

Girl Scouts Hold Court Of Honor

Twenty-six Girl Scouts met at the new time at four o'clock Friday afternoon at the Central Elementary school last week and participated in a Court of Honor, during which five new girls were taken into the troop. A short talk was given by their leader, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, after which the girls sang Scout songs and began learning the Girl Scout Hiking song.

There are twelve new girls in the troop working on their Second Class Badge under the assistant leader, Mrs. Stanley Brading, while the older girls have started on the Bookbinding Badge on their First Class and Curved Bar badge work.

A Court of Awards will be held the latter part of December just before school recesses for the holidays, Mrs. Wagenfeld has announced. At this time Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class and other badges will be awarded to the girls who have earned them.

Arrangements have been completed for registration for ration book 4 in Haywood County. Registration site and details will be found on the front page of this newspaper.

The public was again reminded that presentation of all copies of book 3 previously issued to any family must be presented at the registration site to simplify identity and eligibility for book 4.

One adult member of a family can register, in person, for new books for every member of that family, it was explained, but individuals living alone or in boarding houses must apply in person.

Applicants will fill out a simple form and will receive their copies of book 4 immediately after registration.

The new books will go into use Nov. 1 when green stamps "A, B, and C" will become valid to buy canned fruits and vegetables.

uniform system of retail ceiling prices for luggage by OPA, regardless of what type of store sells it.

The purpose is to check rapidly rising prices for luggage in the face of a shortage of luggage supplies. The effect, an OPA statement said, will be to reduce retail prices considerably and after Nov. 1 all luggage sold at retail must carry tags showing the specific top legal price for that item.

OPA has set a new seasonal range of retail ceiling prices for 13 green vegetables which will be substantially below those which prevailed last winter. They will represent reductions of as much as 30 and 50 percent in the retail prices of such items as lima beans, cabbage, tomatoes, cauliflower, cauliflower. Other vegetables to be covered in the program are: snap beans, radishes, eggplant, lettuce, green peas, and spinach. Top prices for five vegetables—beets, asparagus, melons, cantaloupes, and the crop of onions will be announced, an OPA statement said. Meanwhile, top retail prices already been placed on apples, grapes, oranges, and

FOREST LANDS IN THE U. S.

ONE SQUARE MILE EQUALS 640 ACRES
WARTIME CUTTING of our forest preserves has been the subject of bitter controversy in Washington, the Department of Agriculture arguing that excessive cutting for wartime needs without adequate reforestation is depleting our reserves. The chart shows extent of forest lands in the United States as compared with the area in square miles of New York State. (International)

Home Cooked Hot Breads

By BETSY NEWMAN
THE SUBJECT of hot breads is always a fascinating one to me. It's a little difficult for a business woman to serve them often, but now, when fancy dishes are not easily obtainable we ought to serve them at least once in a while. Try one of the recipes I'm giving you today.

- Today's Menu: Cheese Omelet, Riced Potatoes, Green Beans, Waldorf Salad, Popovers or Graham Gems, Stewed Fruit, Tea.
- Cheese Omelet: 3 eggs, 3 tps. water, 2 tps. milk, 2 tps. mild grated cheese, Salt. Beat eggs lightly, yolks and whites together, add water and seasoning. Melt margarine in omelet pan, pour in eggs and stir and mix lightly until they begin to set. Sprinkle grated cheese over top, then scrape and push omelet to one side of pan. Cook about 1 minute.
- Pop-overs: 1 c. flour, 1 c. milk, 1/2 tsp. salt, 2 eggs. Sift together flour and salt; add eggs well beaten, also milk. Beat hard for 2 minutes, then pour at once into hissing hot, greased gem pans, and bake about 35 minutes in a hot oven (425 degrees F.).
- Graham Gems: 2 c. Graham flour, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 tsp. salt, 2 tps. melted butter, 2 tps. baking powder. Blend together flour, salt and baking powder, beat egg well and add it with milk and shortening to form a batter. Bake in hot, greased gem pans to moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.
