

Camp Dellwood Opens August Session Today

Camp Dellwood closed its July session which had been operated by the Asheville Council of the Girl Scouts, yesterday and today will start the regular term of the camp.

During the Girl Scout Camp with the program directed by Miss Virginia Griffin, of Asheville, there were girls from 12 states among the 60 attending. Miss D. Chapin Hilliard, of Florida, director of the camp, was in charge of maintenance and food during the Girl Scout session.

Around forty girls are expected to attend the August session which will be directed by Miss Hilliard. Twelve states will again be represented in the membership of the campers.

Of special interest is the work group of the camp which will be held each day in construction projects, emphasizing riding, tennis and primitive camping and trips. The pioneer group will construct a pioneer camp on the grounds.
