman tanks in Egypt are living up to their name—giving the Germans what Sherman said war was.

FAITH

If you examine the symbol of pharmacy, you will discover in it The Cross which is the symbol of mankind's faith in a better world and a brighter future. This, too, is the ideal of pharmacy, and wherever Christianity has brought the light of civilization to peoples living in darkness, medicine and pharmacy have stood in the shadow of The Cross, performing their particular service to mankind.
